

BULLDOGS WORKING FOR FRIDAY'S GAME

Defense Stressed Yesterday Offense and Blocking Get Attention Today

The Bulldog eleven of Henderson high school reported to Coach Crosby yesterday afternoon in full strength, no injuries being sustained in the game with Roanoke Rapids Friday, which they dropped 21-6.

Defensive tactics claimed the attention of the squad yesterday's work out, and Burwell Smith, who was shifted from guard to left end for the Yellow Jacket game, went back to his guard position yesterday and Wilburn Finch and Butch Peace started a battle for the end berth.

Yesterday's drill was longer than usual and that will be the rule for the remaining days of the week as the locals prepare for the coming of Catholic Orphanage to League Park Friday afternoon.

Work on the offense and blocking was the course served the 'Dogs in their drills today.

Friday's opponent turned back Oxford high school last Friday by a 13-0 score, proving that they are formidable.

STAR STATE BACKS BE READY SATURDAY

Berlinski and Robinson Were Injured in Georgia Game With Other Stars

College Station, Raleigh, Oct. 22—Coach Hunk Anderson of State College, announced today that his two star sophomore backs, Eddie Berlinski and Cowboy Robinson, would be ready to face Manhattan Saturday in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Berlinski and Robinson were injured badly in the Georgia game last Saturday and missed more than half of the game. They have been under the constant care of physicians and their injuries are responding to treatment.

Joe Ryneska, regular fullback, and E. V. Helms, regular left tackle, also injured in the Georgia battle, are also rounding into shape and will be ready for action.

Captain Earnest Worth, right guard, had to come out of the game early when his old South Carolina injury was given another knocking. Worth probably will not play Saturday unless needed.

Deacons to Meet George Washington in Saturday Tilt

Wake Forest, Oct. 22—After having already faced such stars as Duke's Ace Parker and Elmore Hackney, Carolina's Don Jackson and Jim Hutchins, State's Cowboy Robinson and Eddie Berlinski, Clemson's Streak Lawton and Furman's Bob King, the Deacons of Wake Forest College will meet the 1934 All-American half back, Alphonse "Tuffy" Leemans—when they run up against George Washington University on Gore Field Saturday afternoon at 2:30, who, from all reports, is headed for national recognition again this year.

AUBURN AND DUKE PLAY CLOSE GAMES

Durham, Oct. 22—For the three years, Auburn and Duke have been playing the two institutions have engaged in bitter struggles. The first tilt of the modern series was taken by Auburn, 18-7 in a hard fought game that found Duke rallying in the second half to almost overcome the long Plainsmen lead. In 1933, the Plainsmen threw a scare into Duke's great eleven and it was about all the Blue Devils could do to win, 13-7. Last year in Birmingham with Duke slated to win hands down, the Blue Devils had to score two touchdowns in the final period to win, 13-7.

JACKSON HAS MADE VERY FINE RECORD

Chapel Hill, Oct. 22—Don Jackson is the man for the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech to watch Saturday when they invade Chapel Hill, home of the North Carolina "Flying Tar Heels." This halfback is the spearhead of the Carolina attack—at running, at passing, at punting, and at defense. He is one of the leading prospects for All-America honors.

AIR RAIDS THEIR SPECIALTY

Captain Geny Coach Morrison

Field and bench generals of the Vanderbilt university eleven talk over plans for air raids on eastern and southern teams. Willie Geny, left, is captain and Ray Morrison, former Southern Methodist mentor, is coach of the Tennessee eleven. Captain Geny's hands, useful units in an extensive forward passing campaign, seem to be the subject of discussion. Successive games with Temple, Fordham and Louisiana are part of Vandy's hard schedule.

GA. TECH AT PEAK FOR U. N. C. ELEVEN

Injured Veterans to Be Ready for Tar Heels; Carolina Homecoming

Chapel Hill, Oct. 22—Georgia Tech should be at its peak Saturday for North Carolina's homecoming battle here.

The Tornado's record to date includes two (7-0-1) victories over Presbyterian and Sewanee, a 1-0 against Kentucky and a spectacular upset of the powerful Duke team.

Against Duke several veterans were withheld by Tech due to injuries. In their places sophomores were placed and these "varsity yearlings" played a whale of a ball game. No less than 7 of these sophomores started the game. A complete soph backfield played most of the game.

But now these injured players, which include Captain Lefty Eubanks at tackle, John Wilcox at guard and Foot Gibson at end, are back in shape and are said to be ready for the Tar Heels. This trio of Tech veterans are ranked among the best linemen in Dixie.

Therefore Tech should be stronger against Carolina than against Duke. Where Tech's injuries are improving, Carolina is suffering from fresh hurts in the Davidson game. The two best Tar Heel fullbacks, Jim Hutchins and Art Ditt, and the two best tackles, John Trimpey and Tom Ewins, are handicapped with injuries.

All this sums up to an effect that the Tar Heels' Homecoming game should be the best game in the State so far this season. The largest crowd in the State so far this year is expected to fill Kenan Stadium to see these two first class elevens fight it out.

ANDERSON USED 13 BACKS SATURDAY

College Station, Raleigh, Oct. 22—Coach Hunk Anderson used 13 State College backs in the Georgia game Saturday which is believed to be the largest number of backs ever to play in one game for State. Each gave a good account of himself in the Georgia fight.

Relief in Small Way Continues

In the State after that date, although there is nothing definite to indicate that this will be the case, it was learned today from the office of Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, State ERA administrator. The latest instructions from Washington, however, call for the complete discontinuation of all relief work in the State by the NCERA, effective November 1.

Nor has there been any additional allotment of ERA funds from Washington aside from the allotment received several weeks ago for October activities. It is understood that Assistant ERA Administrator Aubrey Williams asked Mrs. O'Berry several days ago if an additional allotment was absolutely necessary to carry this State's relief activities through the remainder of this month. Mrs. O'Berry was out of town today, however, and could not be reached, with the result that it could not be learned if she had requested an additional allotment, and if so, for how much.

Since the WPA has been unable to put former relief clients to work as fast as had been anticipated, due to the very small allotments it has received from the WPA in Washington, with the result that there are still thousands of relief clients without any prospect of getting WPA jobs, the belief in ERA circles here is that the ERA in Washington will continue to make small allotments to the State ERA here to take care of the most needy relief cases until such a time as the WPA can expand its activities and supply work for them. For it is not believed that ERA will cut off all of its relief clients without anything in view after November.

This is pure supposition, however, since the latest orders from the ERA headquarters in Washington call for complete cessation of all relief activities on November 1.

STOPPING RADIO

When the British refused to permit the broadcasting to America of a talk by Baron Aloisi, Italian delegate to the League of Nations council, it was not the first cutting off of a radio transmission to America. That now has been disclosed.

A few days previously, F. W. Rickett, oil promoter, who claims a concession in Ethiopia, found that the scheduled talk was forbidden.

The British government not only controls the radio communications of the British Isles, but wherever Britain has possessions—and in Ethiopia. Only a powerful radio station could surmount the British radio blockade.

WHEAT IMPORTER

Very quietly it is becoming known that the United States, once the great wheat exporting nation will be importing wheat next year.

The wheat farmer thus will be in an enviable position. The American carry-over will have disappeared.

Without government control and more impending (as in the past two years) it is questionable whether the price can be maintained for the higher price the more will be the temptation to enlarge plantings.

And the new Canadian government may dispose of its carry-over.

Urban dwellers probably will see a rise in bread prices.

Consumption of Beer Now Near Double

crease is believed to be the fact that full-strength "regular" beer has been sold in the State ever since the 1935 general assembly repealed the 3.2 beer law in effect last year and authorized the sale of beer containing up to 5 per cent alcohol. It is generally agreed that the full-strength beer is much better and that more of this beer is being drunk. Another factor is that by repealing the 3.2 per cent beer law and legalizing the sale of 5 per cent beer, the legislature dealt a death blow to the bootlegging of full-strength beer, so that the State now collects the tax on virtually all of the beer sold. Before the new law went into effect it was estimated that almost half the beer sold in the state was full-strength beer that was bootlegged to dealers, and on which no
