

MUSSOLINI AND BRITAIN REACH AGREEMENT

Both Democrats and G. O. P. Pleased at Elections

DR. R. M. ANDREWS IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF M. P. CONFERENCE

Dr. C. W. Bates Chosen Secretary for 20th Year, Both Being Re-Elected to Office

REV. T. G. MADISON IN ANNUAL SERMON

High Point Minister Preaches at Opening Session in Forenoon; Dr. Andrews, in Annual Report, Denounces Liquor Stores; Dr. Broomfield Preaches Tonight

By REV. J. L. TROLLINGER
Dr. R. M. Andrews, of High Point, was re-elected president for a fourth year and Dr. C. W. Bates, of Winston-Salem, was chosen secretary for his twentieth consecutive year when the annual election of officers for 1935 was held this afternoon by the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference, which opened here today.
Dr. Andrews had twice before served the conference in five-year terms, the limit in consecutive tenure as president. Of the 174 votes cast in today's election, one of the high spots of the opening day, Dr. Andrews polled 98, the other 76 being scattered among a number of other ministers.
After the balloting, the conference made Dr. Andrews' election unanimous.
Dr. Bates' election was also made unanimous.

Conference Leaders Re-Elected

REV. R. M. ANDREWS, D. D., President, High Point.

DR. C. W. BATES, Secretary, Winston-Salem.

TRADE CLIMBS BUT EMPLOYMENT LAGS

Industry Demands Less Spending and Less Taxation to Make Jobs

GOTHAM BALANCES UP

LaGuardia Saves New York City $35,000,000 in One Year; Wagner Bill Faces Early Test in Court

By LESLIE EICHEL
New York, Nov. 6.—Earnings figures for the last quarter of the year will be surprisingly good. In many trades, business is increasing contrary to the usual trend at this time of the year—notably in gasoline and oil.
But employment does not improve in the same ratio. That is a problem which has not been solved—a problem affecting one-fifth of the population.
The administration, stung by criticism of huge spending, pleads for private industry to take up the employment lag.
Industry responds by demanding

LaGuardia saves New York City $35,000,000 in one year; Wagner bill faces early test in court.
By LESLIE EICHEL
New York, Nov. 6.—Earnings figures for the last quarter of the year will be surprisingly good. In many trades, business is increasing contrary to the usual trend at this time of the year—notably in gasoline and oil.
But employment does not improve in the same ratio. That is a problem which has not been solved—a problem affecting one-fifth of the population.
The administration, stung by criticism of huge spending, pleads for private industry to take up the employment lag.
Industry responds by demanding

KENTUCKY BALLOTS BEING TABULATED; RESULT UNCERTAIN

Republicans Gain Decisive Control of New York Assembly in Tuesday's Voting

JIM FARLEY SAYS NEW DEAL UPHELD

Republicans Carry Philadelphia and Cleveland, But Democrats Win Connecticut Cities; New York's $55,000,000 Relief Bond Issue Wins Easily

DEMOCRAT LEADS

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 6 (AP)—A. B. (Happy) Chandler, Democrat, who campaigned for governor of Kentucky on a "support Roosevelt" program, led his Republican opponent, Judge Swope, by 2,111 votes on first returns from the State's general election yesterday.

Swope refrained from making the New Deal an issue.
Sixty-four precincts out of 4,219 gave Chandler 7,536, Swope 5,425. Twenty-two of the State's 120 counties were represented in the tabulation, which got off to a slow start, as local races were counted first in a number of counties.

(By The Associated Press)
While Kentucky's votes were being counted today, both Republican and Democratic party leaders expressed satisfaction with the outcome of yesterday's elections in other states.
Republicans hailed the election of a Republican majority to the New York State Assembly as a good omen for

(Continued on Page Two.)

Duke Gloucester, Prince of England, Is Wed in London

London, Nov. 6 (AP)—The Duke of Gloucester, tall soldier-son of the king and queen of England, and Lady Alice Montague-Douglas-Scott, 33-year-old Scot aristocrat, were married today in a quiet ceremony in the crimson and gold chapels of Buckingham Palace.
With the plighting of this troth, the Prince of Wales became the British royal family's only bachelor.

HUGE FARM COLONY PROJECT IS SOUGHT

Eastern Carolina Newspaper Men Launch Program at Goldsboro Meet

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.
Raleigh, Nov. 5.—A movement to secure Federal aid in the establishment of a huge farm colony undertaking in New Hanover county which would place 1,500 families on 25,000 acres of land there on which they might not only become self-supporting but actually wealthy, was launched at a meeting of Eastern North Carolina newspaper publishers, editors and business men at a meeting in Goldsboro Monday night. The support of the newspaper men present was voiced in the adoption of a

(Continued on Page Eight.)

OUR WEATHER MAN

FOR NORTH CAROLINA
Mostly cloudy tonight and Thursday; somewhat colder tonight and on the coast Thursday.

Cotton Co-ops Are Defended By J. C. Stone

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 6 (AP)—James C. Stone, former chairman of the Federal Farm Board, defended cotton cooperatives today with the statement that they "were made the victims for the entire cotton industry in the disastrous 16-cent loan of October, 1929."
Stone told a senatorial sub-committee headed by Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, that, although cooperative representatives conferred with the farm board nearly every day

(Continued on Page Two.)

Near Record Auto Listing Proves Prosperity Coming Back and Is Coming Fast

In the Sir Walter Hotel, Daily Dispatch Bureau, BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.
Raleigh, Nov. 6.—With automobile registrations now amounting to 500,452 in North Carolina and promising to exceed those of 1929, when the peak of registrations went almost to 519,000, and with new car sales rapidly approaching the 1929 record, well just can't believe that the Republicans and big bankers correct in their contention that President Roosevelt and the "New Deal" are a flop and the country going to the bow-

(Continued on Page Three.)

20 on Trial at Last in France's Stavisky Case

After two years of political maneuvering, 20 persons, including Arlette Stavisky, the widow (right) of Alexandre Stavisky, are on trial in Paris on the charge of being implicated in the tremendous swindles based after the mysterious death of the Russian (left) and the resultant riots (below) which brought France to the brink of revolution. (Central Press)

$8,897,423 Is Allotted N. C.

Washington, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Comptroller General J. R. McCarl today approved $12,385,369 more of WPA projects in 28 states. His action boosted to $2,701,944, 175 the amount of projects from which State administrators may select those to be carried out.
McCarl also released $9,108,694 of WPA allotments to the 29 states, bringing to $981,648,338 the total available for immediate expenditure.
The value of projects approved today by McCarl included: North Carolina $8,897,423.

JOBS BEING MADE RAPIDLY IN STATE

Reemployment Service Pushed to Furnish Workers For Projects

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.
Raleigh, Nov. 6.—The various offices of the National Reemployment Service over the State are now being kept busy supplying the workers for the many WPA projects which are at last beginning to get under way, Mrs.

(Continued on Page Three.)

Hoey Asks Traveling Men's Aid

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, BY J. C. BASKERVILLE.
Raleigh, Nov. 6.—Clyde R. Hoey, of Shelby, is becoming more active in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor, according to reports reaching here from various sections of the State. In addition to making more and more speeches, he had just sent on a campaign letter to most of the commercial traveling men in the State asking their support. It is estimated that between 4,000 and 6,000 of these letters have been sent out, since virtually every traveling man in the State seems to

(Continued on Page Two.)

G. O. P. Liberal Platform Is Urged by Vandenburg

Attack on Everything New Deal Has Done Won't Succeed, Michigan Senator Says

STANDPAT PROGRAM COULDN'T WIN OUT

"Lincoln Liberalism" Will Get Voters, and Predicts Year from Today Headlines Will Proclaim New Leader in U. S. and That "the Republic Is Restored"

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Senator A. H. Vandenburg, Republican, Michigan, today urged the adoption of a "Lincoln liberalism" platform for the 1936 Republican campaign.
The senator, frequently mentioned as a presidential candidate, in an address prepared for delivery before the Hamilton Club of Chicago, said the G. O. P. could win in 1936 if it were ready with affirmative plans "for the nation's troubles. That is what the country wants," he said.
"We must—and shall—produce a specific program out of next June's Republican convention.
"I venture to believe that when the time comes the Republican party will speak plainly, constructively, progressively—and victoriously."
An attack on everything the Roosevelt administration has done will not succeed, Senator Vandenburg warned adding that Republican voters, "in-

(Continued on Page Two.)

POLICY OF MEXICO DISMAYS CATHOLICS

See No Freedom of Education, Regardless of Government Claim

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Catholic leaders in Mexico expressed extreme disappointment today at the latest declaration of the government's religious policies, in which Sylvano Gonzalez, secretary of the interior, asserted there would be no modification of present laws.
"We had hoped that the government of President Cardenas, which has shown some liberality in other ways, would give us back some of the

(Continued on Page Two.)

BRITISH FLEET AND ITALIAN FORCES IN LIBYA TO BE LESS

Tension Between Two Powers in Mediterranean Is Greatly Lessened by Accord

ITALIAN DRIVE TO RESUME TOMORROW

Rain Has Stopped, Mud Dried Up and Roads Built; Resistance at Makale Expected; Addis Ababa Claims Italian Scouting Force Disastrously Repulsed

(By The Associated Press)
Mussolini and Great Britain, Paris diplomatic circles said today, have settled their differences in the Mediterranean.

As a result, Premier Pierre Laval of France renewed his efforts for a peace settlement to end the Italian invasion in East Africa, a settlement acceptable to the League of Nations and Ethiopia as well as to Il Duce.
The basis of settlement apparently was this:
Mussolini will reduce his Fascist forces in Libya, bordering Egypt on the west, to normal strength. In re-

(Continued on Page Two.)

SALVAGE SHIP HAS LUSITANIA SERVICE

Cork, Ireland, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The crew of the salvage ship Orphir held a memorial service today over a wrecked ship near Kinsale Head, reported identified as the Cunard liner Lusitania.
A Catholic priest and Protestant minister read services and a wreath was tossed on the sea. Irish Free State and local officials participated in the ceremony.

FAMED EVOLUTIONIST DIES IN HIS STUDY

Garrison, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP)—Henry Fairfield Osborn, noted scientist, who carried on the work of Darwin and Huxley in expounding the theory of evolution, died in his study today. He was 78.
Death was caused by heart disease, and it came just after Professor Osborn had settled himself in an arm chair, preparing for his writing on a scientific book.
Professor Osborn was identified with many scientific groups.

Italian Flag Flying Above Makale City

At the Front With the Italian Army, Nov. 6 (AP)—Italian scouts reported to headquarters today that an Italian flag "already is flying in Makale," the objective of the present drive, although the city has not yet formally surrendered.
The scouts were members of the

(Continued on Page Two.)

Russia Sees New World War Nearer

Moscow, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Accusing "certain imperialistic powers" of planning to attack the Soviet Union, Kelementi E. Voroshiloff, defense commissar, declared today there is danger of a new world war.

In a proclamation issued on the eve of the 18th anniversary of the bolshevik revolution, Voroshiloff said:
"The danger of worldwide slaughter is already outlined, but our country, as always, is carrying on a policy of peace."
The commissar mentioned no country by name in referring to preparations to "launch a new conflagration by attack on the Soviet Union," but the official press has been asserting that "Germany and a powerful Japanese military clique are nursing ambitions to seize Soviet territory."

EACH NATION MUST ENFORCE ITS BAN

Must Prevent Own Exports From Reaching Italy, League Declares

Geneva, Nov. 6 (AP)—The transit sub-committee of the League of Nations today declared that each nation must prevent its own exports from reaching Italy.
The committee said that the League would not take any action until each nation had taken these steps.

(Continued on Page Two.)

Florida Hurricane Turns Back Inland

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Floridians braced today for a return visit of a freak hurricane, which left more than $2,000,000 damage and seven deaths from the Miami area to Cape Sable Monday.
The storm hammered 25 miles out into the Gulf of Mexico, then slowed down and began to curve northward.
Grady Norton, Jacksonville Weather Bureau meteorologist said it was "fairly certain" the disturbance will pass over Florida again within 24 hours this time somewhere north of Tampa.
He expected it to gain slightly in intensity on a northeastward course, "the proper direction for the average hurricane."
The storm howled in from the Atlantic Monday, swept past Miami and into the Everglades, leaving a trail of sunken boats, smashed homes and uprooted trees.
The steamship Elizabeth was blown aground off Miami Beach and two barges were adrift on the east coast. Two other ships, the Jorida and the Sneland, won through after battling the seas and winds.