Mussolini Scores Diplomatic Victory In Deferring Of Sanctions

LEAGUE EMBARGO ON OIL WILL NOT BE IMPOSED NOW

Mussolini Had Warned That Such Steps Would Mean War If Taken by France, Britain

DOUBT U. S. ABILITY TO STOP SHIPMENTS

Ethiopians Surprise Italian Forces, Killing Many and Dispersing Force; Other Armies of Italy Poised for Fresh Drive Into Heart of Ethiopia

(By The Associated Press) Premier Mussolini scored a diplomatic victory in his campaign against sanctions today as black shirt troops and police in East Africa for re-occupied the domain of Emperor Haile Selassie.

For the present at least, Italy will escape the imposition of an oil embargo by the League of Nations. Today Mussolini had the satisfaction of seeing his blunt warnings to France that an oil embargo on Italy would mean war, coupled with other considerations, bear fruit. At Geneva the League announced Friday's session of the sanctions committee of 18 called to consider the proposed embargo, will be postponed to an undetermined date.

Great Britain and France, motivated not only by Mussolini's adamant stand, but also by doubt over the ability of the United States government to halt oil shipments, decided to seek delay in imposing the proposed embargo, authoritative reports said.

At Addis Ababa, the Ethiopian government announced Ras Seyoum's troops surprised three Italian battalions.

Court Will Rule About Injunctions

Washing, Nov. 25.—(AP)—A ruling on the right of citizens to obtain injunctions against processing taxes—the main prop of the administration's farm relief activities—was promised today by the Supreme Court.

It also granted a request by eight Louisiana rice millers for a temporary injunction against the levies until it could pass on the merits of the controversy.

The court agreed to pass on the action of the Federal district court at New Orleans.

They had asked the high tribunal for a ruling without waiting for the court of appeals to act.

Coming Boom Translates Depression 'Psychology' Into Better Times View

Lewis Leads Revolt

John L. Lewis

Does the resignation of John L. Lewis, above, as vice president of the American Federation of Labor, indicate a sharp battle of progressives vs. conservatives? Lewis, president of the powerful United Mine Workers of America, leads the fight of labor progressives for organization of entire industries instead of by crafts. Lewis is believed to have a majority of organized labor in the big key industries behind him.

Almost Overnight Washington Complex Changes to Conviction Of Prosperity

ALL INDICES POINT FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Capital Engages in Argument Over Whether New Deal Caused It Or Whether Natural Cause in Spite of That, Are Defeating the Depression

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The words "coming boom," uttered distinctly, even if cautiously, by the American Federation of Labor, called attention today to a major shift of emphasis that has taken place in the capital almost overnight.

Many of the pronouncements that streamed from Washington presses and mimeograph machines, official and otherwise, show a change from depression psychology to a "better times" psychology.

Government reports, like the A. F. of L's and others, stressed indices of better business. Officials who only a few short months ago spoke mostly of ways to combat the depression, now talk of methods of controlling expansion.

Mariner S. Eccles, Federal Reserve Board governor, speaks of the board's "adequate weapons" to control credit and prevent a "runaway stock market."

Politicians and economic commentators fall into arguments as to what caused the better business view. One view is that New Deal spending and other policies pulled the country through. Another, upheld just as vehemently, is that natural forces are bringing recovery despite New Deal measures. It is an argument that appears destined to go on for a long time, if not forever.

The A. F. of L's report, published today, said there probably would be a business and industrial boom within the next few years. At the same time, the Federal Reserve Board, said maintenance of business activity, at near the year's peak, has been the outstanding fact in the economic situation during the first ten months of 1935.

Renewed Campaign To Catch Robnison Kidnaper Started

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—A renewed drive to catch Thomas Robnison, Jr., alleged kidnaper, was opened by the Bureau of Investigation today with the mailing of large "wanted" notices to law enforcement officials, postmasters, banks, filling stations, barber shops and the like throughout the country.

J. Edgar Hoover, releasing the large circular, said some 300,000 copies were being distributed.

Robnison has been sought since the kidnaping of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, of Louisville, Ky., on October 10, 1934, and is one of three "big time" kidnapers still at large.

Alvin Karpis, wanted in the Bremer kidnaping at St. Paul, Minn., and William Mahan, "remaining principal in the Weyerhauser kidnaping in Tacoma, Wash., are the others.

Reckless, Careless Driving Causes More Fatal Wrecks

That, With Excessive Speed, Drunken Driving and Hit-and-Run Drivers Blamed For 72 of 116 Fatal Accidents in State In Month of October

(By The Associated Press.) A check-up today showed 72 of 116 fatal accidents in North Carolina in October, the figures compiled from reports of accidents show that a majority of both the fatal and non-fatal accidents were caused by only four forms of reckless driving.

In all, there were 116 fatal accidents.

Lewis Quits Because Of Differences

Washington, Nov. 25 (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, told reporters today he had resigned as vice-president of the American Federation of Labor because of "irreconcilable differences with a majority of the executive council on the question of organization of our large industry."

Surrounded by upwards of 30 reporters, he gave no specific reason, however, as to why he left the council when he did.

He implied he had decided upon this move before he was re-elected a

McDonald Strong For Paying Bonus Soon as Possible

Winston-Salem, Nov. 25 (AP)—Dr. Ralph McDonald told a luncheon club her today that he was unequivocally in favor of immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus, and that opposition to payment was coming from banking groups.

"These groups raise the cry 'inflation' every time the bonus is mentioned," the gubernatorial candidate said. "A critical and careful analysis of the situation reveals that this cry is largely a smoke screen. The vast gold and silver resources of the national government make the claim of inflation absurd. There are many possible ways in which the payment of this debt might be made without the faintest trace of the 'wild inflation' of which the opponents are afraid."

Japanese Militarists Called on To Send Forces To "Purge North China of Communists"; Great Wall Area Is Now Occupied by Japanese Soldiers

(By The Associated Press) An autonomous government for a large section of North China was inaugurated today and immediately called on Japan for assistance.

Yin-Ju-Keng, head of the new nine-man autonomous council for 25 counties in Hopeh and Chahar provinces, asked Japanese government officials and militarists to send troops to "purge North China and communists."

At the simple ceremony of inauguration of the new government, Yin disclosed the five provinces of North China had been invited to join the 25 counties in self-government. At the same time, he emphasized the movement was autonomous, not separatist.

There was widespread belief that the autonomy movement now begun might spread to other North China provinces.

Along the Great Wall of China were Japanese troops ready to meet any attempts by the central government to block the autonomy program by military force.

Chamber's Vote Hits New Deal

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Overwhelming opposition to New Deal legislative trends was recorded today in a nationwide poll of business men members of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Ninety-seven percent of those voting were disclosed to have balloted against the trend.

The vote on the four questions averaged 1.81 to 4.5. About 84.5 percent of the chamber's voting strength was cast, compared with 88.8 percent to 67.9 percent in the last three of the chamber's polls.

Three member organizations resigned on the ground the questions were unfair. Officials said two of these had not paid dues and therefore could not vote.

HIGH SCHOOL BOY HELD IN SLAYING

Elizabeth City Youth Indicted in Norfolk for Watch-Maker's Death

Portsmouth, Va., Nov. 25 (AP)—Walter Edwards White, 17-year-old Pasquotank county, North Carolina, high school student, was called into Norfolk County Circuit Court today to answer an indictment charging him with the murder of John Tasajian, Elizabeth City, N. C., watch-maker, whose body was found beside his abandoned automobile last August.

At the time of his arrest, young White told investigating officers he accidentally shot the man in a struggle which followed repulsive proposals of the watch maker, accompanied, he said, by threatening gestures with a pistol.

Police quoted the youth as saying the gun fired during the struggle. Tasajian, a bullet wound in the back of his head, was found beside his automobile on the lonely Long Ridge road in Norfolk county early in the morning of August 18.

White was arrested on Labor Day after an intensive investigation and was indicted for murder at the November term of court.
