Frederick A. Pope, who brought the word from Hauptmann's cell in the death house of New Jersey's State Prison, declined to add any explanation. He and C. Lloyd Fisher, also of the defense staff, visited Hauptmann yesterday. Fisher reported him in "perfect" physical condition, and said his morale was "excellent."

Prison officials said Hauptmann, sentenced to die the week of January 13, was slightly nervous yesterday before the electrocution of a fellow inmate of the death house.

Hauptmann's counsel, meanwhile, had not decided whether to ask the sires to shift additional burdens to Jersey Court of Pardons to perhim to make a personal appear-

Governor Assumes Financial Dictatorship of State Starting Tomorrow.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 31 (AP)-On the ve of assuming financial dictatorship of Georgia, Governor Eugene Talmadge said today "there'll be plenty of money to run the State next year,' but persisted in his refusal to tell how he will handle the situation.

The 1935 legislature failed to pass an appropriation bill for 1936-37. Talmadge, who nas gained attention by his attacks on the New Deal, refused to call an extra session, and said the State would run on as usual.

Possibility of a "tax strike" against unchecked gubernatorial control of finances already has arisen.

Some Talmadge opponents cite State revenue collections for the first 20 days of December as evidence of a drying up of tax payments. In this Washington, Dec. 31 (AP) -A drop period, slightly over $700,000 was colacted, while during the same days of 1934 about $2,400,000 came in.
