Freight Strikes Car Of Wake County Man at Mabry's Store North of City.

L. T. Wilson, prominent Wake Forest merchant and farmer, said to be about 60 years old, was instantly killed this afternoon at 2 o'clock when he was struck by a fast northbound Seaboard Air Line railway freight train at Mabry's crossing, four miles north of the city, and only a hundred or so feet from U. S. highway No. 1. His body was badly mangled.

According to an eye witness to the Holloway, who operates Maory's Store just across the highway from the scene of the crash, Wilson drove from the highway onto

Safety Drive For 1936 Gets Off to Very Poor Start

Chicago, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Safety campaigns designed to reduce the 1936 automobile mortality total on on the nation's highways by 35 percent got away to a poor start on New Year's day.

Statistics compiled today showed at least 93 persons died in automobile accidents yesterday, compared with 98 on January 1, 1935, or a drop of slightly better than five percent. The figures were incomplete and unofficial.

Of the states reporting, 12 and the District of Columbia showed a reduction in fatalities over figures for a year ago, eleven had increases, 15 gave unchanged totals and the other four failed to return comparative totals. Fifteen states and the District of Columbia had clear records of no automobile deaths on New Year's Day this year. A year ago only 14 states were without traffic deaths.

REPUBLICANS CLAIM FDR IS POLITICKING

Say President, in Grandstanding His Annual Message to Congress, Is Lowering His Exalted Duty to Level of Political Speech in Addressing Solons.

Vashington, Jan. 2.-(AP)- The prospect of quick action on the bonus and a sharp Republican reaction to President Roosevelt's forthcoming broadcast address to Congress greeted political observers today with the new legislative session but a few

As the leaders of three major veterans groups expressed unanimity on a new program providing for immediate bonus payments, some observers foresaw speedy action at Capitol Hill on the old issue.

The ex-soldiers' spokesmen argued that the usually quoted $2,000,000,000 bonus would be halved for the present under the plan. For one thing, they said, many veterans would hold their certificates instead of cashing them now, because inducements would be offered in the form of interest on uncashed certificates.

Republican Chairman Henry Fletcher was quick to respond to the President's announced intention of addressing the joint session tomorrow night.

He declared the plan brought the annual presidential duty "down to the level of a political speech," and demanded that the broadcasting systems accord the Republican an "equal opportunity."

This would mean free radio time for the G. O. P., since the President's message on the state of the nation will be broadcast without cost.

DEFENSE ACCORD IS CAUSE OF CONCERN

Franco-British Agreement May be Serious Blow To Italy; Meanwhile, Addis Ababa Admits no Swedish Red Cross Workers Were Killed in Bombardment.

(By The Associated Press.)

The first major Ethiopian offensive on the northern front of the Italo-Ethiopian war zone since the start of hostilities three months ago is encountering serious setbacks, authoritative sources in Addis Ababa disclosed today.

Official silence enfolded the movements of Ethiopian War Minister Ras Mulugheta, who was reported to have launched a general attack against the Italians last Saturday, but information in the capital city said he was meeting steady resistance. As Addis Ababa awaited word from the north anxiously, the government clarified confusion over the Italian bombardment Monday of a Swedish Red Cross ambulance unit. It termed an "odious lie" an Italian charge that two Fascist aviators who fell at Daggah Bur were decapitated. The government, which through Emperor Haile Selassie had protested to the League of Nations that the Fascists employed poison gas in the attack, announced in the final report of the incident that only two Swedes were wounded and none killed.

Public resentment arose in Stockholm, Sweden. Prince Karl called a meeting of the Swedish Red Cross to consider the case. Sweden's Red Cross was reported reliably to take the view that the Fascist aerial attack, directed first at an American hospital at Dessye and then at the Swedish Red Cross unit in the south, were intended for the Red Cross.

The whole question of aerial bombardment, particularly attacks on Red Cross medical units, appeared in Geneva to be a likely topic for discussions by the League Council January 20 or sooner.

Rome, more concerned with the progress of the war than with the protests over the bombardment, was filled with reports that national concern in the war crisis centered on three factors: The possibility of American oil export restrictions under any new neutrality program adopted by Congress; talk of a Franco-British defense accord, and retarded progress of Italy's army.
