ANNOUNCEMENT

STARLINGS.

Words, bright words,
Coral, laughter and sun;
Words, cold words,
Crystal, heartbreak and storm;
Words, warm words,
Nesting, harvest and spring;
Words can be little brown sparrows,
Of starlings on the wing!
B. B. Cooper.

COLOR NOTE, PEKING.

The dull, tawdry stall
Of the wayside vendor
Is heaped with the brilliant beauty
Of the mellow persimmons—
As if he humbly offered
Baskets of sunlight
For sale.
M. M. M.

Cardui Helps When Nerves Seem On Edge Every Month

Women who find themselves in a painful, nervous fix, suffering every month, may have some functional trouble which Cardui should benefit. "At times, I felt like I must scream if a door slammed or there was an unusual noise," writes Mrs. P. A. Odum, of Haines City, Fla. "I did not feel like doing my housework, and as I had other work besides, I felt more like lying down. A friend of mine asked me to try Cardui, which I did. After my first bottle, I felt much better. I continued taking it until I had taken six or seven bottles. By this time I was so much improved I was able to leave it off." If not benefited by Cardui, consult a physician.—(Adv.)

Cast Named For Jr. Class Play

The Junior class of the Henderson high school will present an unusually entertaining play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," a comedy in three acts, Friday at the Vance Theatre.

Mrs. Faulkner, played by Frances Daniel, is an over bearing, haughty society matron who is trying to marry her daughter, Cora (Ernestine Perry) to Burton Crane (Eugene Patterson), their host, but Cora, the shadow of her mother, is deeply in love with Tom Lettress (Charles Cooper) a dreamy, poor young poet. Mrs. Faulkner in trying to marry her daughter to Burton Crane causes much trouble for Olivia (Sylvia Loughlin) disguised as a maid under the name of Jane Ellen. There will be both matinee and evening performances.

Hoey and Graham Seeking Buncombe

is also generally conceded that the way in which the Democratic vote goes in Western North Carolina usually is the deciding factor in primary elections. Consequently, Buncombe county has for years been the battleground of candidates for governor and for the Senate, since the candidates who could line up the support of Buncombe could usually count on getting the almost solid Democratic vote in most of the western counties surrounding Buncombe. It is an admitted fact that the Democrats in the western counties do stick together better than in any other section of the state, with the result that they usually center on one candidate and "go down the line" for him.

All After Buncombe. It has been no political secret here that for the past several months Hoey, Graham and Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, another candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, have been jockeying for the advantage in Asheville, Buncombe and other western counties. But little could be learned here as to the progress they were making or as to which of the candidates the leaders were going to support.

Then one day last week, a story appeared on the front page of one of the Asheville newspapers to the effect that the "Buncombe county faction" had decided to support Hoey. The story brought delight to hearts of the Hoey supporters here, but caused indignation among the Graham backers. For it was known here that Graham had been concentrating his efforts in that section for many weeks and his supporters here were confident that he was going to win strong support in both Buncombe and that entire area. They immediately went to work to get at the facts and find out what had happened. According to the story going the rounds here today, brought back from Asheville by a special emissary, here is what happened:

How It Happened. The various factions into which Buncombe county Democrats have been divided for many years, seem at last to have gotten together, or nearer together, than in years. The leader of this faction is more or less con-

Marian Martin Pattern

PATTERN 9783

No doubt she's shying at all the praise her frock is bringing from envious playmates and doting aunts and uncles, as any tot of two or ten might be who wears this printed frock. See how it comes together so smartly there in front with an important point and single, bright button! It's an easily won triumph indeed for mother, or the one who made it, for with the amazingly clear directions given in the Sew Chart included with this pattern, even a beginner could put this simple Marian Martin frock together. Those youthful sleeves—whether flared or puffed are responsible for much of the frock's charm, while matching bloomers are practically all the "undies" a tot requires when days grow warmer. Novelty tub cottons, dimity or swiss, are fabric suggestions.

Pattern 9783 may be ordered only in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 requires 2 5/8 yards 36 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern.

Send your order to Daily Dispatch Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St New York, N. Y.

see Ambassador Daniels leave Mexico City. The report has been current some time that a good many of the Catholic leaders have already informed "Big Jim" Farley that Mr. Roosevelt cannot count on getting very much of the Catholics vote this fall unless Mr. Daniels leaves Mexico City as ambassador. It is also understood that Mr. Daniels' love for politics has made it difficult for him to refrain from poking an occasional finger into purely local and Mexican matters in Mexico City, despite the fact that ambassadors are supposed to be seen and not heard.

Swanson To Quit. Yet the fact remained that Mr. Daniels and President Roosevelt have been close personal friends for years, since Mr. Roosevelt was assistant secretary of the navy while Mr. Daniels was secretary under President Wilson. It is also agreed that Mr. Daniels has a very strong personal following not only in North Carolina but over the entire nation. The President did not want to do anything that might offend Mr. Daniels and could not afford to from a political standpoint even if he had been willing to from a personal standpoint, it is agreed. How, if Secretary Swanson retires, as he is expected to, a way will be provided to keep everybody happy, it is agreed.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Karin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk. Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. E.C.
