Otto Pahlman To Lead Visiting Bugs Against Some Of Former Players

Powell Asks for Support of Fans at Gate Throughout the League Season

Determined to show Henderson baseball fans that he has assembled a ball club equal to any Class D team in organized ball, Ed Powell, manager of the Henderson Tobacconists, has carded a game Friday with the Goldsboro Bugs, who are being directed this year in their quest of the Coastal Plains League bunting by none other than Otto Pahlman, well known baseball figure in Henderson for several years.

Powell, in pitting his team against the Bugs, feels that his aggregation can cope with any team that Pahlman cares to put on the field, and reports from the Bug camp indicate that the former minor league star has plenty of stellar material.

The game will get underway at 3:30 o'clock, and ladies are to be admitted free of charge.

Skipper Powell is hoping to get the support of fans at the gate, feeling very confident that his team will give a good accounting of itself. The skipper has gone so far as to put Henderson in the Virginia-Carolina League, and will open here Wednesday, May 27, with Oxford as the opponent.

Henderson has always been a good baseball town, and should be good this year with the material Powell has assembled from college ball lots and some from the sand lots.

When Pahlman's Bugs dock here tomorrow afternoon, they will have William "Popeye" Scoggins on their roster. Bill was the flashy little short-fielder for Pahlman's semi-pro clubs here in past years, and is now making a bid for that station in the Bugs' lineup. He's having a battle to get that post. He'll probably perform before the home town folks in the game Friday.

Pahlman's crew whipped Henderson at Goldsboro last Saturday 14 to 3, and the Leafs will be gunning for revenge when they unlimber their war clubs.

Brand New Show Being Offered by Billroy's Comedians

Summer is really here because Billroy's Comedians are coming to town—a brand new show, brand new tent, practically all new faces and the greatest entertainment offering that Manager Billy Wehl, in all his career, has ever presented. This sumptuous feast of entertainment is being dished out in celebration of this being the 12th annual tour or 12th anniversary of the founding of "Billroy's Comedians," now a household word in many cities and towns where real entertainment at popular prices is truly appreciated.

When the big show rolls into town on Friday, May 22, and pitches the huge new tent at Davis Street Circus Grounds the folks in Henderson will find that it was no exaggeration when the statement is now made that it requires a fleet of more than thirty-five huge trucks, cars and busses to transport the great attraction. On the evening of Friday, May 22 there will be one performance and one only given.

DIRIGIBLE HEADING FAR OVER THE SEA

Hindenburg Hastens Back Home With Full Complement of Passengers from Lakehurst

Lakehurst, N. J., May 21—(AP)—The dirigible Hindenburg headed back across the Atlantic today, its skipper hopeful that the winds which retarded its westward flight would speed it toward Germany.

The trip will complete the second of ten round trips contemplated for the Zeppelin between Germany and the United States this summer. Before its scheduled return here June 2, however, the airship will make its second South Atlantic cross to Rio Rio de Janeiro.

Aboard were 57 passengers, one more than the giant dirigible's normal capacity.

At 5 a. m. eastern standard time, the Hindenburg radioed its positions as about 365 miles out from Lakehurst.

Report Mussolini Is Seeking Loans

a bankers' policy calculated to aid the new empire in consolidating its position.

The Italian government not only has no ready cash of its own, but probably has exhausted its domestic as well as its foreign credit, while its taxation rate is so high now that it seems impossible it can squeeze out another lira by increasing it.

And, anyway, it is semi-officially predicted that world capital will not consider the Italo-Ethiopian empire a safe field in which to invest.

ETHIOPIAN OUTLAWS

Another complication threatens. As was to have been expected, although Haile Selassie is gone, Ethiopian outlaws continue to loom here, and there and everywhere.

Foreign sojourners' lives and properties are endangered and Italy has assumed the responsibility of protecting them. Indications are that Italy will not be in a position to give this protection on into the indefinite future.

"Mussolini may find that he has bitten off more than he can chew," as one Washington diplomat, speaking in the American vernacular, expressed it.

WRONG GUESS

If Duce to tell the truth, went much farther than Old World statesmanship had anticipated.

What it had hoped for, encouraged by military forecasts, was that the campaign, delayed by guerilla warfare and rainy seasons, would string out so long that the Italians would wilt under the financial burden of it, and have to compromise.

The big powers looked for a cutting up of Ethiopia among them.

Or, they thought, Mussolini would be satisfied with a mere mouthful of the African kingdom, leaving the remainder to Haile Selassie.

If they had sensed the danger that he would grab the whole thing, unquestionably they would have resisted him more strongly—physically, maybe. Even yet they do not believe that he counted on so complete a conquest. Pure, blind luck, they reckon, was with him.

and annexation of Ethiopia. The departure of Marshal Badoglio from Addis Ababa emphasized the Italian conviction that no more major organized resistance remained in the last independent African kingdom to fall.

GOLFERS PREPARE FOR BIG TOURNAY

J. H. Brodie, Champion, Expects to Keep Title At West End

Golfers at West End Country Club are busy putting in as much practice as possible, cutting strokes from their scores, as they prepare for the annual championship tournament, which is to be held over the club's course from June 15 to 21.

J. H. Brodie, defending champion, has been practicing regularly, and seem to be in the best condition to defend his title. He has been turning in consistent low scores and has been winning foursomes with a degree of regularity when paired with O. T. Kirkland.

Several of the outstanding golfers at the club are hoping, especially those much younger than the champion, they will be wearing the crown when the final 36-holes of grueling play are over.

Qualifying rounds will be staged from June 8 to 14, and practically every member of the club is expected to qualify for a berth in one of the flights.

Prizes are to be awarded at the end of event at a "Dutch" supper Monday evening, June 22, to the several winners.

"I lost my shirt... and found HANES!"

"I could kick myself when I think how I used to shell out for an undershirt... Paying fancy prices, because I thought they wouldn't be comfortable—thought they wouldn't wear—unless I threw the bank-roll for a terrific loss. But like a lot of others, I lost my shirt in the late depression. And that's how I found HANES. I had to cut down expenses, so I started buying HANES for thirty-five and fifty cents apiece. And I want to say—you never had a sweller shirt on your back! They're light. They're cool. And HANES knits them with plenty of snap so they hug right up to your skin as comfortable as you'd want. And look how long a HANES Shirt is. You can tuck it way down in your shorts so it won't creep up at your waist. Sure... I lost my shirt. But I've got some sense in my head and some cents in my pocket today!"
