

Henderson Golfers Defeat Louisburg In First Match

NORTH HENDERSON WHIPS WILLOWS

The North Henderson Juniors defeated the Weeping Willows 6 to 1 yesterday afternoon at North Henderson, turning back the highly touted South Henderson team in easy fashion. Broswell was on the mound for the Juniors, and hurled a beautiful game, allowing only three hits. Robertson started the game for the Willows, but was forced to give away to Journigan in the fourth. Both teams turned in nice fielding games, the Willows pushing over their run in the ninth on an error. North Henderson was to play the Lucky Strike nine in South Henderson this afternoon.

Nathan Strause Shoots 76 For Low Score Honors

Junior Members of Club Give Fine Account of Themselves; Every Henderson Player Scored With Exception of Two; Play R. G. A. Next Wednesday

With Nathan Strause showing the way with a 76, Henderson golfers whipped Louisburg here yesterday afternoon over the West End Country Club links 45 to 15 with a twenty man team taking part in the first inter-city match of the season. Every Henderson golfer scored in the match with the exception of Averett and Brummitt. The junior members of the club gave a fine account of themselves with Tommy Jenkins shooting a 77, one over Henderson's low score man, Jimmy Coper turned in a nice round, getting an 80. Both of these boys took three points for the Henderson aggregation. Henderson will go to Raleigh next Wednesday at 2 o'clock to take on the R. G. A. team, and all members of the club were urged to turn out for the match, regardless of playing ability, for there will be players on the Raleigh team to match any Henderson man's ability. Tobacconists Defeated Again By The Goldbugs

Third Time This Season Goldsboro Has Turned Back Locals; Jimmie Edwards Hurls for Leafs; Scoggins Gets Two of Five Henderson Safeties

Henderson Tobacconists were whipped for the third time this season by the Goldbugs of Goldsboro, who yesterday topped the Leafs 4 to 1 in the Wayne county capital in one of the prettiest games played in the series. Jimmie Edwards was on the mound for the local lads, and he allowed ten hits, keeping them scattered enough to hold down big scoring innings.

Henderson got, to the offerings of Olgers for five safeties, and coupled them with three errors by the Bugs. Henderson did not commit a miscue. Scoggins, who had a trial with Goldsboro, has joined the local club, and is playing shortstop. He got two of Henderson's five hits. Hayes and Wilkorn led the winners at bat, each getting two hits.

Pou Promises To Dust Cobweb Out

ploys in the office from one county, as at present.
"In fact, I believe that the employees should be selected from the different congressional or judicial districts, so that when any one comes into the office from any of these districts, he or she will find some one there from his or her section of the State.
"If you elect me State auditor, you will find the door to my office always open and a cordial and friendly reception awaiting you. It will be your office and I will be your auditor. I want you to help me sweep down the cobwebs, open up the windows and let the fresh air and sunshine into an office you which has had too little contact with the people in the past. I promise you that the State auditor's office will not become a roosting place for politicians when I am elected."

F. D. R.—AS A BALL PLAYER

President Roosevelt tosses out first ball. Visiting his mother in Hyde Park, N. Y., President Roosevelt attends a local ball game and is pictured as he tosses out the first ball. Although the president was described as "the greatest pitcher in the United States of America", by the director of the Hyde Park Robin Hoods, he didn't make such a commendable showing as a catcher when he tried to make a barehanded catch of a foul ball.
