BLUE.

By Sara Van Alystine Allen
(To William Beebe)

The Blue of Crater Lake Is the blue of enamel paint Spilled into the hollow made by fire and steam.

The lake water holds the cold blue Of shadows in the snow, A sad, bright cry of blue That dims the sky and makes of the bay of Naples

A dream of blue... an azure memory.
The rose window at Chartres Is a great jewel carved from the blue That lives in the heart of the flame...
A blue luminous and limpid, Dazzling and clear, yet deep and purr, Like melted sapphires made translucent

In the alchemy of Time!
But you speak of another blue, Not of the earth, not of the dreams of men,

The strang and lustrous blue Lost in the heart of the sea.
Not the swift, dancing blue of upper waves,

Nor the blue-green of water-valleys, Nor the turquoise of sunlit, tropic shoals.

Put a blue older than these,
Radiant and liquid and serene...
Blended of lapis and azure and fire.
Lit by no sun, made paler by no moon A blue that fills all space, Speaks to the inner eye, And wakes forever the vistas underneath...

A magic well from which flows All blue.

Marian Martin : Pattern :

PATTERN 9892

No matter how high the temperature, how bright the sun, you'll be as cool and crisp as the proverbial cucumber if you choose this slenderizing Marian Martin afternoon frocks. It is flattering to Miss or Matron from the trim little button accents on the shoulders all the way down to the slightly flared hem. And there is no question about the coolness of the deep U-neck, or the flared sleeves which (for the sake of variety) you may puff if you choose! Plenty of bodice fullness is allowed for in the shoulder darts. So select a fresh, sheer voile, shantung, swiss. You'll feel and look cooler, younger and slimmer than ever before and acquire brand new assurance and poise. Complete, diagrammed Marian Martin sew chart included.

Pattern 9892 may be ordered only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 36 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, and 48. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, AD-DRESS, THE STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern.

Send your order to Daily Dispatch Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St
New York, N. Y.

Seniors to Present Annual Play in New High School

"Hold Everything" is the title of the play to be presented by the Senior Class in the auditorium of the new high school on next Friday night, June 5.

Suspense—action—story—interesting characters—side-splitting comedy—situations and dialogue—romance—and everything that goes to make up good entertainment, are included in this play. An interesting set of characters, crooks, bankers, run-away sweethearts, aspiring movie actors and whatnot, meet in a quiet tourist home, and suddenly find themselves vitaly concerned in each other's lives.

How these characters become involved and how they extricate themselves from the tangled skein into which they are woven will furnish everyone with an evening of good, clean, wholesome fun and entertainment of the highest type.

Zeb Vance School Holds Its Closing Exercises

The Senior class of the Zeb Vance school, composed of eight boys and eight girls received their diplomas on Monday night at the school auditorium. This event marked the closing of a very successful school year in which the average daily attendance was the greatest in the history of the school.

The commencement opened with the music recital given by the pupils of Mrs. E. L. Kimball, of Henderson on Thursday evening. The piano numbers interspersed with selections by the glee club delighted the large audience which attended.

On Friday night the class day exercises were held. The members of the Junior class led the procession forming an aisle through which the Seniors, led by their mascot, Clarice Coghill, marched to the stage. They portrayed in a very beautiful and impressive pageant the present senior class, and as they hoped to be ten years from now. The historian was Sidney Hines; the statistician, Elsie Clayton; the Testator, Reynold Parks; the poetess, Helen Grissom; the gif-tarian, Ikey Renn; the prophetess, Betty Young.

On Sunday, the baccalaureate sermon was preached by the Rev. Albert S. Hale, pastor of the First Baptist church, in Henderson, who presented in a most beautiful and emphatic manner a message based on the subject, "You Can't Keep a Good Man Down." Mr. Hale drew his illustrations from Biblical characters such as Joseph and Job, and he urged the members of the Senior class to override obstacles, and rise above the general level of achievement. He said that unless brains are developed in good time to outfit the active and keen brains of the underworld we are a lost generation.

The graduating address was presented on Monday evening in the presence of a large audience by Dr.
W. W. Wicker of Elon College, seated on the stage with Dr. Wicker were R.
C. Young, principal of the school, W.
A. Kittrell and Leon Frazier, members of the local school board. The seniors dressed in caps and gowns were led in by their class mascot.
The salutary was given by Betty Young.
Dr. Wicker urged the members of the class to get and keep in the right relationship with the world. "It is impossible," he stated, "to make a success unless you realize the importance of this step." He then tried to point out the different elements which help to put an individual in tune with his surroundings such as work, labor, play, pleasure, gratitude and appreciation.

The principal, R. C. Young, in presenting the diplomas to the graduates made some very appropriate remarks, reminding the seniors as they go out from high school that their character, their success, and their lives are up to each individual and that he will have to determine the way his ship will sail. Diplomas were given to the following: Laddie Barnes, Elsie Clayton, Helen Grissom, Christine Edwards, Marie Murphy, Daisy Lee Milton, Helen Simms, Betty Hines, Carson Ellis, Edwin Pace, Reynold Parks, Horace Perkinson, Ikey Renn and Roscoe Edwards.

The certificates of promotion from the seventh grade to high school were then given to thirty five members of the seventh grade. The valedictory address was given by Edwin Pace.

The marshals chosen from the tenth grade who served for all the final ex-

TWO CANDIDATES TO STATE OFFICE HERE

Mike Dunnagan and Thad Eure Pay Henderson Visit Late Friday and Early Saturday

Two candidates for the same high State office paid Henderson a visit, one Friday afternoon and the other Saturday morning.

On Friday came Thad Eure, long reading clerk in the General Assembly, and Saturday saw a visit by M.
R. Dunnagan, for years a newspaper correspondent in the State capital, but who gave up that work at the first of the year to become a candidate for office.

Both are seeking the Democratic nomination for secretary of State against the incumbent, Stacy W.
Wade. Both met old friends here and were introduced to many new ones.
Mr. Wade was a visitor here several weeks ago.

to them, provided boards of engineers approved such action.

Vanderberg was just as set on blocking the amendment. So hot was the controversy that many believed the debate might not be concluded today, which would be a new blow to leaders' tentative plans to adjourn Congress by next Saturday. Some leaders said these plans would have to be abandoned, and some said the adjournment deadline would be met.

Meyer Gets Race Leads At The Half

Meyer, only two-time winner of the race now in competition, switched the lead just before 225 miles when Babe Stapp, Los Angeles, was forced into the pits and lost five minutes.

Meyer reeled off the 250 miles in two hours, 15 minutes, 3.59 seconds, to average 111.059 miles an hour, breaking the record of 109.429 miles an hour made in 1933.

The terrific pace caused three of the original 32 starters to drop out before 100 miles had been reeled off.

Wild Bill Cummings, winner of the 1935 race, failed to start because his clutch stuck. Jimmy Snyder, Chicago, surrendered to motor trouble after going 50 miles.

Cokesbury News

By MRS. ERNEST GILL.

Seven boys and girls from the M. E.
Orphanage in Raleigh put on a good program at Cokesbury church Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. It was very much enjoyed by a good crowd and they received a very nice purse.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Langford and Mr. and Mrs. Turner Stainback had all the children at their homes for supper after which they put on another program at Middleburg M. E. church.

Charles Bartholomew returned to his home here Wednesday, to spend the summer months with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bartholomew. Mr.
Bartholomew was among the graduating class of 1936 at Campbell College, Eula's Creek.

Mrs. J. Edward Gill and two daughters, Jean and Ruth and her house guest, Miss Mary Odom from Richmond, Va., and Miss Virgie Duke, attended services at Arcola M. E. church Sunday morning. They were dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Odom, and also visited Mrs.
Shearin, Mrs. Gill's grandmother, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones and two sons, Miss Bessie Powell and Herbert Clark and G. Vernon Duke, Jr., from Mar-maduke and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duke and children from Macon and Mr. and Mrs. Macon Aycock from Afton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gill Sunday afternoon.

Everette Gupton went to Raleigh on business Monday afternoon.

Misses Emma Powell and Virgie Duke are the house guests of Mrs.
R. F. King in Warrenton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aycock and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Aycock spent Sunday with Mrs. Aycock's daughter, Mrs.
Gilmore Faulkner at Engleside.

McDonald Is for Top Man to Have Job according to rumors going the rounds here today. The gossip is that Dr. Mc-Donald will make the proposition through his manager, W. L. Lumpkin.

The managers of each of the three leading candidates, Clyde R. Hoey and A. H. Graham, as well as McDonald, have predicted their man would lead the first primary, and the McDonald offer will come in the nature of a challenge to them to back up their predictions, it is believed.

It is generally agreed that a second primary is a distasteful thing and a hardship on candidates and voters, and an expense to the tax-payers, and partly for this reason the McDonald offer will be made to the other candidates, according to Raleigh talk.

Homage To U. S. Dead In Europe where United States soldiers were buried, the day was observed after the American traditions, and graves were decorated.

Bugles sounded "taps" over the six pieces of American territory in France, where thousands of white crosses mark the burial places of soldiers and sailors of all ranks.

The day again recalled the shortening roster of veterans who bore arms back in '61. The 2,128,948 men of the Union Army have dwindled to approximately 10,000, figures here indicate. Of a maximum Confederate army of 900,000, there are approximately 9,000 soldiers, according to an estimate by General Harry Rene Lee, of Nashville, Tenn.

local post of the American Legion, will deliver a Memorial Day address at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the United Presbyterian church, Negro, on Chestnut street at a school closing and Memorial observance of the Henderson Insitute.

The American Legion is sponsoring the observance of the day here tomorrow, and a program has been arranged.

Zionchecks Oust Woman Landlady sobbed as she was carried away from the apartment building. "It is more important for me to go to the police station and swear out a warrant for these awful people."

She told the people Zioncheck had "ruined my home, called me vile names and stood on me."

The apartment where the difficulty occurred was sub-leased to Zioncheck last winter. Mrs. Young, a magazine writer, recently returned from a South American trip to reclaim it after she had complaints from the apartment house.

Mrs. Young went to the rooms yesterday and refused to leave. Mrs.
Young summoned officers and the ambulance this morning. It was the fourth time officers had been called to the apartment since yesterday morning.

When police arrived the last time she demanded:
"You saw me thrown out of my own apartment about six times last night. Why didn't you help me then?"

Miss Dickerson Is Healthiest Girl

In a county wide contest, to determine the healthiest girl in the 4-H clubs, Miss Lou Ella Dickerson, of Townsville, was declared winner yesterday. Miss Maxine Bobbitt, of Dabney, and Miss Eula Mae Adcock, of Aycock, came second and third.

The contest was conducted in all the schools in the county, the first examinations being made by Miss Edna Oliver, health nurse. The girls selected from each school were Misses Maxine Bobbitt, Elizabeth Barker, Mannie Sue Carter, Emily Crews, of Dabney, Marie Murphy, Ora Gill, Myra Huff, of Zeb Vance, Edith Wilson, Lou Ella Dickerson, Frances Wilson, of Townsville, Eula Mae Adcock, of Ay-cock, Grace Allgood and Reese Tuck-
