TWENTY-THIRD YEAR

LEASED WIRE SERVICE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

HENDERSON, N. C., SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 6, 1936

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY.

FIVE CENTS COPY

EACH OF MANAGERS PREDICT VICTORY FOR HIS CANDIDATE

Lumpkin Repeats Offer to Let High Man Be Declared the Nominee Today

OLIVE CLAIMS THAT HOEY TO GET 207,000

Lon Folger Comes in With Claim That Graham Will Be High Man With 170,-000 Votes; Expect Between 400,000 and 425,000 Votes to Be Cast in Primary

Daily Disputch Bureau, In The Sir Watter Hotel, By J C. BASKERVILL, Raleigh, June 6.—Each of the campaign managers for the three leading candidates for governor predicted that is candidate would be victorious in the primary election being held today. Hubert E. Olive, State campaign manager for Clyde R. Hoey, predicted the nomination of Mr. Hoey by a vote of not less than 207,000 votes. Willie Lee Lumpkin, manager for Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, declared that the Winston-Salem candidate would get not less than 200,000 votes and probably more , while A. D. (Lon) Folger, campaign manager for Sandy Graham, predicted that Graham would be high man with at least 170,000 votes. "Without any doubt, Clyde R. Hoey will be named the Democratic nominee for governor today," Campaign Manager Olive said. "We feel certain that he is assured of receiving 207,on votes, although the number of votes cast will of course depend somewhat upon the weather throughout the day. But if the day remains fair over most of the State, as is indicated, he will not only the high man but probably get a majority.

the State for a while seemed to be selecting Mr. Hoey as their next gov- first or even in second place.

Dr. McDonald, could not be reached so repeated his offer to let the high jority of the State employes are reman be declared the winner, if the candidate in the lead does not have a clear majority over the other two.

"Several days ago I took cognizance of the claims of the Hoey and Graham managers that their candidates would lead in the first primary.' Lumpkin said. "At that time I asked them to prove their confidence by agreeing publicly to allow the leading candidate to be designated as the nominee for governor and thus ob-viate the possibility of a second pri-

(Continued on Page Two.)

FEAR MANY DEAD IN BLAST IN IOWA

Cleaning Plant Explodes, Wrecking Buildings and Injuring Many

Tampa, Iowa, June 6.—(AP)— A terrific explosion in a cleaning plant other services. here today wrecked two buildings and injured at least 12 persons and did widespread damage in the business Firemen, who battled the flames Competitors, who felt they were diswhich followed the blast believed sev- criminated against unfairly, could ineral persons were killed. The blast shattered the shop and hardware store next door.

Walls were cracked and windows blown out in other buildings in the

As firemen fought back the flames, trust law relating to price differential rescue workers started digging thro- for quantity purchase or other realigh the debris for bodies.

Predict Record Vote For The Primary Today

four-cornered race for governor with than voted in the last primary.

Charlotte, June 6.—(AP)—A sizzling to 450,000 voters, about 75,000 more The anti-sales tax candidate is Dr. the sales tax the dominant issue drew Ralph W. McDonald, who also de-Democrats to the polls today in what nounced what he termed as the "maelection officials predicted a record chine rule" of the state in his campaign. Senator J. W. Bailey and seven congressmen faced opposition, but the governor's race with a 33-year-old for-taste to the sales tax and advocated affection, which will profit the G. O. mer professor, advocating the out-lowering its rate but asserted it could P. on election day. right repeal of the $10,000,000 sales not be repealed entirely without a tax, held the spotlight. Election of-ficials prepared for a turnout of up and industry.

China's Famous Route Army on Move Again

The Cantonese troops who had put up such a gallant battle against the Japanese at Shanghai are reported marching northward in China, where rumors of impending civil war have been characterized as Japanese propaganda. In the inset is Chiang Kai-shek, Chinese war lord, whose spokesman quashed the rumors. "If war comes to China, it will not be civil war." he said. (Central Press)

Capitol Hill Has Jitters As Primary Voting Had

today as the primary voting goes on State employes in Raleigh were reand as the partisans of the various candidates wait for the votes to be robably get a majority.

"In my opinion, there will be be- ple are sure their candidate will win to turn out most of the present ap tween 400,000 and 425,000 votes cast in their public expressions, privately pointive State officials and State emin today's election. The Democrats of they are all in doubt and exceedingly ployes who are supporting the other jittery. For even the veteran obsermisled by impossible promises but vers of primary elections concede they now realize that the man who that just as this campaign so far has will provide a safe, sound, liberal and violated all the laws and customs of progressive administration for the primary campaigns in North Carlina, State of North Carolina for the next just so is the outcome exceedingly four years is Clyde R. Hoev. I want doubtful. Accordingly most observers to take this opportunity to thank all privately agree that the election tothe supporters of Mr. Hoey who are day is anybody's race, that anything going to the polls today and who will may happen and that nobody knows nominate Mr. Hoey and to congratuwhich of the three candidates for the late the people of North Carolina for nomination for governor will be in Most of the State officials, both Campaign Manager Lumpkin, for elective and appointive, are generally dreds of department and division ducers in the agricultural sect conceded to be largely for Clyde R. | heads and their employes, including here for a formal statement today, Hoey for governor, although a few the 300 or more girl stenographers but before leaving yesterday he predicted that Dr. McDonald would be Graham. Not a single major State of no uncertain terms that they will lose nominated in today's primary and receive in excess of 200,000 votes. He al-Ralph W. McDonald. Likewise, a ma-

Washington, June 6 .-- (AP)--Congressional conferees today reached an agreement on the long disputed anti-price discrimination legislation designed to protect independent mer-agreed to major provisions of the Senate bill, including the Robinson,

The Robinson bill would empower the Federal Trade Commission to li-to create monopoly, would be set up.

stitute criminal proceedings ni Fed-

Both the Robinson and the Borah-

Van Nuys bills originally were introduced to strengthen the Clayton anti-

the Federal Trade Commission.

bill and the Borah-Van Nye bill.

Daily Dispatch Bureau,
In The Sir Walter Hote.
Raleigh, June 6.—There's many a case of jitters on Capitol Hill here

The sir Walter Hote.

Graham, with very few backing Dr.
McDonald. despite the fact that six or eight weeks ago a majority of the State employes in Raleigh were regarded as leaning towards M'cDonald. But as a result of his campaign promises to "clean house in Raleigh" and ployes who are supporting the other candidates, most of the State employes are now regarded as definitely for one of the other two leading candidates, since most of them have ar rived at the conclusion that if their superiors are kicked out, they will in all probability lose their jobs, too, to make room for Dr. McDonald's supporters. So there is more than the usual interest in the primary among most of the State employes here, who run inbread and butter with literally hun-

Continued on Page Three.)

ANGRY DEMOCRATS CONFEREES AGREE ON PRICE FIXING

Attacks on Patronage, How-Long Debated Question Of ever, Mostly Due to Its Price Discrimination in Misplacement Buying Agreed On

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Staff Writer

Washington, June 6. — Although young Senator Rush D. Holt of West Virginia is by far the noisest of Democrats in accusing his own party's adchants from large scale competitions.

The House and Senate conferees ministration of playing politics with relief in his home state, he by no means is the only one to make the complaint.

The others simply are more dis creet; they murmur instead of shout-mit quantity discounts when monopoly was involved, and would prohibit Of course Republican charges of the kind are to be expected; that there are so many disgruntled Demofalse discounts for brokerage fees or Under the Borah amendment, an crats is more surprising. EXPLAINABLE entirely different method of prosecuting price discrimination, tending

Yet it is explainable. If politics had been played to the angry Democrats' liking they would not have been angry. To the contrary they now would be denying that there has been any politics-playing.

eral court directly instead of going to But such of it as may have been done has been done mainly at the dictation of Democratic Chairman (and revive business and relieve the far-Postmaster General) James A. Farley. And Farley has dictated largely in he evidently has conceived to be President Roosevelt's re-election chances without much regard for the prospects of local candidates-repre sentatives and even senators.

DID FARLEY GO TOO FAR? Of course, there are a few moguls in both houses of Congress whose recommendations have had respectful consideration, but those of the rank and file of legislators have been rather cavalierly treated. Naturally, the ones whom the ad ministration has pooh-poohed in the matter of appointments are mightly indignant. It is not altogether certain that Farley has not overdone his policy of subordinating local candidacies to the national administration's supposed advantage. It may prove to have bred

If it was an error it is too late to

(Continued on Page Three.)

Drought in Southeastern U. S. and Frost in Northern U.S. and Canada

PRICES ARE SOARING

Food and Produce in Market Centers Rise in Price as Supply Dwind-les; Prospective Loss of $100,000,000

(By The Associated Press)

Freakish weather conditions-rare droughts in the southeastern United States and late frosts in the northern states and Canada-struck today at the pocketbook of millions of con-

Commodity prices soared as food to the hundreds. It is a question of suming centers, their stocks already and produce dealers in the large conrunning low, rushed orders to pro-

Three key crops of the southeastcotton, tobacco and corn, were threat ened by drought. Farmers in northern Alabama and Georgia, eastern Tennessee, the Carolinas, Virginia and Maryland were faced with a prospective $100,000,000 crop loss as crop conditions grew more acute by the hour. Secretary Wallace assigned Department of Agriculture workers to devise a Federal

CRITICIZE FARLEY Blum Takes Program to Parliament

Paris, June 6.—(AP)—Students and police fought in the Latin quarters in an outburst of viol-ence tonight after Socialist Pre-mier Leon Blum had temporarily withdrawn from the Chamber of Deputies under a personal attack.

The Rightest deputy had assailed Blum as a Jew. The students demonstrated with shouts of "France for the French."

Sergeant-at-arms surpressed the outburst, which approached physical violence, in the Chamber of Gendarmes broke up the students demonstration, making a

Paris, June 6.—(AP)—France's Socialist premier, Leon Blum went be-fore parliament today with a program intended to satisfy labor's demands, Peace for all Europe through collective security was announced as his foreign policy in the ministerial declaration to parliament. Simultaneously Blum took action to break a nation-wide strike of nearly one million workers, to revise the

(Continued on Page Two.)

OUR WEATHER MAN

FOR NORTH CAROLINA. Fair to partly cloudy tonight and Sunday, unsettled in south

INDICATIONS ARE FOR RECORD VOTE TODAY'S PRIMARY

Reports to Headquarters of Gubernatorial Candidates Point To Record

ENCOURAGING REPORT SENT TO CANDIDATES

McDonald Said to Be Much Stronger West of Charlotte Than First Thought; Graham Heavy in Four Counties; Hoey Is Receiving Heavy Support

Raleigh, June 6.-(AP)-Headquarters here of three of the four Democratic gubernatorial candidates said they had received reports at midday of heavy voting in the primary thro-ughout the state, and the weather bureau believed clear weather prevailed everywhere in North Carolina Voting in Raleigh and Wake county was reported heavy.

Sandy Graham headquarters said reports from Montgomery, Richmond Gates and Beaufort counties indicated Graham was running stronger there than it had been expected, and the voting was at a record breaking pace. Headqurters for Ralph W. McDonald said reports "from nearly every county west of Charlotte say that McDon ald is showing unexpected and gratifying strength," and in the east" McDonald is running strong in very neavy voting.'

Hubert E. Olive, state manager for Clyde R. Hoey, said one report from Lenior in Caldwell county said the voting was heavy with Hoey appar-ently getting all of the first 100 ballots cast there.

In Cleveland county, Olive said, the voting was so heavy people were lined up at the polling places "for blocks." He said Randolph, Gaston and Hall-

(Continued on Fage Three.)

But Other Demands of Labor May Make Snag for Both Conventions

By LESLIE EICHEL

Central Press Staff Writer Cleveland, June 6.—On one important platform plank both Republicans Democrats promise to agreethe hours of labor must be shortened in order, to relieve unemploy-

But organized labor does not promise to the satisfied. It desires to know the answers to a few other questions, as for example.

1. Will the parties agree that collective bargaining and all its conconitant essentials be written deep into fundamental law and upheld in

2. Will the parties agree that Congress "assume its perogative" and curb the Supreme Court's "anti-labor" tendency (as labor sees it)? For example, in the Guffey coal act decision the court upheld the right of the government to regulate the industry to maintain prices for owners but denied the government the privilege of

(Continued on Page Two.)

Byrns Taken To Nashville For Burial

Trains Bearing Body And President Roosevelt Due At Mid-Afternoon

Aboard the Roosevelt Train Enroute to Nashville, Tenn., June 6.-(AP)--Over a route he had traveled in his 27 years as national legislator, the body of Joseph W. Byrns moved today—back to his native Tennessee, for last services and burial.

The coffin bearing the late Speaker of the House of Representative was escorted by President Roosevelt, a host of colleagues and friends in Wash officialdom, who had attended the impressive state funeral in the house chamber yesterday.

The funeral train, running in two sections with the chief executive, following behind the congressional party and members of the 66-year-old legislator's family, crossed the Virginia-Tennessee border long before day-

After speeding through the hills of eastern and north Tennessee, the trains were due in Nashville for a mid-afternoon funeral.

Landon Forces Claiming Enough Votes To Assure Kansan's Nomination

New Speaker

Rep. William B. Bankhead

Representative William B. Bankhead of Alabama, above, is the new speaker of the house of representatives. He was named in a conference of senior house members to become permanent speaker to fill the place vacated upon the death of Speaker Joseph W. Byrns of Tennessee.

-Central Press

Vandenburg Declines As A Candidate

Says He Will Be Of week's national convention to 400 votes. That would be but 102 short of Greater Service As enough to nominate.

For the most part, the disposition Vice President

Washington, June 6 .- (AP) -Senator Vandenburg, of Michigan, announced today that he would not accept nomination as a Republican candidate for vice-president.

In a formal statement, the senator said he thought he "could be of greater service in active labors on the Senate floor than on its silent rostrum."

LEWIS DENOUNCES GREEN FOR STAN

Invites Labor Head to Return to Council Table of Mine Workers

Washington, June 6 (AP)-John L. day for the "inempitude" of his stand toward the industrial unions plan to organize a steel industry. Simultaneously, he invited the American Federation of Labor President to return to the council table of the United Mine Workers'

Stop Landon Coalition Turns to Frank Lowden as Consolidation Candidate

SHARP WORDS POUR UPON LANDONITES

Supporters of Kansan Claim 400 Votes; Coalition Group Claims 543, Enough to Keep the Nomination from Landon; Prospective Platform Gains Attention

Cleveland, June 6 (AP)-The Cleveland News said today that a "Stop Landon coalition" was turning to former Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, in its search for a candidate upon which its varying groups could consolidate.

The News said "old guard leaders of the Knox-Borah-Dickinson combination" were turning to the former Illinois governor in a hope to capturing the nomination.

The story came at a time when the forces of Governor Landon, of Kansas, were claiming enough assured ballots to give their candidate an early nomination.

The News said that if the Lowden candidacy failed an effort would be made to consolidate the anti-Landon forces behind Senator Vandenburg, of Michigan, or Glenn Frank, the liberal president of the University of

The News said that their tabulation showed that this combination totalled 543 votes, 43 more than enough to withhold the nomination from the Kansan.

G. O. P. RIVALRIES
GROWING MORE TENSE
Cleveland, June 6.—(AP)—Republican rivalries grew more tense today as a variety of opposition camps sought strenously to undermine the mounting claims of the supporters of Alf M. Landon.

Sharp words poured in upon the Landonites, who overnight had boosted their estimate of the Kansas governor's first ballot strength in next

Senator Than As of the Landon managers was to accept the attacks without retaliation.

Talks of trying to force a first-ballot choice quieted somewhat as friends of the Kansan sought to calm the storm and to assure all rivals

(Continued on Page Four.)

TO NEW HIGH PEAK

Increase Freight Car Loadings Bring Best Week Since June, 1930

New York, June 6 (AP)-Industrial activity nosed into new high ground for the year today, the Associated Press Index advancing to .1 of a point over the former high to 89.4. This compares with 89 last week and 70.3 a year ago.

The present level is the highest since the latter part of June 1930. Activity has been compartivel ystable during the past month. Underlying this week's upturn is a sharp rise in the freight car loading, Lewis, denounced William Green to- and a new 1936 top in residential building. Automobile output registered only decline on a seasonally adjusted basis for the week. Although with cotton manufacturing electric power produced and steel mill activity, however, it has been moving in a narrow range for several weeks.

Dispatch Will Announce Returns From Election

Returns from the county and State primary elections will be announced by the Daily Dispatch tonight from its office on Young street. The public is invited to be guests of the Dispatch on that occasion. Amplifiers will be erected for use in announcing bulletins. A wire connecting with The Associated Press offices in Raleigh will be set up for use throughout the evening, and over this will come returns from the gubernatorial contest throughout the State, as well as returns on other

State contests.
AND NOW, PLEASE. It is clearly evident that with the big vote anticipated, it will be impossible for the staff in the building to function properly unless allowed free reign to work. The public is, therefore, asked, urged and begged not to try to force a way into the office. It only creates confusion and delays tabulations and announcements. It is earnestly requested that only those enter the office who are actually working or who have in their hands official returns for tabulation. This request has been made on other occasions and flagrantly ignored by many people. It is hoped there will be greater consideration this time for the working forcesting in the working forcesting in the people in be working feverishly inside to try to serve those waiting on the outside for the news. Thank you.

The returns will be broadcasted through the latest in amplifying systems, and will be through the courtesy of George Stevenson and the Stevenson theatre. The equipment was set up during the morning and tested, and declared to be in the best shape to bring the