Tutor Drives Wimbrow Home With Single In 14th With Winning Run

Edwards Shines in Relief Role; Perry Gets Homer; Best Game of Season

Tutor's single in the fourteenth inning drove Wimbrow across the plate with the winning run and broke up a 7-all deadlock as Henderson Tobaccoists defeated the Durham Bulls here yesterday afternoon at League Park 8 to 7. It was easily the prettiest, most exciting ball game played on the local lot this season.

The Leafs forged in front in the first inning on a home run by Perry with Savage aboard the hassocks. The Bulls evened things up in their half of the second, scoring two runs on three successive hits. Henderson went ahead again in the fourth by scoring two runs with Perry leading off with a double. Wimbrow singled him in and scored a moment later himself. The Leafs added another in the seventh, and Durham got two in the eighth and then went on a rampage in the ninth to drive in three runs.

Short, pinch hitting for Price in the final half of the stanza, led off with a screaming double. Scoggin sent him home with a triple and set the stage for one of baseball's prettiest plays, the squeeze. Scoggin scoring on Johnson's perfect sacrifice in front of the plate.

Edwards Shines

Jimmy Edwards, called on to hurl in the place of Price, tamed the Bulls for the remaining five innings, not allowing a single safety during his stay, as his mates gave him good support afield.

After two were out in the fourth, Wimbrow doubled and Tutor singled him home with the winning rally.

Perry got a home run, a double and single while Wimbrow got three singles and a double to lead the Henderson attack. Chandler and Overman got two hits each to lead the visitors.

The Leafs were to play Townsville here this afternoon.

Roger Salengro, minister of the Interior, meanwhile, reported an apparent easing of strike tension as a result of the "government's action."

FEW CLIENTS ARE ON REHABILITATION

Only Five Per Cent of Tenant Farmers in This Region Enrolled

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In The Six Water, Hotel, By J. C. BASKERVILLE, Raleigh, June 6.—Of a total of 112,158 share croppers and tenants in North Carolina, both white and colored, only about 5 per cent have been enrolled as rehabilitation clients of the Resettlement Administration as of June 1, Homer H. E. Mask, regional director also for the States of Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia, announced in a statement today.

There are, according to the latest U. S. Census figures, 36,392 white croppers and 56,781 white tenants in this State. There are 30,001 colored croppers and 18,984 colored tenants. Rehabilitation clients are divided: White, 5,468; Colored, 2,991, and Indians, 32.

Dare, where fishing is more of a pursuit-for-a-living than farming, is the only one of the state's one hundred counties which does not have a single rehabilitation client.

In thirteen counties of the State, Mask explained, not a single colored person has been placed on the rehabilitation rolls. These counties are Alleghany, Caldwell, Cherokee, Clay, Dare, Graham, Henderson, Jackson, Macon, Madsen, Mitchell, Polk and Swain.

In six counties, the proportion of colored rehabilitation clients exceeds that of white. In one of these, Northampton, there are 33 white clients and 100 colored clients, the latter figure probably including descendants of the original Portuguese colony brought over here to cultivate cotton before the Civil War.

In the other five, the figures show there are 51 white and 55 colored clients in Alamance; 55 white and 104 colored in Bertie; 42 white and 98 colored in Person and Warren, with the highest percentage of colored, having 114 as against 14 white.

Person also has 8 Indian clients. Robeson has 17 Indians, 43 white and 13 colored. Scotland has 4 Indian clients while Rockingham, Lee and Cumberland have one each.

Resettlement projects now under way contemplate the location of 200 colored farm families in Halifax county, in the vicinity of Tillery, and an additional number in the Farm Tenant Purchase project being developed in four eastern counties. Jones Lake, northern border of a reforestation and game preserve in Bladen county, has already been definitely set aside as a resort for colored people.
