

Miller Chooses Starters As Workouts Continue

First and Second String Teams Average Same, 141 Pounds; Two Workouts Given Squad Today With Mentor Stressing Blocking, Tackling

Coach Bing Miller today picked his tentative first and second string teams as he pushed the Henderson high school Bulldogs through another double workout.

Both teams average the same, 141 pounds, with the first stringers having an edge in experience.

Miller is determined that his team shall know how to block and tackle fundamentals practically the entire week, lightening up this morning to give the boys some signal drills and to teach them a few plays.

Scrimmaging in earnest will begin next week as the locals prepare for their opener with Roanoke Rapids there next Friday afternoon.

The new high school athletic field has had the grass cut, and it makes an ideal gridiron for the boys.

In picking his tentative teams, Coach Miller let the boys know that there are no places on his eleven cinched, and the ones who work the hardest and prove themselves better than those occupying the first string berths, they will be placed there.

On his first string, Miller has Alston, 137, and Stewart, 130, ends; Mitchell, 180, and Vaughan, 166, tackles; Patterson, 135 and Dennis, 125, guards; Kildout, 135, center; Nichols, 137, quarterback; Aysets, 133, and Halthcock, 115, halves; and Turner, 143, fullback. Running on the second team are Windley, 133, and Butch Peace, 140, ends; Evans, 157 and Renn, 146, tackles; Davis, 143 and Cooper 133, guards; Jenkins, 150, center; Lewis, 125, quarterback; Coghill, 130, Billy Peace, 162, halves and Dunn, 133, fullback.

The total weight of the first string is 1556 pounds, and the second stringers tip the beam at 1552, but the second stringers have their weight more evenly distributed among the players.

WEATHER A FACTOR FOR DUKE OPENER

Hot Day Will Give Devils Advantage Over Colgate Red Raiders

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Sept. 18. — Equinoctial weather is expected to decide an even game in Duke Stadium Saturday of next week, September 26, when Duke and Colgate meet in their first.

If the first fall visitation is warm by playing date, Duke will have an advantage. Hot sun would be a help to the Wallace Wade team. Colgate has had an advantage in pre-game work. If the day should be cool the Northerners would get the break. That's the way the athletic observers call it.

Coach Wade would like to have all the good weather possible, but if left to a choice between bracing days all the week and a hot one for Saturday, he would take the warm one despite its discomfort to the boys. If there should be instead warm weather all the week and cool on Saturday Andy Kerr's crew would be advantaged.

That's how close the fans expect the playing to be, though the regular Duke devotees think the Methodists can beat these soup town boys two touchdowns any day in the year.

Advertising of the homecoming day indicates a crowd that will exceed any other occasions save the two Carolina games of 1933 and 1935 and the opener in October, 1929. Duke was just coming up then and Pittsburgh, the opponent, was getting the call for the Rose Bowl. Colgate probably is as good today as Pitt was then and Duke is about 200 per cent better than the Duke of 1929.

The game is to be the biggest that Tar Heels have ever seen between sections and played on a North Carolina field. The coaching of Mr. Wade is to be put to as high a test as he ever had. The North Carolina season never has been so impressively opened, according to all the rooters who have followed football half a century.

ONE DEATH ALREADY IN HUNTING SEASON

Commissioner Chalk Sounds Warning and Lists Series of "Don'ts"

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Sept. 18.—With at least one fatality already reported and an increasing number of gunners taking the field, State Game and Inland Fisheries Commissioner J. D. Chalk today urged that every precaution be taken to preserve human life and to prevent injury.

Even the slightest act of carelessness, according to the commissioner, in the handling of firearms may result in serious injury to a hunter or his companion.

The commissioner suggested a list of "don'ts" for hunters which, if observed rigidly, will virtually eliminate all hunting accidents. These are as follows:

1. Don't keep your guns loaded except when you are actually hunting, but handle it at all times as if it were loaded.
2. Don't point your gun at anyone even if you are sure it is empty.
3. Don't carry your gun when climbing fences or brush piles.
4. Don't handle a gun by the muzzle or pull it toward you.
5. Don't shoot at any game unless you see it clearly enough to identify it positively. There is surety in our North Carolina deer law in that the deer you can shoot must be a buck and all bucks have horns.
6. Don't violate the farmer's hospitality by leaving gates open, cutting fences, or destroying his property.
7. Don't throw your smoke out of the car into the brush without putting it out.
8. Don't hunt without a license—the game protector may get you at the time you are enjoying the hunt the most.
