

This Cup Is Perry's Now

Fred Perry (left) of England proved himself too much for Donald Budge (right), American star, in five terrific sets at Forest Hills, L. I. This was the third singles championship for Perry and he now takes permanent possession of the cup which he is holding. (Central Press)

Violence Flares in California Lettuce Strike

State highway patrolmen in Salinas, Cal., hurled tear gas bombs into a crowd of 2,500 men and women, picketing the Salinas lettuce farms. Scores of armed vigilantes battled the pickets and strikers, and more than a score were injured. Pickets are shown at the right fleeing a gas bomb. At the left an unarmed picket is holding off a trooper armed with revolver and club.

Youth Day—In the Shadow of Death

International Youth Day was celebrated in beleaguered Madrid, but the festival, once a gay affair took on a grim significance. Here is pictured the parade marching on the Puerta del Sol, Madrid's great square. Those rifles were carried by boys and girls, many of whom left for the front immediately after the parade.

DEPUTIES BATTLE CALIFORNIA LETTUCE STRIKERS

Street scene in Salinas, Cal. Sheriff's deputies, aided by American Legion members and other vigilantes are pictured driving lettuce strikers from streets of Salinas, Cal. Gas grenades and bombs were used. One man was shot and others were injured in battles following attempts to deliver lettuce through picket lines.

Stump New York for Democrats

Caroline O'Day, Democratic Congresswoman from New York (left), Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Boettiger, the President's daughter, and Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, wife of the former New York Governor, are shown bidding goodby to Mrs. Herbert Lehman, wife of the Governor, in New York City as they left Democratic headquarters on a speechmaking tour of the state. (Central Press)

Two Fingers of the Nazi Fist

While the huge Zeppelin Hindenburg roared overhead, scores of motorized artillery units and hundreds of fast, armed tanks rumbled by the stand at the Nuremberg Nazi party congress, where Adolf Hitler, with arm outstretched in Nazi salute, reviewed them.

Legion Entertainer

Yvonne Terrier, 23, will portray Mademoiselle from Montreal, "daughter" of the legendary Mademoiselle from Armentieres, when the Canadian department of the American Legion extends an official bid for the American Legion convention in 1937, at the 1936 convention in Cleveland. Mademoiselle Terrier, a singer, is from Montreal. (Central Press)

Wite Preservers

Use dirt to extinguish gasoline or oil fires. Water does no good.

Where Cuban Terrorist Bombers Killed Four

At the left is the wrecked plant of the Havana newspaper El Pais following the explosion of a small truck loaded with 1500 pounds of dynamite. At the right is shown some of the 1500 pounds of dynamite found in a small car outside the plant of another Havana newspaper, El Diario de la Marina, where alert police prevented its explosion. Four were killed in the Pais blast. (Central Press)

FROM POST NO. 1—PARIS

American veterans of Paris, France, Post No. 1, are snapped on the floor of the American Legion convention in Cleveland. Front row, Sedley Peck, left, and James McCann, right. Rear, left to right, M. J. Carole, Loyola Sherman and Bob English. (Central Press)

SUSPECTS GIVE THEMSELVES UP

Coke Brite John Brite

Hunted for weeks in connection with the slaying of two peace officials and a former naval officer in the wilds of Siskiyou county, California, Coke and John Brite, brothers, gave themselves up and then were rushed to Folsom prison for safe keeping. They are pictured there, being questioned.

A KISS—THEN OFF TO PALESTINE

Royal Irish Fusiliers privates being kissed goodby

Two privates of the Royal Irish Fusiliers kiss their sweethearts goodby as they entrain in London for Southampton where they embark for Palestine to try to maintain peace in Arab clashes with Jewish residents.