AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE CHALLENGED

Says Foreign Pattern of Dictatorship Becoming Clearer in New Deal "Jigsaw Puzzle"; Candidate Treated by Doctor for Head Cold and Sore Throat

Aboard Landon Special, Enroute to Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Governor Alf M. Landon said today the "overwhelming issue" of the presidential campaign is whether the American people want dictatorship, and contended "this foreign pattern" is "becoming clearer" in the New Deal "jigsaw puzzle."

The Republican nominee was treated enroute for a head cold and sore throat by Dr. L. P. Spake, of Kansas City. Dr. Spake said Landon's condition was much improved as he began the final week of his coast-to-coast campaign.

The nominee based his personal bid for Maryland's support upon conferences with party leaders aboard his Sunflower Special and an address at

HUNTING FUGITIVES FROM NORFOLK JAIL

Saw Cell Bar, Lure Guard Into Cell Block, Attack and Lock Him, Then Escape

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 26.—(AP)—Norfolk police fanned out to the city streets in speedy squad cars early today in pursuit of five prisoners who seized keys from their elderly keeper and escaped from the city jail shortly after midnight. Two of the five were under long sentences for robbery and the other three were awaiting trial for robbery or house breaking.

Headed by Paul Linwood (Snake-Eyes) Edwards, given ten years for robbery, the prisoners sawed through a bar in a door and overpowered Samuel N. Charlton, night jailer, who had been lured into the cell block. Imprisoning him in a closet, they unlocked the main exit door, and escaped and locked the door behind them. Firemen at a nearby engine house heard the men run from the jail and start an automobile. They heard, too, Charlton's frantic hammering on the closet door and gave the alarm.

Farm Bureau To Be Factor In Assembly May Have 40,000 Members; Pressure on Warehousemen and Merchants

Daily Dispatch Bureau, Raleigh, Oct. 26.—The North Carolina branch of the American Farm Bureau, though it has not yet made much noise, is likely to be one of the big forces behind the scenes of the coming General Assembly and to make plenty of noise and news before the next session of the assembly ends, according to those who have been following its activities for the past few months. For if the Farm Bureau continues to gather in members and cash during the next few months as it has in the last five or six, many believe that it will not only be one of the most potent political organizations in the State, but that it will also be one of the best financed, and hence be able to maintain one of the biggest and most expensive lobbies here during the General Assembly, just as it does in Washington. It is generally conceded that the lobby maintained by the American Farm Bureau in Washington is one of the largest and most powerful in the nation, and that

In a speech prepared for delivery at Baltimore, he announced what he

SMITH HITS NEW DEAL; HECKLER CHEERS F. D. R.

Al Smith speaking

While former Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York was asserting in Chicago that the New Deal's financial plans would make a "good scenario for a comic movie" if the people didn't have to "pay that 34 billion dollars", a heckler, Michael Treak, waved an American flag and shouted, "Hooray for Roosevelt!"

Michael Treak being ousted

The heckler was promptly ousted by policemen, as shown above. Smith, speaking before 3,600 persons under the auspices of the organization known as the Jeffersonian Democrats, once more urged the election of Gov. Alfred M. Landon, the Republican nominee.

Supreme Court Will Rule On Wagner Labor Relations Act

The Associated Press and Coach Company Appeals Involved in Decision Looked For

STATUTE PROVIDES LABOR BARGAINING

Court Also Refuses To Speed Up Ruling on Petition by Communists To Compel Illinois Election Officials To Put Candidates on Tickets There

Washington, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Two cases involving constitutionality of the Wagner labor relations act were added today by the Supreme Court to the list of New Deal litigation awaiting a final decision.

In a brief announcement, the tribunal agreed to pass on challenges of the legislation filed by The Associated Press and by the Washington, Virginia and Maryland Coach Company. The act was sustained by lower courts in both controversies.

The statute guarantees collective bargaining to labor and sets up a national labor relations board to settle industrial disputes.

In acting on approximately 30 appeals, the court also refused to speed up a final ruling on a petition by Illinois Communists to compel State officials to place the names of the communist candidates for president and vice-president on the ballot for the November 3 election. That action made it impossible for the court to act on the petition until after the election. It adjourned today until November 9, and will spend the intervening time writing opinions on cases argued during the last two weeks.

TRADE POLICY WAS PLAN OF MR. HULL

Secretary Loyally Gives President Credit That Belongs to Hull

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

Washington, Oct. 26.—It was loyal and self-abnegating in Secretary of State Cordell Hull to deny all credit for his international trade policy, and to give credit to President Roosevelt. But it wasn't overly accurate.

I am not sure just how long it is since Secretary Hull first outlined his philosophy of international trade and financial relationships. However, it was when he was in the House of Representatives. In the meantime he has served a term in the Senate and nearly four years in the cabinet. Thus it was a decade or one and a half at the least calculation.

DROBING DEATH OF BYRD'S SECRETARY

Dies Soon After Body Was Found in Swamp Only Few Miles from Richmond Sunday

Richmond, Va., Oct. 26.—(AP)—State and local authorities today pushed an investigation of circumstances surrounding the death of Harvey E. Dameron, 49, former secretary of Senator Harry F. Byrd, and well known figure in the national capital. Dameron was found fatally injured in the Chickahominy swamp, about ten feet off the highway, near here yesterday morning. He was last heard from Friday night, when he told his son, Page Dameron, that he intended to leave here then for Washington. City Coroner J. H. Larking W. Glazebrook, Jr., special investigator for the State Motor Vehicle Division, however, was "not satisfied" that the man was killed in an automobile accident.
