

Following the News Around the Globe With a Camera

FOLLIES GIRL MERELY A FRIEND, SAYS YOUNG HOPKINS

June Preisser, David Hopkins and Cherry Preisser

Denying a romance, David Hopkins, son of Harry Hopkins, U. S. Works Progress administrator, says Cherry Preisser, 19-year-old Follies dancing star, is merely a friend. Hopkins is shown above visiting Cherry, right, behind stage in Chicago where she is appearing in a stage show. Cherry's sister, June, is at the left. Hopkins is a senior at the University of Chicago.

Before Unionite's Murder

Norman Redwood (left), slain leader of the sandhogs' union is shown at a meeting with Sam Rosoff, millionaire subway contractor, shortly before Redwood's bullet-riddled body was found in his car in front of his home in Teaneck, N. J. Rosoff was arrested as a material witness in the man's death. (Central Press)

They've All Got Mumps

The household of the Winsett family at East Rockaway, N. Y., is in the throes of an epidemic of mumps. Mr. and Mrs. Winsett breed Boston terriers. A week ago the young daughter of the household showed up with it. Her brother, Herbie, contracted it. Now Herbie, seven full-grown dogs and eleven newborn puppies all have it. Here's Herbie and his personal pet, Gypsy, in a pathetic setting at the Winsett home.

Gets Education Post

Charles B. Glenn

Charles B. Glenn, superintendent of schools at Birmingham, Ala., becomes the new president of the department of superintendence of the National Education association. He was nominated at the national convention in New Orleans. Glenn succeeds A. L. Threlkeld of Denver. (Central Press)

Reported Shot As Spy

Reports from Gibraltar indicate that beautiful Rosita Diaz (above), Spanish screen star, has been executed as a spy by a Spanish Government firing squad. Hollywood starred Miss Diaz in two Spanish-language talkies in 1934. Since then she has been engaged in film work in Europe. (Central Press)

Offers Life to Science

Dorothy N. Snow, beautiful Boston girl, has offered her life to science. The offer was made to Dr. Karl von Schilling, psychiatrist, who is seeking a "human robot" to duplicate and study the processes of airplane pilots in trouble in an attempt to solve the mystery of the recent transport air crashes. (Central Press)

4-Inch Spike in Girl's Skull

Police at Berkeley, Cal., report that Dema Dunlap (above) inserted the four-inch spike shown below into her skull through a hole left by a repanning operation, then drove to the hospital from her home, 15 miles away. It was said the nail was in her skull 24 hours before she sought doctors' aid. Her condition is grave. (Central Press)

Transoceanic Romance

Announcement was made in London of the engagement of Violet Margot Catty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Catty, of Stamford, Conn., to J. W. Dalanty, Jr., elder son of the High Commissioner in London for the Irish Free State. The young couple, well-known in London society, are shown above. (Central Press)

Camp Fire Girls Celebrate

Lois O'Toole, 13 (left), and Ann Lowenberg, 8, are shown with Oscar of the Waldorf, blowing out the candles on their Silver Jubilee wish cake. They're just showing the Camp Fire Girls all over the country how to do it when the organization's twenty-fifth birthday is celebrated next month. (Central Press)

More Tear Gas for Sit-Downers

This picture, flashed to New York from Waukegan, Ill., by soundphoto, shows deputy sheriffs reloading their gas guns during the three-hour siege of the Pansteel plant in Waukegan. Sit-down strikers who had possession of the factory were finally forced out by the fumes, and many, overcome, had to be carried. (Central Press)

Lindy in Pharaoh Land

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, whose flight in the old world is attracting unusual attention even for the Lone Eagle, is shown inspecting his speedy British plane at Dekkele Airdrome, Alexandria, Egypt. Soon after the inspection the Lindberghs took off for Cairo.

Wife Preservers

A tiny amount of vinegar added to your home-made candy ingredients will prevent the candy from becoming grainy.

Wife Preservers

When you are serving soft cheeses with crackers, try using caraway seeds to give a piquant flavor.