

Bulldogs Open Season Friday With Zeb Vance

Harris or Owens Will Get Starting Call With Tom Rideout Behind the Plate; New Uniforms Issued; Game Called at 4:30 O'clock

Pushing his lads through their final drill this afternoon, Coach Bing Miller will be ready to send them against their first foe of the present season Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at League Park, pitting his team against the strong Zeb Vance.

Miller has issued brand new uniforms to his nine, and the outfit will be looking its best in the initial tilt.

Either Thurston Harris or Leland Owens will get the starting call on the hill with Tom Rideout behind the plate.

Edgar Edwards will hold down the initial sack with Robert Rideout at second, Howard Hobgood at short, Henry Stewart at third, Hunk Coghill in left, Durward Turner in center and Dick Calloway in right.

Miller is starting the game late in the afternoon in order to allow fans ample time to turn out.

The club must depend much on gate receipts to keep it going since the canvass for funds fell short of the goal sought.

UNIFORMS ISSUED HIGH SCHOOL NINE

Here we are almost in the baseball season and the team is ready and raring to go. It is the usual custom to hand out uniforms about this time of the season but it is unusual for leather handed players to get new uniforms.

Coach Bing Miller had a hard time getting one uniform for a certain young player who is so little that they thought they would have to go to a baby shop to get his uniform but the company finally got the uniform all right, but don't get me wrong for this player is one of the best short stops there is anywhere. The boy is fully capable of handling his position and any other position that could be assigned him in case of an emergency. Just in case anyone is figuring on a professional team and needs an infielder the lad's name is none other than Howard Hobgood. (Howard is also a charter member of The Boy's Friend Lodge of Henderson.)

All you lads and lassies watch this column for me to put other members of the squad on the spot.

A New York hotel stages boxing bouts as part of its floor show for diners. Probably in an effort to recreate the atmosphere of home-fights at meal times.

We haven't seen the advertisements but they should read: "Enjoy your favorite punch with your meals."

A good many gyp night clubs ought to pick up the idea. Their customers, then, would go away satisfied that they weren't the only ones who got a trimming.

By staging a brawl between two heavies during the main course the management might make the customer forget his steak is strictly a light-weight.

With a card full of fake knockout and phony decisions on each Friday, mine host could obtain the proper fishy atmosphere.
