

4,000,000th of a Famous Make

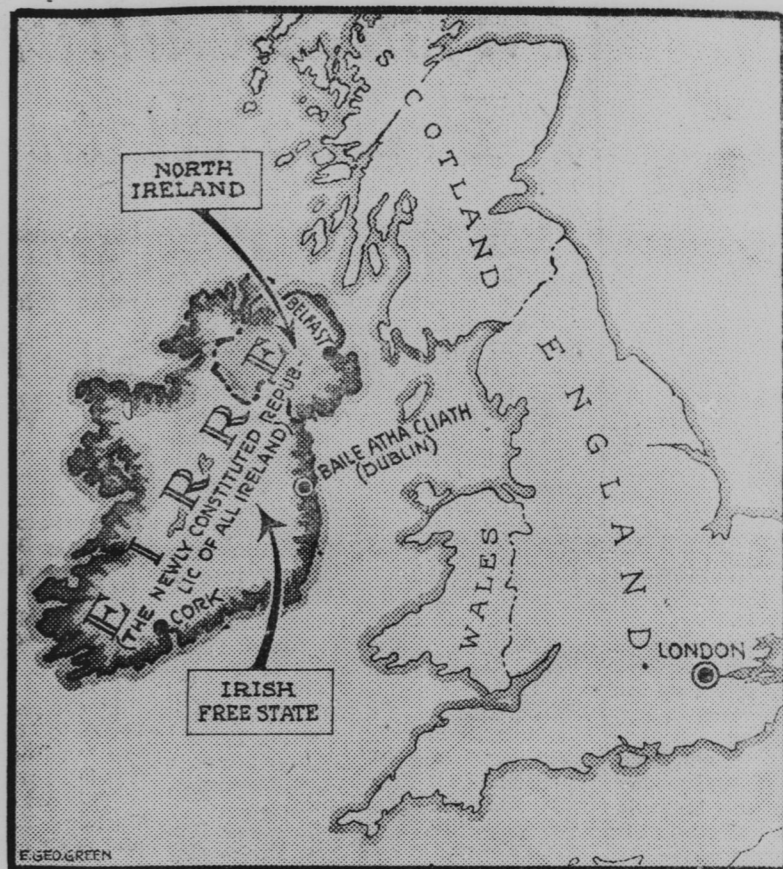

The 4,000,000th Frigidaire recently came off the assembly track at Frigidaire's Moraine City, Ohio, household refrigerator plant. Its refrigeration unit is the famous meter-miser. Proud of the attainment of the four million mark and entrance of their worldwide organization into its fifth million were, left to right, W. F. Armstrong, assistant general manager; David K. Banker, comptroller; E. B. Newill, chief engineer; and E. G. Biechler, general manager. There are one and one-half million more Frigidaires in use than any other make.

Can Ireland Join the Ranks of the Republics?

O'Connell street, main thoroughfare of Dublin, capital of the Irish Free State

Map shows newly created republic—which would include North Ireland if the people there should so choose

Nazi Finance Chief in Belgium

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, economic dictator for Nazi Germany, is shown with Louis Frank, governor of the Bank of Belgium, at Brussels. Ostensibly a courtesy call, Schacht's visit is looked upon as of extreme importance in the new economic line-up of Central Europe. (Central Press)

Rules on Security

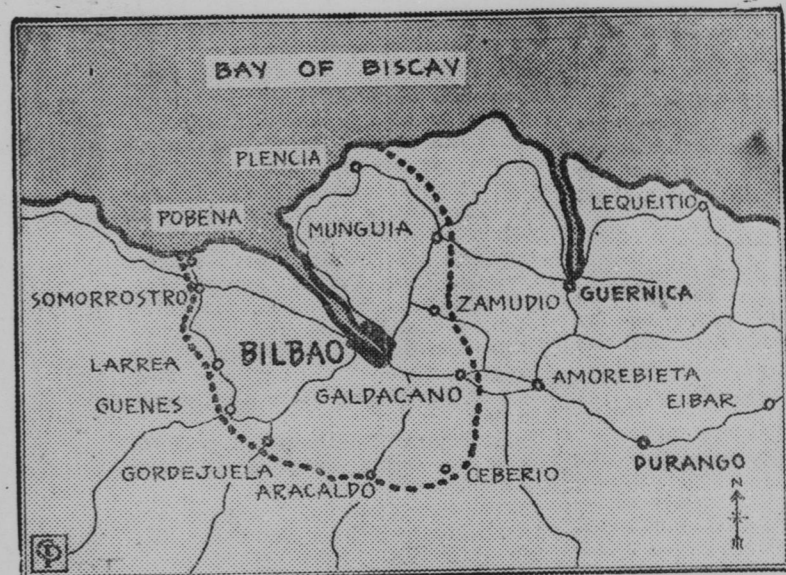

Judge James M. Morton, Jr., has ruled the Social Security Act is unconstitutional in a decision handed down in circuit court of appeals in Boston. The decision was rendered in the case of George P. Davis, of Waltham, Mass., against the Boston and Maine railroad. (Central Press)

Pershing Coronation Bound

General John J. Pershing (right) is shown ascending the gangplank at New York enroute to London and the Coronation as one of the three United States delegates to see King George VI crowned. Gen. Pershing settled the question of his special uniform by stating it would be suited to his rank. (Central Press)

HOW BASQUES ARE BELEAGUERED

Map shows Bilbao, Basque capital

Bilbao, beleaguered center the Basque Loyalists, is shown on the map above. The Spanish rebels are reported to have captured Guernica and gone on to Durango. The dotted line shows what the Basques call their "Magnet line", where forts of concrete and steel stretch along the whole land side of the Basque capital. Fatalities among the Basques are said to be great.

They Have 20 Co-Ed Mothers

Left motherless a month after their birth, these two babies now have twenty "mothers," each a co-ed at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y. Rose Ann (left) and Mary Alice were borrowed by the New York State College of Home Economics to provide practice subjects for the family life courses. They are shown with their first birthday cake. (Central Press)

Maybe She Likes Ice Cream

Little Pauline Locher, 4-year-old inmate of the Brooklyn, N. Y., Orphans' Home, gave national ice cream week a running start as she did justice to this enormous cone. Gallons of ice cream disappeared as if by magic at the festive party held for the orphans. (Central Press)

Honor Hitler

Fuehrer Adolf Hitler On the occasion of his 48th birthday, Fuehrer Adolf Hitler of Germany stands in the doorway of the chancellery in Berlin to review a gigantic parade in his honor. Celebrations and parades were held through Naziland in honor of the No. 1 Nazi.

Envoy to Poland

Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., wealthy Philadelphian, has been named U. S. ambassador to Poland by President Roosevelt. Biddle, who has been minister to Norway, is well known as a tennis player, having won the championship of France in 1934.

F. D. R. Skipper

Lieut. A. B. Clarke is in command of President Roosevelt's fishing cruise yacht Potomac, which the president boards at New Orleans for a cruise into the Gulf of Mexico.

Succeeds Caldwell

Herbert C. Pell Succeeding Robert G. Caldwell as minister to Portugal is Herbert C. Pell of Newport, R. I., former congressman. Pell served in the sixty-sixth congress as representative from the Seventeenth New York district. (Central Press)

Adventurer in a Jam Woman Named Envoy

Redy Hart, American soldier of fortune, who won great honors in the Costa Rican army, is under close arrest in San Jose, Costa Rica, charged with treason and plotting to overthrow the government of President Leon Cortes. Hart for a time was Cortes' personal body-guard. (Central Press)

Mrs. Florence J. Harriman New minister to Norway, Mrs. Florence J. Harriman of Washington, D. C., wealthy socialite, is a member of the Democratic national committee. Mrs. Harriman succeeds Anthony J. Drexel Biddle at the Norway post. (Central Press)

A Distinguished Father

You can't keep Eddie Rickenbacker out of the air. But this time he's taken his family with him. They're shown at Miami, as they took the clipper ship to Havana. With the American ace are his wife and his two sons, David (left) and William. (Central Press)

NOAH NUMSKULL
THEY MUST BE HERE!
WRONG NUMBERS DUMPED HERE
DEAR NOAH—WHAT BECOMES OF ALL THE RINGS PEOPLE PROMISE TO GIVE YOU ON THE TELEPHONE?
ALICE MAHER ANSONIA, CONN.
DEAR NOAH—DOES THE SARP PACK ITS CLOTHES IN THE TRUNK BEFORE IT LEAVES THE TREE?
MRS. W. W. JONES ATLANTA, GA.
MAIL YOUR NOTIONS TO NOAH-NOW

Butler Backs Sailors

Gen. Smedley D. Butler, former head of the U. S. Marines, is pictured as he addressed a meeting of Anti-Nazi sailors at Mecca Temple, New York City, backing the seamen against the Nazis.