

HIGHS FACE EPSOM IN DIAMOND TILT

Game Scheduled for Franklin County Village Tomorrow

By SEYMOUR DWORSKY
Tomorrow the Bulldogs will play Epsom at the feds diamond. It seems that since the Bulldogs have started taking trips they have gone on a losing streak again, well at any rate we hope that they will pull out of it, and win all the games this week, since it is the last week for the local team to go out on the field this year, it is also the last time that some of the players will be out on the baseball diamond fighting for the blue and white.

Record-Breaker

Carl Hubbell

Baseball's kingpin of the pitcher's box, Carl Hubbell, of the New York Giants, has set a new record with 21 consecutive victories, surpassing by one the record streak compiled by Rube Marquard back in 1911-12. King Carlos won 16 in a row at the end of 1936 and five this season to reach the mark.

FELLER WINS HIS SHEEPSKIN

Bob Feller and O. E. Lester
It's a big moment in the life of Bob Feller, sensational pitching phenom of the Cleveland Indians, for the 18-year-old "Cinderella" of baseball is watching his high school superintendent, O. E. Lester, sign his graduation diploma. The scene is Van Meter, Ia., Feller's home town. Feller returned there to get his prized sheepskin.

ROANOKE ISLAND TO HANDLE CROWDS

Aug. 18, 350th Anniversary of Virginia Dare to Bring Roosevelt

By J. C. BASKERVILLE
Raleigh, May 17.—The people on Roanoke Island are rapidly completing their preparations for entertaining the thousands of visitors who are expected to come to the island this summer during the celebration of the 350th anniversary of the landing of the first colonists on the island and the birth of Virginia Dare, the first white child born in the New World. This celebration will begin July 4 and extend through September 6, with a continuous program of features for the entertainment of visitors, although the highlight of the celebration is expected to be August 18, when President Franklin D. Roosevelt will be present and make the principal address on the 350th anniversary of the Birth of Virginia Dare.

"While we are expecting to have at least 30,000 people on the island to hear President Roosevelt on August 18, we are expecting thousands of people to visit Old Fort Raleigh and to see the pageant which Paul Green is now writing from the time of the celebration opens on July 4 until it closes in September," D. B. Fearing, president of the Roanoke Island Memorial Association, said while here over the week-end. "We do not want people to get the idea that the only day to visit Roanoke Island and Old Fort Raleigh is the day the President will be there.

Preparations have been made to handle the thousands of people expected to attend the celebration without any confusion, and there will be adequate facilities at all times for parking, for meals and accommodations for those who desire to spend one or even several nights on the island, Fearing said. More than 50 acres have been cleared opposite the site of Old Fort Raleigh, to be used for parking space and numerous comfort stations for both men and women are being provided.

CAROLINA TO MEET DUKE IN TWO TILTS

Game Wednesday at Chapel Hill and in Greensboro Saturday

Chapel Hill, May 17.—University of veristy of North Carolina athletic teams will virtually bring their spring season to a close this week.
The Tar Heels and Blue Devils nines will open their annual three-game series here Wednesday and follow up with a second engagement at Greensboro Saturday night. They broke even in two games last year. A third scheduled game was postponed on account of rain.
The University of North Carolina will hold its first Carolinas A. A. U. track meet here next Friday and Saturday. Competition will take place in both junior and senior divisions. Those eligible for the junior events are prep, high school and freshman athletes. Participating in the senior divisions will be representatives from colleges, universities and amateur clubs.

ELON TENNIS TEAM CLOSES ITS SEASON

Elon College, May 17.—With 19 victories out of 23 matches, the Elon College tennis team closed one of the best seasons in the history of the sport here with an outstanding record for the 1937 campaign just completed. The championship of the North State conference was again easily captured. The record included victories over several of the most outstanding teams in the East and established the Christian netmen as one of the strongest clubs in the East for this season.
