Raleigh, July 10.—R. Gregg Cherry he "iron major" from Gastonia who was speaker of the House during the 1937 General Assembly and who crack ed as stinging a verbal whip over the heads of House members as any speaker who can be remembered, is having a lot of ressure brought to bear on him to become a candidate for the United States Senate against Senator Robert R. (Our Bob) Reynolds next spring, according to reports heard here. The boys who want to beat Bob are said to be convinced that hard-boiled Gregg is just about of Country of beating the "Bounding Basque" in the kind of rough-and-tumble campaign which the roving Senator from Buncombe county always puts on. The trouble seems to be that they are Middle West And having some difficulty in convincing the convincing that it would be worth his cherry that it would be worth his while to give up his law practice in Gastonia and North Carolina to become a member of the very exclusive club in Washington, known as the Senate, at a salary of only $10,000 a

Observers here are inclined to agree with those who are already enthusiastic in their advocacy of Cherry as an opponent of Bob Reynolds, that he would undoubtedly be a formidable candidate and would probably give Bob a harder fight than any one else who might get into the race for the Senate against him. They agree that Cherry has been a New Dealer, or at

Handwriting on Note Identified

Stony Brook, N. Y., July 10 .-(AP)—District Attorney Barron Hill said tóday Albert Osborn, bergh kidnap case, had identified the writing in the $25,000 ransom note found after Mrs. Alice Mc-Donnell Parsons, Long Island so-ciety matron who vanished June 9. Hill said Osborn examined the note and various specimens of writing gathered by Suffolk county authorities and submitted to him for comparison with the notes.

Federal Bureau of Investigation officials said they had no comment on Hill's statement.

Hill said Osborn had concluded the writing in the note was not Mrs. Parsons', and said his men were working on the theory that she was slain and her body hidden. He reiterated he expected a break of some kind in the case either over the week-end or early next week, but declined to elabor-

Raleigh, July 10.—Although action is still being deferred by the State
Highway and Public Works Commission with regard to the prison division and the selection of a director, indications are that the commission is waiting only for its sub-committee to make a report of its findings and recommendations before taking a definite move. This committee is composed of Chairman Frank L. Dunlap and Commissioners Robert Grady Johnson, of the third division, and T.

Max Watson, of the ninth division. While this committee has not yet made its report as to personnel to the full commission, indications are that it will make its report in the near future. A'melia's Fate May Be Known Honolulu, July 10. - (AP)-Three naval planes were ordered catapulted over the major group of the Phoenix islands today in a search which naval officers said would probably reveal whether Amelia Earhart is still alive.

The battleship Colorado's searching planes, shooting into the air at 12:39 p. m., eastern standard time, were directed to sweep over Enverbury, Phoenix, Birnie and Sydney islands. Shore patrols from the mine sweeper Swan were ordered to comb Canton, largest of the Phoenix islands, while the planes scout other possible refugees of Miss Earhart and Frederick Noonan, navigator of her roundthe-world plane, missing eight days. The two ships set a rendezcous 15 miles south of Canton at 4:30 p. m., eastern standard time to refuel the mine-sweeper. The Colorado's planes

John Montague Wanted In New York for Banditry In 1930 Hold-Up

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—(AP)— Filmland's "phantom of the stair-ways," his mask of mystery stripped away, ruefully pondered "one foolish mistake" today while he awaited in a jail cell for New York authorities to serve extradition papers to take him back east for trial as a bandit.

District Attorney Thomas McDon-ald, of Essex county, N. Y., announced there he would push proceedings to extradite John Montague, called the mystery man of golf, on charges that he took part in a roadhouse hold-up

Montague, as he is known here, broke the "mystery bubble," surrounding his name for the past three years, when he said:

"I made one foolish mistake when I was just a kid. I got in a tough gang and went wrong. I've been trying to live it down ever since." George Clark, his personal friend, golf companion and attorney, intimated an appeal would be made to Governor Merriam to refuse to sign extradition papers.

Use of Lash For Prisons Assailed

Raleigh, July 10 (AP)-Mrs. W. T. Bost, State welfare commissioner, said today the use of the lash to enforce prison discipline has always been contrary to the policy of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare.

"The State board has not reversed that policy," Mrs. Bost said. "The State board has always taken the position that there were other methods of securing prison discipline which could be used more effectively."
