THE SILENCE SHINES.

Sometimes in conversation two meeting minds strike spark and bright upon the dark Of each one's isolation brilliant phrases glow;
"Have you thought that too?"—"How well."
"You say it?"—"I must tell you something."—"Yes, I know." Now you and I sit quiet and yet the silence shines The colors and the lines Of the rooms are burnished by Swift as intuition, Implicit on the air Between us, brightly flare
The words of recognition.
The flame burns clear and tall;
We need not speak at all.

Pollyanna Poems

My pal and I we called and called,
And the sun came out to see,
And made a brilliant golden path
To show the way to me;
At night the glistening moon shone high
And spread a silvery way,
And we went on, and on and on Until again 'twas day.

New Supervisor of Probation

MISS MAE OLIVER
Daily Dispatch Bureau,
In The Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Sept. 3—Mae Oliver is in and out.
The Lady from Lee is in as eastern supervisor of the women's division of the Probation Commission.

She is out as a candidate for presidency of the Young Democratic club, as a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and as vice president of the aforesaid Y. D. C.
Yesterday her appointment to the probation position was announced by J. Harry Sample, director of probation. Today she formally renounced the party positions she now holds and her aspirations for further political honors.
"Having been officially notified that my application for the position of supervisor of the women's division of the Probation Commission has been accepted to become effective immediately, I have tendered my resignation as vice president of the Young Democratic Clubs of North Carolina to Mr. J. Ed Butler, president, and my resignation as member of the State executive committee to Mr. R. Gregg Cherry, chairman, because I do not feel that it is proper for one connected with the judiciary to hold a political office," she said in a formal statement.
"For the same reason, I am withdrawing my candidacy for president of the Young Democratic Clubs, and I wish to take this means to thank my loyal friends throughout the State for their splendid support." Mr. Sample said there was nothing sudden about Miss Oliver's appointment which had been decided upon some weeks ago. He indicated that it was announced now on account of the need for Miss Oliver's assistance in setting up the probation system.

Marian Martin Pattern

PATTERN 9277
If you count your calories and mourn that the "Sweet Sixteens" have all the luck in clothes designs, you'll rejoice when you see this flattering frock that Marian Martin has planned for the none-too-slender figure. A smart center panel will slenderize your figure, and since the bodice panel is cut all-in-one with the yoke, greatly simplifies your cutting and stitching problems! Notice, too, the buttoned-over sleeves, perky collar, and becoming surplice line! A real triumph for the inexperienced beginner, is Pattern 9277—for it can be made up in no time, and its minimum fabric requirements will prove a boon to your

WHY SUFFER FROM HEAT?
Thousands Find Laundries an Aid in Summer

Science has learned that most of the cases of sun-stroke are caused through over-activity. Modern conveniences have helped to eliminate the dangers of overheatedness. Laundries especially have lifted the burden of a weekly wash from the household woman. No longer is it necessary for...
