A Nation Needs Religious Homes

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By the Rev. Alvin E. Bell And Alfred J. Buescher

The book of Deuteronomy is made up of Moses' farewell addresses to Israel. He urged them: "Thou shalt love Jehovah thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might."

Dr. Dorton Says It's Most Imposing Array in History of State

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In The Sir Walter Botel,

Raleigh, Sept. 10.-Probably the most imposing array of entertainment features ever presented by a North Carolina State Fair will be offered visitors to the 1937 exposition, which will be held in Raleigh October 12-16.

Manager J. S. Dorton revealed today that he is bringing back favorites of former years, while many innegations tures will add sparkling innocations to the entertainment program. With the fair back in the hands of the State, after several years of private management, Manager Dorton is stressing that emphasis will be placed on agricultural exhibits. He announced that premium books, now on the presses, will be available soon, and that a sizeable increase in awards will be offered over last year's figure. Nevertheless, Manager Dorton ex-plained today, fair-goers also relish high class entertainment features, and in this first year of his management he intends to give the best that can be secured.

Headling the week's entertainment program will be the appearance on Wednesday, October 13, of "Lucky" Teter and his Hell Drivers, fresh from a triumphal tour of Europe, where, s in North Carolina, their death-de fying stunts on wheels left recordreaking audiences gasping. Teter's troupe of daredevils made their first appearance at the State Fair last fall, and so thrilled a capacity crowd which spread his fame that Manager Dorton successfully arranged for their return next month. The Hell Drivers will appear only one afternoon during fair week.

A nightly feature before the grandstand will be "The Revue of Tomorrow," a sparkling stage show produced by George A. Hamid, maestro of outdoor entertainment. This revue making its Southern premiere at the North Carolina State Fair, is regarded as one of the highest class road

Religion in the Home. God's idea of the place of religion in the home is beautifully and unmistakably set forth in his word to Israel through Moses: "Hear, O Israel; Jehovah our God is one Jenovah: and thou shalt love Jehovah thy God with all thy heart and with clocks, grandmother's spinning wheels all thy soul and with all thy might and similar ancestral heirlooms, it And these words which I command would be well if more of our families | thee this day, shall be upon thy heart; were eager to restore to our nodern and thou shalt teach them diligently homes that one piece of furniture unto thy children, and shalt talk of which, more than any other, left its them when thou sittest in thy house impress upon the whole character and and when thou walkest by the way atmosphere of those old-fashioned and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up."
