LULLABY IN AUTUMN.
What lullaby can I make you now,
With the autumn
Come again to this land, come to my door,
With blue, smoke-bitter wind flinging a handful of yellow-bright beech leaves across the floor?
How can I sing you to sleep with the mist lying thicker than wool across the river plain,
and the maple trees shouting and wearing their scarlet and russet-hued robes in the windy rain?
How can you sleep at all? There are apples glowing crimson and amber, rich on the orchard boughs, and you and I shall run to the orchard tomorrow and bring wind-fallen apples to the house.

Week's Average On Henderson Tobacco
At High Of $28.78

Henderson, not only for its high prices but for the personal touch that every warehouseman and employe and every buyer is giving in the sale of his tobacco. The farmer is entitled not only to the best prices that can be secured, but also to every courtesy that can be extended to him—that's the way the Henderson tobacco market feels about it.

So, Mr. Farmer, when you come to Henderson, whether it is to sell tobacco, or to trade, you're in the hands of your friends, and not in the hands of the Philistines.

The first three days of this week the Henderson market sold 1,159,240 pounds, which averaged $28.78. The total sales on this market from the opening, September 16, up to last night were 3,122,232 pounds for $864,- 482.88, for an average of $27.60. We do not believe that any market anywhere

"can touch it with a 40 foot pole." Sell your tobacco in Henderson and you will always get the top of the market.

Thank you.

Judge White Was Klucker Dixon Says
Dixon as saying White, who was a court member from 1894 to 1921, was "one of the Knights of Camella, a part of the invisible empire."
"It was White whose opinions brought dissolution of the old Standard Oil and American Tobacco Companies under the Sherman anti-trust law," the article says Dixon said.
"When a young man," said Dixon, "White rode as an officer in the ranks of the Ku Klux Klan. Klan leaders in those days numbered among the best families in the South."
"President Taft appointed White chief justice in 1910, and it was just one year later that his memorable anti-trust opinions were delivered. The former klansman administered oaths of office to President Wilson in 1913 and 1917, and to President Harding in 1921 (the year White died).

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.
The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood.
Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.
Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Bar Association Rejects Inquiry of Justice Black

W. Summers, Democrat, Texas, cut-lined a "battalion of death" to fight for constitutional government.
Summers, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, and powerful figure in the recent Supreme Court battle, clarified to reporters a section of a speech in which he asked:
"Are you willing to join in a battalion of death to save the Constitution and the nation?"
Summers told newsmen he was not particularly referring in that sentence to the court fight or any other controversial issue.
"What I am getting at is fundamentals. I believe that the court controversy, as much as I tried to avoid it, has proven of far more good than injury in stirring up an interest in government and making the people think —getting them on the job."
