

SHARP RALLY FOR STOCKS AT OUTSET

Early Washout Had Swept Numerous Issues to New Lows for Two Years or More

New York, Oct. 15 (AP)—With United States Steel pointing the way, leading stocks put on a sharp rally in today's market after an early washout that swept numerous issues to new lows for the past two years. Extreme losses of one to three or more points were replaced with gains of as much in many instances. The drift of bonds was generally downward. unclaimed bodies. Bangor has no paupers' burying-ground, or so-called "potters field." Indiana relatives claimed the body of Clarence Shaffer, Jr., Brady's trigger man, and it was sent to them by rail. Meantime, from Indianapolis came word that Indiana authorities hastened to complete murder prosecution plans that may lead James Dalhover, lone survivor of the Brady gang, to the electric chair, but the alleged "trigger man" lolled in his cell here apparently unconcerned over his fate. He expressed his philosophy thus: "Although we were always on the run, it was pretty good while it lasted. Anybody who lived the life we did expected to be riddled with bullets or end up like I did."

Hearing On Crop Control Bill Begins

South Carolina, chairman of the committee, presided, with Senator Allen Ellender, Democrat, Louisiana, and J. B. Hutson, assistant AAA administrator, conducting the hearing. Opening the hearing, Senator Smith stressed the "difference between natural and artificial production," pointing out "no analogy exists between the farm and manufacturer." "The manufacturer is independent of seasons and produces under his own laws, while farmers produce under nature's laws and it takes twelve months to produce an asset," he declared. "The manufacturer needs 30, 60 or 90 days credit; the farmer needs and must have 12 months credit to produce and 12 months to sell."

European diplomats in Washington, however, thought first of the presidential assurance more directly in connection with conditions in the Iberian peninsula, which essentially is their dooryard. Burden On U. S. Europe's democratic spokesmen, be it understood, are very well satisfied to see American public attention concentrated primarily upon the Far East. Britain, France and their lesser friends would like nothing better than to have the United States assume all

Oriental responsibilities, leaving them free to deal with fascism and nazism on their side of the Atlantic. Not that they don't appreciate American sympathy in their own field, but they are quite outspoken in admitting that they would appreciate it to be relieved of some of their Far Eastern worries. Russia would like it no less. Russia's Position. Somewhat curiously, there seemed to be an impression that the Russians were one of the people against whom President Roosevelt was hitting in his Chicago address. Maybe he did mean it so, on the theory that Moscow is an undemocratic government. Nevertheless Moscow accidentally is on the democratic side in the present confusion—which internationally is as hard to clarify as our own mix-up between the Democratic and Republican parties. That is to say, democratic Britain and republican France are allies in opposition to totalitarian Italy and Germany. They also are opposed to communist Russia. Yet they hate Italian and German totalitarianism worse than they hate Russian communism—or they are not so much afraid of Russian communism, anyway. Italy and Germany, from their standpoint, hate Russian communism worse than they hate anything else on earth, and Russia reciprocates. Russia's Predicament. Just what kind of an "ism" Japan

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 15.—(AP)—John Lewis, CIO chairman, promised to reply today to a new proposal of the American Federation of Labor for settlement of their craft-industrial union differences to effect a united labor movement.

His statement came as he and leaders of his CIO studied the next move in the desperate effort of both labor groups to avoid blame for their internal war.

An offer from the American Federation of Labor convention, again proposing conferences of three members of each organization, sent Lewis and his aides into solemn conferences last night.

A source close to Lewis said the labor leader "undoubtedly will pass the ball right back out to Denver." Having demanded a conference between 100 representatives from each group, the rank and file, as well as leaders of the CIO, studied carefully the willingness of the federation to compromise as indicated in its statement, that it would expand its original offer of three from each side to "any number reasonably expressive of CIO's needs."

Green's election came only minutes after the convention had approved without dissent a message proposing
