

FOUR KILLED IN TRUCK-TRAIN CRASH

Four persons were killed and several others injured. None critically, when the Southland, luxury passenger train, leaped the rails near Lovejoy, Ga., after crashing into a truck loaded with furniture. Photo shows crowds viewing the overturned locomotive.

Near Death

Atlee Pomerene

Former U. S. Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio is gravely ill at his Cleveland apartment. Pomerene, who retired from the senate in 1923, was a prosecutor of the cases growing out of the Teapot Dome oil scandal in 1924 and later was chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under President Hoover, although a Democrat.

STILL DAZED OVER "MARRIAGE"

Mary Lee and Ben Ipock at home

Still dazed by the disclosure that the farm boy she married was her own brother, Mary Lee Williams, and the brother, Ben Ipock, orphans, now try to readjust their lives at the home of Mary Lee's foster parents near Chilhowee, Mo. Although their marriage was annulled, Mary Lee and Ben will make their home at the Williams' farm. They were adopted in their youth by different families.

Papa Dionne Goes a-Shopping

Oliva Dionne, father of the famous quintuplets, is setting an example for New York's shoppers by making Christmas purchases early. Here he is shown in his New York hotel room with gifts for the Dionne quintuplets, and for his six other children. (Central Press)

JAMES CONFERS WITH MAYOR KELLY

Mayor Edward J. Kelly and James Roosevelt

James Roosevelt, eldest son and secretary of President Roosevelt, visits with Mayor Edward J. Kelly, who heads the Democratic machine in Chicago, and politicians wonder what they discussed. James came to Chicago to address Catholic youth.

Condemned to Die

Mrs. Marie Porter

Found guilty at Belleville, Ill., of engineering the insurance murder of her brother, William Katpen, St. Louis electrician, Mrs. Marie Porter, 37, of St. Louis, mother of four children, was condemned to die in the electric chair. Angelo Giancola, 22, who confessed shooting Katpen, also was found guilty and given the death penalty.

ANNA HAHN FOUND GUILTY

Mrs. Anna Marie Hahn, 31-year-old mother, termed by the prosecution the greatest "mass murderess" in history, was convicted by a jury in Cincinnati, Ohio, and the death penalty decreed. She is pictured here with her attorney (rear) being escorted from the court after hearing the verdict.

A Missionary Returns

Miss Catherine Talmage, 83, for sixty years a missionary worker in Amoy, China, fell and broke her hip fourteen months ago. Evacuated from the war zone, she made the long trip to New York in bed. Other missionaries in the party (left to right) are Miss K. R. Green, Miss I. N. Duryee and Miss E. K. Beekman. (Central Press)

Dogged by Hard Luck

A striking picture of Capt. George E. T. Eyston in the cockpit of his racing car Thunderbolt. He travelled the fastest mile ever made by man on the Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, at the rate of 310.685 miles an hour, but because of mechanical difficulties failed to break the official world's record set by Sir Malcolm Campbell in 1935—391.1292 miles an hour. Mayor at 22!

William Collins

Only 22 and mayor of a town! William Collins, student undertaker of Whitesburg, Ky., is the new mayor, and youngest man to ever hold public office in Kentucky. Collins defeated Mayor H. H. Harris, grade school principal, for the office. (Central Press)

Hitler Move

Joachim von Ribbentrop

As Fuehrer Adolf Hitler dramatically offered Germany's services as mediator of the Sino-Japanese war, he sent his ambassador to Britain, Joachim von Ribbentrop, above, to Rome for conclusion of an Italo-German-Japanese "anti-Communist" pact.

Kaiser's Story Pays Doctors

T. H. Alexander and his son, Buddy, look at Robert L. Ripley's "Believe It or Not" book, presented the lad by the author, but Buddy's story is stranger than most of the things in the book. Bud's dad persuaded Col. Luke Lea and seven other Tennesseans to permit publication of the story of their attempt to capture the Kaiser in Holland and take him to Paris for trial. The story pays for an operation on Buddy's spine, curved seven years ago by an attack of infantile paralysis. They are shown in a New York hospital. (Central Press)
