-AGE TWO

HENDERSON, (N. C.) DAILY JISPATCH SATURDAY DECEMBER 11, 1937

CHAPTER 27 AT THE Veiled Prophet's ball key. Mimi carried a fan of peacock ried again, we should have lived in the yellow pages seem even now his house, have had everything.

is anything in the world." "I am not superstitious," was own. Don't you call that a bit to flame with a living fire. feathers-the one which had been He thought he was in love," she painted in the portrait, and I heard swept the possibility away with a a woman behind me say, "Mimi Le Brun must want bad luck. I wouldn't wear peacock feathers wouldn't wear peacock feathers want. But you aren't thinking of Mimi's happiness. Only of your monition of disaster.

"Mother has made me promise not to see so much of you, Jerry.

woman of your dreams, I would you are not to think of me as cut myself up in little stars . . .

"It has been wonderful to "You are Juliet on a balcony, You are junct on a balcony. You are the Blessed Damosel bending down. You are Bea-trice to be worshiped. You are Rachel to be waited for. If I do not see you, you will still be in my heart. Remember that, Mimi. There has never been

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL (The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Dec. 12 is I John 1:1-7 and Revelation 21:1-7, the Golden Text being I John 1:3, "Our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.") AT THE creation of man Jehovah.

been made in the image and likeness of God he was like God in that his nature called for fellowship through which he might express his love.

Jesus and Fellowship. Our Lord Jesus recognized this need of fellowship when he "sent his disciples by two and two." The early church recognized the same in sending forth Barnabas and Saul, Paul from all sin." Continual striving after and Silas, Baranabas and Mark, Peter and John, etc. This "knitting of the for fellowship with God. to be with soul of Jonathon with the soul of him is to be like him. Fellowship be David" is an expression of one of the gets likeness. Light has an affinity most deep-seated and universal char- for light and darkness for darkness acteristics of human nature. And our Fellowship with the good will streng-Lord was so thoroughly human that then the good within us. So Chris he shared this trait with us. So we hear him saying to his disciples, "with desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer"; and with light and warmth, while scat again, "my soul is exceeding sorrow- tered to themselves the fire goes out ful, even unto death: abide ye here and watch with me." As Son of God ship. It persists beyond the grave in he enjoyed fellowship with his Father from eternity. John says, "That which dwell with them, and they shall be was from the beginning, that which his peoples, and God himself shall be we have heard, that which he have seen with our eyes, that which we be-held, and our hands handled of the eyes; and death shall be no more; word of life. And the life was man - neither shall there be mourning, nor we have seen, and bear crying, nor pain, any more: the first fested, and witness, and declare unto you the life, things are passed away. the eternal life, which was with the make all things new."

the man should be alone; I will make Christ." The privilege of such a fel-him a helpmeet for him." Having lowship should move us to want to fit him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him and not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light. we have holiness must result from our desirhis disciples. Together the coals burn Death does not destroy this fellowget into forward stride, and there was party group, will attend today's ses-

10:00 a. m., Men's Bible class.

. FIRST BAPTIST.

Rev. Albert S. Hale, pastor.

2 p. m., St. John's Mission, North

The evening worship service 7.30

Today's Church

- Message -

By REV. J. EVERETTE NEESE.

ADVERTISING.

.Mark Twain had a letter from one

11 a. m., Morning sermon.

I John 1:3-"Our fellowship is with the Fatner, and with his Son Jesus Christ,"

Father, and was manifested unto us.'

League.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL. Rev. Robert E. Brown, pastor. Sanders, superintendent.

by the Rev. Dr. Trela D. Collins, of We welcome you. Durham, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Council of Churches. Dr. Collins is coming in the interests of a Conference of Preachers and Laymen to be held soon in Raleigh. He is a former pastor of the Temple Baptist church of Durham.

The evening service will be omitted on account of the program of Christmas music to be held at the high school at five o'clock.

FIRST METHODIST FROTESTANT. mon.

Rev. T. J. Whitehead, pastor. 9:45 a. m., Sunday school. A. H. Henderson. Church school. Nuckles, superintendent.

11 a. m., Morning worship. Sermon subject: "The Bible and the Ideals of Life." evening.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

Rev. James A. Jones, pastor.

9:45 a. m., The church school. J. make tomorrow's attendance bigger tures closed steady three to five low- terrified. Then there is a twist to the Harry Bryan, general superintendent. than that. Departments of worship and classes Morning worship service 11 o'cl .rk. Collins will speak to the Adult Bible tion of deacons, a fuller announce-classes. Line fuller announce-ment of which is made elsewhere. December8.058.05 classes.

11 a. m., The morning worship. The The pastor will speak on the "The minister for the service will be the Dignity of Being a Bennon. Rev. Donald W. Richardson, D. D. of There will be no 3. T U There will be no B. T. U. meeting Union Theological Seminary, Rich- due to the vesper service at the Henmond, Va. derson high school.

7:30 p. m., The evening worship. Sermon by Dr. Richardson, U. T. S., o'clock. We shall adde as' our guest Richmond, Va. Dr. Trela Collins, formerly pastor of

Due to the Christmas Cantata in the Temple Baptist church in Durthe high school auditorium at 5 p. m. ham, now Executive Secretary of the Democratic leader, predicted the Senthe meeting of the Young People's North Carolina Council of Churches. ate would approve early next week a Forum will be suspended. You are invited to hear him.

ST. PAUL'S CATHOLIC. Montgomery and College streets. Rev. Leo G. Doetterl, pastor. Sunday mass and Sermon: at 8 a. m. on every first, third, and fifth Sunday of month. At 10:30 a. m., on second, and fourth Sunday of month. Sunday evenings, 7:30; sermon, devotions, and Benediction with the Most Blessed Sacrament. All week-day Masses are at 7:30 a.

You are always cordially welcome of the subscribers to a paper he at all the services.

CONGREGATIONAL - CHRISTIAN. Rev. J. Everette Neese, pastor.

9:45 a. m., Sunday school under the spider in your paper was neither good leadership of John Allen Hall. Mr. luck nor bad luck for you. The spider Hall and his nine teachers invite you was merely looking over our paper to come and discuss the Sunday to see which merchant is not adverschool lesson with them Sunday.

11 a. m., Morning worship service with sermon by the pastor. The morning subject will be "Bible Lies." afterwards." The scripture lesson will be Acts 5:1-11. We extend to you an invitation to Tell people of its virtues and its tian Endeavor meetings at the church business men-advertise.

6:45 p. m., Senior and Junior Chris-church member as others are good the matter. worship with us Sunday.

American Tob B 65 Anaconda ... 31 7-8 Atlantic Coast Line 27 Atlantic Refining 20 3-4 7:30 p. m., Evening worship service. The pastor's evening message will 9:45 a. m., The church school, J. W. center around the subject "The Thief anders, superintendent. In The Church." The scripture les-Columbia Gas & Elcc Co 9 1-4 HOLY INNOCENTS. Rev. I. W. Hughes, rector. Third Sunday in Advent. 7:30 a. m., Holy Communion. 9:45 a. m., Church school and Young Women's Bible class.

Behold, I

000 shares.

6:30 p. m., Toung People's Service U S Steel 57 1-2 twitter. 7:30 p. m., Evening prayer and ser

COTTON IS STEADY ON QUIET MARKET

New York, Dec. 11.-(AF)-Cotton guessing. futures opened steady unclanged to You are cordially invited to come to three lower. Hedge selling was ab-There will be no services in the the services four church tomorrow, sorbed under the foreign buying. Sunday school opens 9:45 a. m. P. March eased from 8.12 to 8.08 and E. Pinnell, general superintendent. At- shortly after the first half hour sold tendance last Sunday 410 a fine start at 8.09 when the list stood unchanged are gratified at each leftward twirl er. Spots quite, middling 8.17. Open Close

January8.05 March8.12 Quota For Cotton

> Boosted In Senate For Next Season ache?

(Continued from Page Une.)

farm bill different from the House measure in only two effects: The degree of compulsion and the method prices are depressed.

hour bill, which has aroused even greater controversity than the farm program.

Low Cost Dinners

For More Humble (Continued from Page One.)

edited saying he had found a spider dinners, jointly with the executive in his paper and he wanted to know committee, should it be decided to whether it was a sign of good luck or bad. Mark Twain replied: "Finding a hold them. A dinner and dance will be given the Y. D. committeemen tonight by the Winston-Salem club. Mr. Allen also said. tising, so that he could go to that Invitations have been sent by Mr Allen to all local clubs of the Young Democratic organization, urging them to attend the session today and to express their views on the question of holding Jackson Day dinners. The executive committees alone will decide

Impetus has been given the move-

Congress Fearful Off FDR's Policies

(Continuta from Fage One.)

ing attention in today's market. Boeing, Douglas, Consolidated, Unit-who are just as enthusiastically for ed and Glenn Martin set up as much the party as those who have. It was as two points or more on the belief also pointed out by Mr. Allen that that several million dollars would the Jackson Day dinners were oribe spent on building the ocean flyers. ginally sponsored by the Young Dem-

While a few steel rails and spe-cialties displayed mild recovery ten-mitteeman Lon Folger and State dencies, many leaders were unable to Chairman Gregg Cherry, of the senior a wide assortment of fractional losers sions. They have both told Mr. Allen at the close. Dealing were quiet thro- | they approve the plan to have March ughout, transfers approximated 400,- dinners.

American Telephone149

Does He Know Channel? In short, the national pilot, in Con-General Electric 43 1-8 knew of impending snags and bars Reynolds Tob B 41 3-8 on one of these obstructions; at least

The administration's congressional crew surmimes that Filot Roosevelt is unfamiliar with his channel-briefly, that he hasn't a clean-cut government philosophy, but everlastingly is Politicians Frightened. Indeed, he has said so; has declared for a policy of experimentation. Few politicians like this, as a regular thing. First the leftist bunch for December. Come and help us to three points net lower. Cotton fu- of the wheel, but the rightists are right and the leftists holler. Finally both groups decide that the whole 8.12 thing is wobbly and mutually are 8.18 | scared.

Folitico-economists are not experi-7.99 mentalists; they are one way or the 7.99 other. 8.08

All that Pilot Roosevelt has back of him is a little crew of do-or-die New Dealers-and even they are scary.

Wouldn't it give anyone a tooth-

Insurgents Claim Big Air Victory (Continued from Page Op3.)

ships. The insurgent dispatched on of aiding farmers financially when the Zaragosa air battle said Francisco's planes, concentrating from va-The house meanwhile will begin consideration Monday of the wage-ed on a fleet of 25 government ships flying up the Etro valley toward Zaragoza. The battle lasted 12 minutes, the insurgents said.

Wife Preservers

If you like your linens scented and use scented soaps, store the soap, unwrapped, in the drawers of the linen closet. the cold response.

selfish, Jerry?" "It means death, my dear, or er to fight for her young. She was some dreadful trouble. Oh, you like a sleek and shining cat demay think I am silly. But I had fending her kitten. an old black Mammy . . ." "I won't have her winter spoiled They passed on . . . and I smiled by you, Jerry. It is the most imto myself. Death and Mimi? . . . portant winter of her life. Yet the thing was preposterous . . . ! the thing was preposterous . . ! you've caught her fancy. Such She was as brilliantly alive as a things never last with her. You spring morning! And as beauti-ful.

I made my way through the "There is more to it than that," crowd. The Queen had been crowned, and in a few moments I said, "there is Fate and our faith in ourselves." there would be dancing. I wanted The words were an echo of the to get as soon as possible to Mimi. things my father had often said to 1 had been promised a dance. me. Only he would have put it "Faith in God and in ourselves." Mrs. Le Brun sat with a group of matrons, many of whom like But in neither case would Mrs. Le herself had been former Queens. Brun have understood. She simply I spoke to her, and to my surprise stared and said in a level voice. the others. "I want to talk to Jerry, are sure to get hurt . . "People who live in the clouds, the others. I want to take to take of the source of the so great waves over us. The dancing

I was at once on guard; but I had begun. A distinguished and said with an effect of composure, gray-haired man came to claim "Not any of them could hold a Mrs. Le Brun. She did not present candle to her, could they? She me to him. She left me high and should have been Queen." dry on the shores of her dis-"She might have been had her pleasure!

grandfather lived." "She should have been anyhow."

She did not continue the theme She had other things on her mind. Her voice was clear, incisive, as she said, "Jerry—you mustn't fall in love with her.'

She says it can't come to any-"I have already fallen in love." thing, and that it is simply un-"You know of course that she settling me. And perhaps she is right. I don't know. Anyhow can't marry you." "I know that whether I marry she came into my room last her or not, my life is at her feet.' night and begged me to give you She laughed, lightly, "Surely you up. I wouldn't promise that I don't believe that any man is at wouldn't see you at all. But I any woman's feet for life." agreed not to ask you to come

"I don't know about other men here, and not to make engage-I know myself."

ments with you. I shall miss our walks together, Jerry, and our talks. But perhaps I am not all the wonderful things you She stopped and we stood there with that careless crowd surging about us. Yet we might have been marooned on an island in an empty say I am. If I were really the sea for all that anyone else matthink the world well lost, wouldn't I? And I don't. So tered.

"It isn't quite fair to Mimi Jerry, for you to talk high romance when you can't talk mar-Juliet on a balcony, or that I'd riage.'

I am like the young women in "I would talk marriage if she the nursery rhyme . . . just 'ribbons and laces' and my face would listen."

"But you haven't anything to marry on."

is my fortune, Jerry. "This isn't the kind of letter "I have my allowance from my Uncle Jerry, and I am his heir." mother expects me to write. I flung the statement at her as I But it is the best I can do. I had flung it at Lionel in college. am not the heroine of a play. I felt that it might modify her I am not the heroine of anyattitude. And in a sense it did. thing. I am awfully human, "Is he very rich?" she dethough you won't believe it. manded.

"He hasn't millions, if you mean that," I admitted. "But there would be enough."

"Enough for what? Not for Mimi's future. And anyhow it may be years before you inherit. Don't you see how impossible it is, Jerry? Poverty is dreadful. I won't have Mimi poor."

There was an almost hysterical I spoiled many sheets of paper fierceness in her way of saying it, before I answered her. So I can any other in my life, there will Well, it was natural for a mothnever be. If the play succeeds, yet she kept her voice to a low reproduce what I wrote in part. key. "If my father had not mar- I filed it away with her note, and I shall have something to offer you. But whether it succeeds or not, I shall work for you, wait for the perfect moment when I can call you mine."

High-flown. Well, call it that if you wish. But I was sincere. As a boy I had thought in terms of chivalry. I had been fed on King Arthur, and his Round Table Knights. I had copied in my notebook such things as this: "A glorious company, the flower of men.

serve as model for the To mighty world,

And be the fair beginning of a time . . .

s a To love one maid only, cleave to her,

And worship her by years of noble deeds,

Until they won her . . ."

I had read my Bible, and of Jacob and his seven years; I had read Ruskin, and his challenge to the youth of his day to serve like Jacob.

You see, my ideals of woman-hood had been formed by my father, and they had been modified very little even by my adora-The next morning I had a letter tion of Uncle Jerry and his from Mimi. She sent it by messwashbuckling methods, or by senger and I opened it with a precontact with my mates at college, who refused to put femininity on a pedestal and who held that the girls with whom they danced and flirted and to whom they made love had as many human faults and frailties as themselves.

So in a passion of devotion I dispatched my letter, and it was not until several days had passed without a glimpse of Mimi that I began to feel the reaction. I had a sort of boyish dignity, of pride if you will, which made me refuse to put myself in her way when she had forbidden it. But I was filled with an intolerable ache for her. For the first time in my life I could not square my optimism with the thing which had happened to me. In desperate despair I turned to my work. I shut myself up in my room and wrote. I refused invitations. It seemed to me that if saw Mimi I should fall on my knees and beg her to give me hope. Yet I would not ask again for what she would not give And always I waited for the moment when the acceptance of the play would make it possible for me to lay my laurels at my lady's feet Then, suddenly, like a crash of thunder from a clear sky, or the sickening swing of an earthquake on a golden day, a letter came from our agent. He was sorry, he said, but a reading of the manuscript had convinced him that it would have no chance whatever with producers, and he did not feel justified in offering it to them. It had merits, but it showed plainly our lack of tech-It won't be the same but it will nical knowledge of the stage.

And he was returning it! (To Be Continued)

have you for a friend. It will always be wonderful to rememalways be wonderful to remem-ber. And of course this isn't 'Goodby, forever'—like Tosti's song. Only you mustn't hope any more, and I mustn't dream -and that's all there is to it.

be something." There was an almost hysterical