COBWEB.

What did perfection strive to reach That suddenly so thin and bare, That silver swung, this gleaming arch Appeared against the painted air.

O what enchanted fingers played A muted harp within a dream, That mist should blossom into lace And such a miracle should gleam.

O touch it not, it was not made For hands, O rather stand and pause Lest carved of moonlight it be lost As though such silver never was.
Harold Vinal.

PEKING.

At sunrise the roofs are a mammoth jewel display—rubies, amethysts, sapphires, amber.

By noonday the sky is darkened as if a thousand flocks of elder ducks had risen, shedding their down upon the scene.

Moonlight silvers a city of pure white jade.
Edith Hill Caneas.

Christmas. The girls voted to collect old Christmas cards to send to the Board of Missions next month, and to play Pollyanna for the next three

The topic for discussion was "Pro-

Garden Club Has Mr. Bliss Speaker

On Thursday afternoon the Henderson Garden club met at the home of Mrs. R. G. S. Davis, with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. C. V. Singleton as hostesses.
Mrs. Davis' attractive home was decorated with berries and large sprays of magnolia.
The lecturer for the afternoon, Mr.
Bliss, independent tree surgeon of Raleigh, gave a most comprehensive and interesting address on the care of trees. His audience found him very helpful in the care and planting of trees in Henderson.
At the request of the Bird club, the Henderson Garden club voted to assist them in planting the northern end of the city limits in berried shrubs, thereby attracting the birds. Several members of the club are planning to attend "The Natchez, Minn. Pilgrimage" in March, going on a special train from Richmond, Va.
After the program, Mrs. Davis invited the guests into the dining room.

Rev. Doetterl Is Speaker to B. P. W.

In the study of economic problems covering the entire world, the local Business and Professional Women's club had as their guest speaker on Tuesday evening, the Rev. Leo G.
Doetterl, who gave a very clear explanation of Communism, Socialism, Fascism and Nazism as established in other countries. He spoke of the insidious influences being fostered in this country. As his talk covered a very wide and complicated subject, he was able to give only the more important objectives of each, comparing them all in their influences. His talk was listened to with great interest and was very thought provoking.
Only a few matters of minor interest were transacted in the business session which followed. Miss Galbraith, who had been ill in her home at Suffolk following the holidays was able to preside, and was presented a pot of lovely flowers. Miss Annie Marshall Lemay said that she would be

MUSICAL STAR FEATURED WITH BIRCH, FAMOUS MAGICIAN

MABEL SPERRY
When Birch, the Famous Magician, appears at the High School Auditorium next Wednesday evening, he will present only startling feats of spectacular magic, but also bring a sparkling program that is varied with several distinct features.
Headed by the Birch staff of assisting artists is Mabel Sperry, brilliant young musical star. This charming young lady was featured as xylophone soloist with the 100-piece marimba band at the Century of Progress, Chicago.
She is well known in the concert and radio world as an artist of unusual ability, and critics hail her as the world's greatest girl xylophonist.
Her specially built Marimba-Xylophone, which was planned by an expert designer, is without question the most beautiful instrument of its kind ever produced. It is not only a triumph of tone and tuning, but an artistic achievement as well.
Don't fail to hear this talented musician and her "Marvelous Melodies" at the magical performance on Wednesday evening, January 19, at the high school auditorium. This show is sponsored by the local Lions Club, and the profits will go to the club's blind fund.

Figures in "Wife-Swap" Case

Details of a quadrangular double-cross, involving charges of wife-swapping, were revealed in a Salem, Mass., court, when Mrs. Edith E. Lee (left), 27-year-old mother of a boy, 3, filed suit for divorce. Lee and Mrs. Watson (right) hurled charges of "wife-swapping" at the trial, and declared they had been double-crossed by their respective mates.

LOCAL OFFICIALS LAUGHING STOCK

Slot Machine Crowd Enjoys "Confusion"; Aids Jus- tice Department

Daily Dispatch Bureau.
In The Six Cities District.
Raleigh, Jan. 14.—Widespread confusion and inaction in the matter of slot machines and "bookies" on the part of local authorities is furnishing advocates of a State Department of Justice with more than a little ammunition.
They point out that these matters would be brought to a speedy determination if there were a central law enforcement bureau for the State.
A Department of Justice, they contend, would soon find out whether or not the so-called "silent salesman", now protected in some jurisdictions by a Federal court injunction, are violations of the Flannagan anti-slot machine law; and it would soon get a final verdict on whether any one can openly maintain a betting establishment in North Carolina on the plea that it does nothing but receive and transmit money to states where horse race betting is legal.
As it is, the slots and the bookies are laughing at the baffled and ineffective local authorities.
Harold Bard, of Elizabeth, N. J., used to be a friend of George Ross Pou, but the State auditor is now just a bit puzzled how to classify him. Mr.
Baird is the fellow who sent Mr. Pou two "baby" St. Bernards, weighing a mere 125 pounds or so each. They eat so much that the State auditor has to figure them in his budget. Mr. Baird was here to see Mr. Pou this week. He brought with him a book, "The St.
Bernard", by Joseph Fleischli the only publication on the dogs printed in English. The pooches are named Snow Hill and Tiny Little.
Farm agents from all over the State, here for the four-day extension workers' conference of the State College Extension Service, were shown what makes the wheels go round in the State Department of Agriculture.
Commissioner W. Kerr Scott had them go through the building Thursday evening. He said it was another example of the fine spirit of cooperation now existing between the department and State College.

WEEK'S TIME TO FILE APPEAL IN ACCEPTANCE

Raleigh, Jan. 14 (AP)—Attorneys said today a week's of the time for filing Mrs. Sina Pope Godwin's appeal to the Supreme Court would win their agreement to revocation to an order allowing her to pay court costs and observe probation rather than serve a two to five year sentence imposed for the slaying of her third husband.
Charles Ross, a member of defense counsel, said if extension was granted, "we are willing to take our chance on the Supreme Court and drop this matter."
Saturday night is the deadline for filing the appeal.
