FROM ANCIENT TIMES THE POWER OF FINANCY HAS BEEN ON THE SIDE OF RIGHT: The kings came and fought; then fought the kings of Canaan; in Tanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no gain of money. They fought from heaven, the stars in their courses fought against Sisera. The river of Kishon swept them away, their ancient river the river Kishon. O my soul, thou hast trodden down strength.—Judges 5:19-21.

TODAY

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARIES
1747—William Duer, fiery New York merchant, financier and Revolutionary patriot, born in England. Died May 7, 1799.

1782—John Caldwell Calhoun, famed South Carolina statesman, lawyer, congressman, secretary of war, Vice-President, senator, secretary of state and political philosopher, born in Abbeville District, S. C. Died March 31, 1850.

1800—Francis Lieber, a German liberal who fled persecution, South Carolina and New York professor of history, publicist and political scientist, born. Died Oct. 2, 1872.

1800—Gerard Hallock, distinguished New York journalist in the days when incoming ships were intercepted for news and news from Washington was spread over the country by relays of fast horses, born at Plainfield, Mass. Died Jan. 4, 1866.

1877—Anna Held, actress, born in Paris. Died in New York, Aug. 12, 1918.

TODAY IN HISTORY
1780—About $200,000,000 worth of paper money, issued by Continental Congress, ordered redeemed at market value in specie at 40 to 1, because so depreciated.

1818—Limited Service Pension Act provided pensions for Revolutionary veterans in need—from $20 per month to officers to $8 per month for privates. Rush for pensions seemed to prove every veteran in need.

1917—Relations between United States and Germany further strained by news of German sinking of three American ships.

1937—London Consolidated School, New London, Texas, disaster—big rural school blown to dust and more than 400 children killed.

ONCE UPON MARCH 18th
John J. Pershing will stand out in American history as unique in one respect. He was the first and only major military hero of a war not to be elected President.

George Washington, Andrew Jackson, Zachary Taylor, U. S. Grant and Theodore Roosevelt were all placed in the White House by their military records.

True, Theodore Roosevelt was elevated by the death of McKinley, but he would not have been placed in the fortuitous post of Vice President if he had not won fame at San Juan Hill.

During most of the nation's history, a war record has been a necessary

What Do You Know About North Carolina? By FRED H. MAY

1. How many persons from Calvin Coolidge's state have changed their citizenship to North Carolina?

2. How does North Carolina rank with other states in the number of illicit distilleries seized?

3. How does the freshness of today's news compare with that of 150 years ago?

4. When was a military order used to prevent the sale of a North Carolina railroad?

5. How does North Carolina farm per capita income compare with that of California?

6. Why did the first State Treasurer resign?

ANSWERS.
1. There are 331 persons born in Vermont now citizens of North Carolina, according to latest census reports.

2. The latest comparative reports place North Carolina in the bracket of 50 to 100 stills for each 100,000 population. Only two states rank higher than North Carolina, these are Florida and Nevada.

3. In 1789 a news story from New England appeared in North Carolina papers only after it had been published in France and then reached North Carolina through the West Indies. Another item originated in Fayetteville, first went to a Richmond newspaper and then to Edenton where it was published 75 days after the event took place. At that time news from London averaged 85 days old; New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore 23 days old; and Richmond 19 days old.

4. April 11, 1867 and December 31, 1867. The orders were to prevent the railroad from Morehead City to Goldsboro from being sold to satisfy creditors.

5. From a basis of the total farm population the average per capita income for North Carolina is $167, while that of California is $1246. California is the only state in the Union where the per capita farm income is greater than the non-farm income.

6. Memecum Hunt, of Granville, resigned in 1787 when it was discovered that he was implicated in the redemption of fraudulent state due bills and certificates. He had been appointed the first state treasurer four years earlier when a change had been made from district treasurers to a state treasurer.

month, 547, than in the corresponding month of 1937, when there were 498, and there were more injured, 569, than in February, 1937, which showed 516.

Even the decided decline in accidents from the 670 of January isn't nearly so impressive as it seems on the surface when a per diem calculation shows there were 19 15-28 accidents daily in February against 21 19-31 in January; and it is further remembered that January had five Saturdays and five Sundays, days on which accidents are peculiarly frequent, while February had only four of each.

Of the February accidents 13 fatal and 96 non-fatal occurred on Sunday while 11 fatal and 103 non-fatal took place on Saturday, a total of 223 for these week-end days; leaving 324 for the other five days of the week combined.

Of the 55 February killed, 25 were pedestrians, nine of whom were walking in the road, five were getting on or off other vehicles, and only three were "jaywalking" (crossing between intersections). One was working in the roadway.

As usual the three hours from 5 to 8 p. m. were far and away the most dangerous with 14 fatal and 109 non-fatal accidents. Only nine persons were killed during hours earlier than 4 p. m.

tonight to succeed Dr. W. C. Jackson, of Greensboro, when he was nominated for the presidency last night.

Dr. Henry Highsmith, of Raleigh, and Dr. William Brownell, of Duke University, were nominated for the vice presidency.

The divisional meetings went off on schedule except for the department of classroom teachers, where a rebellion of the nomination committee resulted in election 212 to 202, of Miss Agnes McDonald, of Washington, over Miss Lillian Parker, of Charlotte, as department president. Miss McDonald is a sister of Dr. Ralph McDonald, of Winston Salem.

SELLING OF COTTON DROPS PRICE DOWN

New York, March 18 (AP)—Cotton futures opened three to six lower in response to lower markets abroad and under southern and foreign selling.

July had recovered from lower selling from 8.80 shortly after the first half hour, when the market was two to four net lower. Prices went into new low ground for the movement with July easing and the list showing net losses of 10 to 17 net lower. By midday prices were up about three to four points from the low.

qualification to a successful political career. There is, however, at least one instance of a draft evader becoming President—Stephen Grover Cleveland, who was born 101 years ago today at Caldwell, N. J.

When Cleveland was 26 and a lawyer in Buffalo, N. Y., he was conscripted for the Federal army in the War Between the States. He dodged the draft by hiring a sailor as a substitute. The sailor later deserted.

However, when a more unpleasant task than soldiering confronted the draft-dodger seven years later, he did not flinch. As sheriff of Erie County, Cleveland personally released the trap and hanged Jack Gaffey and Patrick Morrissey, murderers.

AMERICA AT WAR DAY-BY-DAY
20 Years Ago Today—S. E. Alexander Agassiz, former U. S. ship fitted out by Germans at Mazatlan, Mexico, as a commerce raider, was captured in the Pacific by a U. S. cruiser.

Two titled Frenchmen and two women were arrested in New York as German spies. They were deported to France for trial and punishment.

The AEF established a rest and leave center at Tix-Les-Bains for men coming out of the first line.

Behind the front lines there was growing up a vast American organization, comparable to that of a colonial enterprise, including docks, railroads, warehouses, refrigerating plants, lumber mills, dwellings, hospitals. There were now 100 miles of railway in France operated exclusively by Americans at a cost of $3,000,000. For every every AEF man at the front, there were three behind the lines working to supply and support him.

WAR PESSIMISM HAS EFFECT ON STOCKS

New York, March 18 (AP)—A reviving pessimism hit the stock market in the solar-plexus today, and leading institutions crumbled one to four points before buying support arrived.

The list got off to a slightly mixed start. Bonds were lower.

act, which would, among other things:

- 1. Grant the full amount of cotton price adjustment payments to farmers whose crops had been damaged by boll, flood, drought, boll weevil infestation or fire.
2. Provide that soil conservation payments shall not be less than 90 per cent of last year's rates.

Other developments:
Chairman Arthur Morgan again told President Roosevelt "to his face" it is not possible "to get to the truth" of the TVA controversy at the chief executive's personal inquiry.

AAA officials expected a crop report, due today, to give them some degree the tobacco growers plan to cooperate with the new farm program this year. The report, scheduled for release at 3 p. m. E.S.T., will give the Federal Crop Reporting Board an estimate of the acreage growers intend to plant to tobacco and several other crops.

line until Taylor's wife arrived from Detroit to explain the mechanic's presence in North Carolina.

Meanwhile, the sheriff had in custody Clyde Byrd, unemployed Winston-Salem white man, and Ulysses McDonald, Negro. They were arrested here and admitted they had been riding with Taylor a few hours before the slaying. Also under arrest is T. Dalton, Negro farmer who said he found the body at dawn Wednesday morning, and later admitted he was with Taylor, Bird and McDonald on a drinking party the night before.

Questioned with Dalton were his two brothers, Dave and George, said to be involved in obtaining liquor for the party.
