

Bulldogs Win Opener, 6-3; Aycock's Miscues Costly

Henderson Outhit, Uses Errors, Passes To Win

Taylor, Mabry Lead Visitors at Bat; Norlina Next Foe For Bulldogs

Henderson high school Bulldogs racked up a 6 to 3 verdict over Aycock here yesterday afternoon combining bases on balls with Aycock errors to come out ahead in the contest.

Hoyle struck out eight Henderson batters, but gave five a free pass to first base, while his mates were charged with three official miscues, two of those coming in the sixth when Henderson scored three tallies without a single hit.

Jackson worked for Henderson, fanning two visitors, and allowed eight hits. His mates erred twice.

Taylor, first base, led the hitting for Aycock with three for three, with Mabry getting three for four, a triple double and single. Five Henderson hits were scattered among as many players.

Norlina Thursday. Henderson journeys to Norlina Thursday afternoon for a contest, and Coach Bing Miller is expecting plenty of trouble for his Bulldogs, who look ed rather well against Aycock, and showed plenty of use of more drilling.

EPSOM GETS 19-8 WIN OVER OXFORD

Claude Dickerson Has Perfect Day at Bat with Two Homers to Credit.

Epsom scored an easy 19-8 verdict over Oxford Orphanage team yesterday at Epsom, a big third inning in which 11 runs were pushed across the plate was just too much for the visitors.

June Ellington was on the hill for Epsom, fanning 10 hitters, and kept Oxford from the plate fairly well with the exception of the first and seventh innings.

Claude Dickerson, Epsom catcher, was the batting star of the day with five hits for five attempts, getting two homers, a triple and two singles, Ellington was next best with four for five, a double and three singles. W. James led the visitors with three for four.

Epsom journeys to Wilton Friday afternoon, and Renn will likely get the pitching call.

GRO-SWIFTS WHIP ROSE 5-10 TEAM

The Henderson Grocery-Swift and Company's entry in the city softball league, the "Gro-Swifts," whipped the Rose 5-10c Store entry, last year's champions of the circuit, 19-12 in a practice contest yesterday afternoon at Lassiter's Field.

The winners displayed plenty of power for early season, slamming out four home runs. Abbott got two, Kirk Woodfield and Cawthorne one each.

Regular play in the circuit is expected to be started within a few weeks.

Blue Devils Hope to Top Athletics in Friday's Game

Durham, April 6—While it will be something of a Duke victory regardless of the score, this year's edition of Blue Devils is hoping to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics in the big "Reunion Game" in Duke park here Friday afternoon.

Coach Jack Coombs has some doubt over this year's team which may show the Athletics a thing or two about college ball. And Duke's pitchers, drilled to the nth degree by Coach Coombs, can dish up the curves and the fast ones as their mentor did in the majors several years ago.

In Russ Bergman, shortstop, Eric Tipton, centerfield, Tom Gaddy, left field, Captain Harry Morris, third base, and sophomore Crash Davis, second base, the Blue Devils have five boys who go after their hits all the time. All of them are capable of hitting the ball for extra-base blows.

The fans will not have to wait to see a former Duke star in action. First hitter for the A's, according to the batting order announced by Manager Connie Mack, will be Wayne Ambler, second baseman, who was captain and star hitter of Duke's 1937 outfit which took state and conference championships.

Second hitter will be Ace Parker, the great Duke football hero and All-American halfback in 1936. Parker will be at short for the A's. He will be followed by Bill Werker, A's third sacker, who was a star shortstop at Duke and won All-Southern basketball honors for two years.

Chubby Dean, unable to pitch as scheduled due to a finger ailment, may be sent to first base by Manager Mack. Dean held down that post regularly last season and had a fine year but is being shifted to hurlingthe position he occupied at Oak Ridge and Duke this season. He will bat . . . 7 if he plays first. He Hans Wagner, who caught for Duke last season, will be the A's catcher. He will bat No. 8. Manager Mack has not announced his pitcher.
