

Back from Fishing, Into Harness

Another of President Roosevelt's periodic fishing trips finds the Chief Executive back in Washington, improved in health and ready for more work. He's shown with Secretary Marvin McIntyre on their arrival in Charleston, S. C. The President plans to give all his attention to the Wage-Hour bill dispute.

The Heils Spend an Evening at Home

When Harry Heil, 46, of Fort Lee, N. J., plays cards, he doesn't have to go out looking for "hands." There are plenty right at home, and kibitzers, too. Mrs. Heil, mother of 24 children, sixteen of whom are alive and kicking, has only one complaint—"every hour they eat." The oldest is 24 and the youngest 2 months old. The weekly budget is approximately $20. Only part of the family is shown. (Central Press)

As Flames Swept French Liner Lafayette

Surrounded by smoke, the French liner Lafayette is pictured as the $5,000,000 vessel, familiar to Americans, was consumed by fire. The boat was laid up for minor repairs in drydock at Le Havre, France, when the blaze started. (Central Press)

No Water to Halt Blaze—Family of Three Die

This spectacular photo shows fire raging through the home in Rochester, N. H., where a family of three perished. The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris and their fourteen year old son, Arthur, Jr. Lack of hydrants and water forced firemen to lay 1,200 feet of hose, but to no avail. (Central Press)

Accused Priest

The Rev. James R. Cox . . . in lottery trial

Charged with operation of a lottery and mail fraud in connection with a $25,000 "Garden Stakes" contest, the Rev. James R. Cox awaits decision in federal court in Pittsburgh. A dramatic plea for acquittal of Father Cox, pastor of St. Patrick's church, was made by his attorney, who described the priest as "the greatest humanitarian even in the Pittsburgh district." He described Father Cox as a blameless individual, who trusted implicitly in the honesty of the promoters of the contest, only to be betrayed. Four other persons are charged with the alleged mail fraud.

Injured in Uprising

General Dutra, Minister of War in the cabinet of President Getulio Vargas of Brazil, was reported slightly injured in the exchange of shots that marked the quelling of what was called a Fascist uprising in Rio De Janeiro, the capital. (Central Press)

British "Brains"

Pictured above is Sir Robert Gilbert, permanent British Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who is credited with delivering the stroke that threatens to disrupt the Rome-Berlin axis. An author of note, Sir Robert engineered the Anglo-Italian accord.

American Bar Head

Frank J. Hogan (above), once a $2-a-week cash boy in Brooklyn, N. Y., is choice of the nation's lawyers for presidency of the American Bar Association, meeting in Washington. Hogan successfully defended Andrew Mellon against a government income tax evasion charge. (Central Press)

Senator Pat Harrison's Daughter Honeymoons

Dr. Irvin T. Miller, Senator and Mrs. Pat Harrison and the new Mrs. Miller

After a surprise marriage ceremony at Frederick, Md., the former Catherine Harrison, daughter of U. S. Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, and her husband, Dr. Irvin T. Miller, tell the senator and his wife the happy news in Washington, then start on honeymoon.

Steam Up for Maiden Trip to New York

The new flagship of the Holland-America line, the Nieuw Amsterdam, is pictured at Rotterdam, preparing for her maiden voyage to New York. This photo was made as the 36,287-ton liner slid majestically up the Maas River to her home port after ceremonies marking her transfer to the owners. (Central Press)

So That's Why This Cat Doesn't Like Fish

Nebuchadnezzar . . . he plays with alligators

If we told you that Nebuchadnezzar, cat at the New York aquarium, doesn't like fish you'd wonder. So did we until told why. "Neb," as he is called, was brought to the aquarium to take care of rats. He did so, but when he got rid of them he began on the fish. One day an aquarium official put "Neb" next to an electric eel. "Neb" was terribly shocked. Now all fish are electric eels to him.

Souvenir of a Roman Holiday

Bearing the heads of Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, of Germany, and his host, Premier Mussolini, this medallion was struck to commemorate the visit to Rome of the German dictator. (Central Press)

Will Greet Refugees

Myron C. Taylor, former steel magnate, shown as he appeared sailing from New York for Italy, has been named by President Roosevelt as the American member of the international welcoming committee to offer safe haven for refugees from Germany and Austria. (Central Press)