

Canadian Rains Bring Landslides and Washouts—16 Die

Torrential rains in Eastern Quebec caused heavy damage and brought death to 16 as landslides, washouts and flood struck the countryside. Left, is an aerial view of the washout on the Montreal-Quebec night run near Portneuf, Quebec. The engineer and fireman were killed. Right, is an airview of the eight-family apartment at St. Gregoir, Quebec, which collapsed under the weight of an avalanche. Four persons were killed.

Nazi Show for an Admiral

It wasn't for an ordinary admiral that Fuehrer Hitler put on this great parade of Germany's sea power at Kiel, Germany. The distinguished visitor—an admiral without a navy—was Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary, whose visit to Germany has substantiated the reports of a strong Germany-Hungary alliance. (Central Press)

CHECK PRODUCED AS EVIDENCE IN HINES "RACKET" TRIAL

Facsimile of check indorsed by "J. Hines"

As the state neared the end of its case against James J. Hines, Tammany district leader accused of conspiracy in connection with the policy racket in New York City, a cancelled check for $500 was introduced as the first piece of written evidence.

Above is a facsimile of the check, indorsed by "J. Hines", which was supposed to have been made as payoff for protection by the lottery ring.

A Family Affair

Equally popular in New York society, Mrs. Cobina Wright and her daughter, Cobina, are pictured above at dinner in New York's Waldorf-Astoria. Young Cobina, who makes her home with her mother in New York, recently returned from Suffern, N. Y., where she played in "Stage Door" in summer stock. (Central Press)

Blondy Ryan Home on His Shield

John "Blondy" Ryan, second baseman for the Baltimore Orioles, a former Giants player, is pictured in an ambulance, attended by his wife, as he arrived in Boston en route to his home in Lynn, Mass. Blondy suffered a broken leg in a collision at home plate during game between the Orioles and the Rochester Red Wings. (Central Press)

FALL KILLS MAN AT HOSPITAL

Mayer Stein's body after plunge ... he feared an operation

The body of Mayer Stein, 70, lies in the courtyard of Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, Md., after a 30-foot leap or fall from the porch, above, where he had been sitting in a wheel chair. Picked up unconscious, Stein died a few hours after the plunge. Dr. Winford Smith, hospital director, said the aged man had just been informed a surgical operation was necessary.

She Has No Esophagus

A glance at baby Barbara Kozik, of Newark, N. J., at left, would indicate that she is in best of health. But close scrutiny of X-ray at right shows incomplete esophagus (arrow) with passage from throat to stomach blocked. She has good chance to live. (Central Press)

Maps Power Plans

Louis Johnson ... heads power program

President Roosevelt has named a committee of federal officials with Acting Secretary of War Louis Johnson as chairman to complete a comprehensive program for mobilization of the nation's power resources. It is to insure a steady flow of electrical energy in 15 strategic cities in the event war reaches the shores of the U. S.

Commands Fleet Unit

Pictured above is Rear Admiral Forde Anderson Todd, of South Carolina, who will command the Atlantic unit of the U. S. fleet of 14 new warships. This is first time since 1932 that a fighting unit of the Navy has been assigned to duty in the Atlantic. (Central Press)

Fear and Remorse?

Charles McDonald ... in reflecting mood

Held in Los Angeles on a charge of shooting to kill Mrs. Emila Kreuger, wife of the noted symphony orchestra leader, Charles McDonald is pictured by the camera in a reflecting mood. Is it fear and remorse or despair and anger? McDonald told police he shot Mrs. Kreuger because "she hired my wife as a nursemaid and then so completely dominated her that she broke up our home."

HELD IN DEATH OF ACTOR

James Paskovics embraces his wife

Held without bail in New York on a homicide charge in connection with the death of Clark Twelvetrees, actor, and former husband of the actress, Helen Twelvetrees, James Paskovics, a house painter, embraces his wife in the police station. Paskovics told police he saw Twelvetrees arguing with a woman on a street Aug. 7 when Twelvetrees struck the woman, who claimed she was the actor's wife, knocking her senseless. Paskovics claims he interceded and struck the actor, whose head struck a curb as he fell. Police are looking for the woman.

In Marital Tangle

Mrs. Doris Hisaw Toonie ... under a spell?

Mrs. Doris Hisaw Toonie, 17-year-old Neosho, Mo., girl, stood by in New York City while her husband, Nijib Toonie, 27-year-old Arab, faced a hearing on charges of violating the Mann act. Parents of the bride swore out a warrant after expressing fears that their daughter had come under the spell of a "love potion" when she eloped and married Toonie in Arkansas.

Honored by Nazis

Back from Germany after a series of conferences with German air officials, General Vuillemin, chief of the French military air service, is shown arriving at Paris. On the left side of his uniform the General is wearing the Nazi decoration bestowed upon him by Marshal Goering. (Central Press)