

Views Clash On Exemptions

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, Sept. 8.—The divergent and clashing views with regard to exemption of low-valued homesteads from taxation were brought prominently to attention of the tax classification commission which is studying the question with a view to making recommendations to the 1939 General Assembly.

On the one hand, the contentions of the North Carolina Grange which favors an exemption of $300 on homesteads, were presented by State Master Harry B. Caldwell, while on the other representatives of the North Carolina League of Municipalities and of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, which oppose any exemption, argued that effects of exemption would be ruinous and disastrous to local governmental units.

Caldwell rebutted charges of "discrimination" made against the proposed exemptions by pointing out that there are exemptions for practically every other subject of taxation except real estate, on which no deductions of any kind are authorized. He conceded that there would be some loss of revenue to the counties and cities, but argued that the people of the State, at the polls have spoken in favor of some exemptions on homesteads; and said that loss of revenue can, in large measure, be made up by listing higher valued estates at sums nearer their real replacement values than is done at present.

For the opposition, John L. Skinner, executive secretary of the commissioners association, cited the tremendous loss of tax values which he claimed will be suffered by many of the counties should even a $300 homestead exemption be authorized by the legislature. Members of the commission listened, but gave no indication of their own views.

INFANT DIES AFTER AN 18-DAY ILLNESS

Patrick Allen Large, six-months-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George William Large, died at the home of the parents on Walters street in North Henderson at 1:40 o'clock Wednesday afternoon after an illness of 18 days with a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the home of Mrs. Falkner on Walters street, and interment was in Elmwood cemetery here, with Father Leo Doetterl, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic church, in charge. The family has resided here since last April 20. The infant, who was born in Norfolk, Va., last March 13, is survived by his parents and one sister, Mary Ann Large, two years old.

The Unseen Hand..

SEND an expedition to Africa to film this glorious novel in its authentic locale!

Locate a little English boy to depict the heart-stirring story of a beloved Dickens character!

Search the world for the one man who knows better than all others how people lived in Elizabethan days — what they wore, what they ate, the manner of their dress and their talk!

Reconstruct an historic palace—recreate an historic battle — build a volcano! Erect a city and set it aflame! Loose a flood that will wash whole villages away!

It is you who order these things — and they are done. And whether you applaud with your hands or your heart at the conclusion of a motion picture, your approval echoes in the lives of unseen thousands who have collaborated in its making.

It is for your entertainment that an army of the world's greatest talents is ever on the march, forging ahead to open new vistas for your delight — adding brilliant new recruits from all the arts every day in the year.

Spare nothing, says Hollywood, to make the motion picture theatre the happy haven it is, the place to which millions may confidently come for freedom from boredom and care... for suspense that makes the pulse beat faster... for romance that warms the heart... for hearty laughter and eye-filling beauty.

The unseen hands applaud — and we who make motion pictures hear the echo. It guides us, inspires us, challenges us to fresh endeavors to make the movies better and better.

Now — on the eve of the Golden Jubilee of motion pictures — there is ready for you a remarkable array of new productions — the finest, we feel, that have ever been presented in a single season. On them we have lavished all our skill, all our experience, all our resources.

Here are pictures to charm and to thrill — pictures to amaze and amuse — pictures destined to weave their magic about the hearts and the minds of millions of people — to lighten their labor and brighten their lives, to lift them out of the drab, workaday world into a new world of wonder — timeless and boundless.

See them — give yourself up to their spell — relax and let them work their magic. They are a tonic for your mind and your heart — they are good for what ails you.

Watch for these new season's pictures at your favorite theatre!
