ANNOUNCEMENT

IMMORTALITY OF HOPE.

Cease, every joy to glimmer on my mind;
Put leave, oh leave, the light of Hope behind!
What though my winged hours of bliss have been
Like angels' visits, few and far between:
Her musing mood shall every pang appease,
And charm, when pleasures lose the power to please.
Yes, let each rapture, dear to nature flee:
Close not the light of Fortune's stormy sea.
Mirth, Music, Friendship, Love's propitious smile,
Chase every care, and charm a little while;
Estatic throbs the fluttering heart employ,
And all her strings are harmonized to joy.
Eternal hope! When yonder spheres sublime
Pealed their first notes to sound the March of Time,
Thy joyous youth begun—but not to fade—
When all the sister planets have decayed;
When wrapped in fire, the realms of ether glow,
And heaven's last thunders shakes the world below,
Thou, undismayed, shalt'er the ruins smile,
And light thy torch at Nature's funeral pile.

—Thomas Campbell.

Marian Martin Patterns

PATTERN 9535
You'll just know you're going places in the fashion world when you're dressed in this Marian's Pattern 9535 style! Marian Martin's Pattern 9535 is made charming by its slimming diagonal lines—and it has the attraction too of being very easily stitched up with the aid of the Diagrammed Sew Chart. How slender it makes the hips seem—and how gently a little fullness is set into the skirt by the front panel! The long bodice uses darts to give soft fitting, while the three-quarter sleeves have equally comfortable roominess. For an afternoon version use ruffle trimming, brief little sleeves and more decorative buttons. Pick new synthetics.

Pattern 9535 may be ordered only in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3 3/4 yards 39 inch fabric.

PATTERN 9853

Swing gaily along the road to good times in this new Pattern 9853. College girls and smart matrons hostessing at luncheons will find that its simple yet chic lines cause admiring "table talk." And this latest Marian Martin triumph can be run up in a flash—thanks to the detailed explanations of the Sew Chart included. Don't you like the little points on the yokes? They "dress up" the bodice so sweetly that buttons are the only trimming needed. Now let your eye sweep to the blousing above the waist—it makes the hips appear delightfully slim! You'll be glad too of the action pleat in the skirt—and the choice of neck finishes and sleeve lengths.

Pattern 9853 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 18 requires 3 1/2 yards 39 inch.

Send fifteen cents in coins for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address and style number.

Bird Club Enjoys Outdoor Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis and Mrs. Thomas Badger delightfully entertained the Bird Club on Thursday evening in their garden.

Before a glowing fire, there was an informal discussion of the summer field trips the various members had taken here and elsewhere, and of the birds that have frequented Henderson gardens the past summer. Almost without exception the report showed more birds in Henderson than ever before and it was also evident that the members knew birds much more intimately than was true a year ago. Many blue birds were thought to have occupied the houses built and sold Bird Club members by the North and South Henderson school boys and one member was almost sure that two blue bird families were reared in her house at the same time.

It was reported that Miss Garnet Myers, who had made frequent field trips during her six weeks at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, this summer was one of two students selected from the summer school nature study class to appear before the Greensboro Bird club and make a report.

A nominating committee previously appointed brought in their slate and the following officers were elected for the year: President, Miss Claudia Hunter; vice-president, H. C. Anderson; secretary and treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Fox.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the 14 members present joined James Connell and H. C. Anderson and others who were removing chimney swifts from the chimney of the Vance theatre and banding them. It is not known where chimney swifts winter and it is hoped that by the banding which is going around all over the country this mystery can be cleared up in the interest of science.

SEPTEMBER WORST ACCIDENTS MONTH

Fall Months As Group Have More Than Other Seasons, Maxwell Says

BY A. J. MAXWELL
The fall months are the worst part of the year for highway accidents and September the worst of the fall months. In the last five months of last year there were 168 more fatalities on North Carolina highways than in the previous five months of the year. There will, of course, be heavy travel on highways with reference to Labor Day, and there is increasing traffic on the highways with reference to movement of farm products to markets. It is, therefore, pertinent at this time to call attention of motorists to the extra hazards at this period of the year and to offer a few suggestions in the interest of safe driving.

- Safe Driving.
1. Keep your car under control at all times.
  2. Give full protection to pedestrians.
  3. Correctly regard all light signals and stop signs.
  4. Slow down when road conditions require slow speed or where roads are so marked for safety.
  5. Do not double park. Avoid getting out of your car on the left side.

F. D. R.'s Ex-Son-in-Law to Wed

Curtis B. Dall and Katharine Miller Leas

Former son-in-law of President Roosevelt, Curtis B. Dall, and Miss Katharine Miller Leas of Haverford, Pa., have announced their engagement to wed. Dall is the former husband of the present Mrs. Anna Roosevelt-Boettiger, daughter of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

6. Never pass a car on a curve, near the crest of a hill, (or at any place where visibility is obscured).
7. Always signal before making turns, pulling away from curbs, or any other unusual movement.
8. Keep to the right side of the center of the road and do not cut in and out of traffic unsafely.
9. Know that your car is mechanically safe—that your brakes, tires and other features of the running mechanism are in good condition.
10. The operation of fast moving vehicles requires good judgment as to safe speed. Consider the roadway the travel, light and weather conditions—for safety.
11. Dim lights for approaching cars in night driving. The law requires this, and is an important rule of safety.
12. Trailers are in general use in the fall season, hauling farm products to market. Many of them are not equipped with tail lights as required by law. It is a distinct hazard to use trailers without tail lights. They should also be carefully loaded with ### proper balance and to prevent swaying on highways.

- Safe Walking.
1. Remember, the motorists may not see you when you step from the curb, or when you are walking on the highway, either day or night.
  2. Always walk on the left side of the highway, against on-coming traffic.
  3. Do not walk out between parked cars or any other obstructions on the side of the street or highway.
  4. Streets and highways are not recreational grounds. Do not use them or allow children to use them for this purpose.
