FAMILIAR THINGS.

It is familiar things that rest the heart:
Blue braided rugs, sunlit, upon the floor.
One pine, one star, the dusk has set apart.
And laughter filtering through a neighbor's door;
A woodland path the feet have often followed.
And twittering birds, and silver-flowing brooks;
A bowl of fruit, and plates, and cups smooth-hollowed,
And lilted purring through the noon and books;
An old, old air upon a violin,
The lovely birth and dying of the year,
A house serene and orderly within,
And someone speaking gentle words, and dear.

Elaine V. Emans.

Marian Martin Patterns

PATTERN 9860
Every smart girl of college age will claim this style as her own—since Marian Martin's Pattern 9860 is the newest, sweetest jumper-trock anyone could hope to find. Moreover, from start to finish it's a treat to make up—even for "beginners"—with the helpful Sew Chart giving directions! Note especially the line through the snug high waist—they suit slim young figures to a "T". Make up the button-front style in wool for cool days, and the other version in a pretty new synthetic for "dates." Pick tub cottons and dressy satins for the charming blouses... you'll want several, and may have them long or short-sleeved.

Pattern 9860 may be ordered only in junior and misses' sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 14, jumper, requires 2-1/2 yards 54 inch fabric; blouses 1-1/4 yards 36 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents in coins for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address and style number.

Write for your copy of the new Marian Martin Book of Patterns! See the latest Fall fashions, fabrics, accessories! All the new clothes you need for the season are pictured. Lovely frocks for daytime and parties! Chic for college and business girls! Sturdy things for children; Snow-time sportswear! Styles for the "Would-be-slender" woman! Smart lingerie—and dresses for around the house. Helpful gift ideas too! Easy patterns that invite "beginners"! Send your order today! Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. When book and pattern are ordered together, twenty-five cents.

Granville News

Raymond A. Hunt and family have returned to their home at Charlottesville, Va., after attending the funeral and burial of his father, D. N. Hunt.

Spurgeon McLean, of Lumberton, has come to live with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Crews, of Route 5. Mr. McLean is spry for a young man of 81.

Mrs. Crews was the former Miss Catherine McLean. Daniel Crews is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Crews.

Among the great number of folks who have returned from Canada was Melford Burns, of Route 4, who arrived home yesterday. He reports a good crop and fine cures.

Sam Patterson, city carrier of Henderson, visited his brother, Zeb V. Patterson, at Oxford Thursday.

William A. Stallings, of Louisburg, was in Oxford Thursday. He had not been over this way for several months.

Hardy Currin, of Rowland, was in our town Thursday. He is wearing a cast around his neck after having been in a car wreck not long ago and fractured a small bone in his neck.

Jim Coley, of Maxton, is visiting his son who lives near Oxford.

J. W. Wrenn, Sr., had the misfortune of losing his fine milk cow several days ago. The cow was found with a broken leg and had to be killed.

Mrs. Melissa Aiken Hodnet, of Washington, D. C. is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. N. Hunt, on Lenier Street. Mrs. Hodnet is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Aiken, who formerly lived for many years near Salem church.

Misses Ruby Deal and Alice Newman, nurses at the Granville hospital, and Miss Iris Dickerson, of Henderson, were recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hicks, near Oxford.

Miss Henrietta Parabow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Farabow, of Stem, has entered the school of nursing at Johnson-Willis hospital, Richmond.

Mrs. J. T. Gresham is very ill at her home near Corinth church. Her right side was paralyzed Thursday morning. She is about seventy years old.

Although she should be living in luxury on $833 a month alimony from Basil A. (Pat) Ryan, scion of the fabulous Ryan family, Martha Barkley Ryan was discovered working in downtown New York as secretary to a restaurant owner. Pat, said the mountain girl whom he married on a spree, has not come through with payments on the $10,000 a year alimony a court granted her after her marriage was annulled. Martha is pictured at the typewriter. (Central Press)

West End Garden Club Has Outdoor Meeting

The West End Garden club was entertained Friday afternoon in the garden of Mrs. Jasper B. Hicks, with Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. S. R. Watson, Mrs. John Lee Wester, Mrs. W. M. Coffin and Mrs. George A. Harris as hostesses. The garden was particularly lovely at this time, with fine varieties of dahlias in bloom. When the guests arrived, they were served punch in the side garden by Mrs. John Lee Wester and Mrs. S. R. Watson. During the business session over which the new president, Mrs. Hartwell Bass, Jr., presided, discussion of several projects suggested by the Federation of State Garden Clubs took place. The club decided to join with the Henderson Garden club in the exchange of plants and bulbs in October and to sponsor with that club the Christmas exhibit of decorations in December.

The club was also in favor of becoming federated, the required lapse of one year since its organization having taken place. It was agreed upon to have a picture of some historical place or garden in Vance county in the Federation's year book, and action is being taken to that end.

Last year the club planted a number of shrubs for the beautification of the underpass. It was voted to add bulbs and blooming shrubs this year. Mrs. Kate Watkins gave an attractive paper on Gardens, in which she discussed various flowers, telling the parts they play in the garden and the home. The paper, amusing and instructive, was thoroughly enjoyed by the club.

An ice course with cake and nuts was served by the hostesses, assisted by little Miss Grace Boyd Hicks and Lucy Boyd Harris.

Mrs. Greenway Better
Mrs. N. C. Greenway, who has been confined to her bed for the past week at her home on Young avenue, is able to be out again.

125 Deaths Over State Preventable

Raleigh, Sept. 17.—Deaths in North Carolina from preventable accidents totaled 125 in August, this year, as compared with 156 the corresponding month a year ago, the State Board of Health's vital statistics division, which Dr. R. T. Stimpson is the director, has announced. This was a decrease of 31 for the month. Deaths from automobile accidents, primarily, dropped from 87 to 75, while no fatalities due to automobile and railroad collisions were reported. Railroad accidents claimed 11 victims, as compared with 12 in August, 1937, while drownings dropped from 33 to 25.

The total number of deaths in the State last month was 2,703, as compared with 2,578 in August, 1937, while births last month showed an increase over August, 1937, with a total of 8,937, as compared with 8,747 the corresponding month last year.

Cancer deaths for the month numbered 187, this in comparison with 160 the corresponding month in 1937, while deaths of infants under one year of age increased from 414 to 463, and maternal deaths from 24 to 45.

Suicides were up. There were 34 last month, compared with 26 in August, 1937. Dr. Stimpson's report showed.
