APTAIN FRANK PIERCE Virginia Tech End

Captain Frank Pierce, end, and George Worthington, guard, are two of the kingpins of Virginia Tech's light but hard hitting line which meets Carolina at Chapel Hill Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clork.

Pierce, a fast, aggressive pass-snatching wingman, and Worthington, an agile and durable good, played a prominent part in the Gobblers' surprising 7 to 0 victory over N. C. State Saturday. They frequently broke through to throw the Wolfpack backs for losses.

Indications point to a capacity crowd Saturday. The University will be host to over 12,000 high school seniors and they will attend the game. Governor Hoey and prominent state officials will be presented to the visitors between the halves.

with several teeth still intact, had been found by police digging in the basement of Ukrainian hall, an East Side social establishment, where one of the kidnapers said Fried's body was cremated in the furnace.

A quantity of hones uncovered yesterday were found to be those of animals. Today's discovery started the police on an investigation of the possibility that an additional victim may have fallen prey to the gang.

UNC To Show Several New Faces Against Gobblers

Chapel Hill, Nov. 4.-When North Chuck Kline, senior end, and Chuck Carolina and Virginia Tech football Slagle, guard, are both bothered by teams clash here Saturday at 2 o'clock the Tar Heels will show several new faces in their starting lineup. Coach Ray Wolf plans to start four Mallory, ends; Gates Kimball, tackle; and Bob Smith, center. The Tar Heel mentor also indicated he would use Tony Cernugel at fullback instead of the veteran Jack Kraynick. Cernugel, hampered by injuries for two them up for the Gobbler game.

Indications point to a near capacity Crowd. Carolina and Virginia Tech will have as their guests more than sophomores: Paul Severin and Jim 12,000 high school seniors who will come here for the first North Carolina High School Day. Governor Clyde Hoey and other prominent state notables will attend the game and will be presented to the visitors between years has played only a few minutes this season. He showed so much improvement this week, however, that he earned a position in the starting lineup.

The Tar Heels were not in top condition as they took their final police. dition as they took their final polishing drills this afternoon. George Stirn last week by upsetting N. C. State's weiss, triple-threat quarterback; fine team 7-0.
