SONG AT THE END OF SUMMER

The thin and evanescent drift of smoke
Erases now the little words we spoke
Where we have falked the brittle
leaves will blow
And all this summer will be dim and quiet
Under the crisp perfection of the snow
Over my fingers let your warm hand
lie
Above our head arches the same deep sky
The words we do not speak are music
now
And will be music when the summer
bough
Loosens its leaves to any winds that blow
And leans at last like jet above the snow.
Sara Van Alstyne Allen.

Senior Choir Practices

The senior choir of the Methodist Episcopal church will practice this evening at 7:30 tonight.

Alma Club Meeting Held On Thursday

The Alma club had a very delightful meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. H. Dixon, with Mrs. Dixon and Mrs. J. W. Cooper as joint hostesses.

Mrs. Dixon's home was attractively decorated with evergreens and winter berries and a beautiful arrangement of fruit on the dining room table.

new members were elected to the club, Mrs. F. L. Toepelman and Mrs. W. J. Alston.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Allison Cooper. The subject was "Trends in Our Modern World," and Mrs. Cooper used this idea under Art, Literature, Music, and Amusement, as the Alma club name stands for these four subjects. Mrs. Ed Shaw assisted by telling of the opera season in New York under the division of Music. Under amusements the topic was of Duke and the Rose Bowl.

Mrs. Cooper had all the members play the game of "Vox Pop," a series of questions and answers like those heard over the radio. Mrs. E. H. Dixon and Mrs. K. L. Burton tied for the prize.

The members were seated at tables and served a delicious salad plate and dessert. The hostesses were assisted in serving by little Miss Harriet Cooper and Miss Sarah James. The following were present: Mesdames K. L. Burton, J. H. Brodie, J. T. Cheatham, Allison Cooper, J. W. Cooper, R. G. S. Davis, A. J. Harris, B. F. Harris, R. G. Kittrell, E. F. Shaw, and Misses Kate and Mariel Gary.

Ambassadors Begin Plans For Dances During Holidays

An important meeting of the Ambassador Club will be held next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the office of E. T. Credle at the corner of Winder and Wyche streets. It was announced today by O. B. Moss, secretary of the club.

At this session, plans will be laid for holiday dances during the Yule season by this organization.

It is impressed upon members that the meeting is an important one, and each is requested to attend.

Marian Martin Patterns

PATTERN 9912
As a reward for "good marks" at school, present your daughter with Marian Martin's latest jumper-frock! Winsome and oh-so-smart, Pattern 9912 suits the nursery-school tot and the long-legged lassie of twelve equally well! And stitching it up is as much fun as making doll clothes! See there are very few seams, and what sewing there is, can quickly be finished with the aid of the Instruction Chart. Note that the panels are bias for a more perky flare, and the belt can be worn two ways. Use wool, cotton or synthetic for the jumper—and a contrast for the blouses (have plenty to interchange—it adds to the life of the jumper!). Bloomers are included with this carefully-planned dress pattern—a feature that mothers everywhere will appreciate highly.

Pattern 9912 may be ordered only in children's sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 6, jumper, requires 1 1/4 yards 54 inch fabric; blouse, 1 yard 35 inch fabric.

Send Fifteen Cents in coins for this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your Size, Name, Address, and Style Number.

Watch for the Marian Martin Pattern Feature every day in this paper! You'll find the very newest styles you've been wanting—original designs created by Marian Martin especially for you! So simple that even a beginner can succeed with them, these patterns are noted for their size accuracy and their perfect fit! Moreover, the easy-to-follow sheet of instructions with every pattern takes the guesswork out of all dressmaking details.

Send your order to Henderson Daily Dispatch, Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.

Mattie Cox, Mrs. Ayscue concluded with a prayer of consecration. The enrollment of the class was 12 with 90 percent average attendance. A number of visitors attended the classes.

The leader greatly appreciated the interest manifested by the group and the use of the attractive posters and other valuable material which was the loan of Mrs. A. B. Deans, and the Lucy Closs Parker Society.

Community Sing Sunday

There will be a community sing at White Memorial Methodist church in South Henderson Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Any choirs of the community or county who desire are invited to come and take part in the singing.

Mother's Standby in Treating CHILDREN'S COLDS

FOR RELIEVING discomforts of chest colds and night coughs, rub Vicks VapoRub on throat, chest, and back at bedtime. Its poultice-vapor action relieves local congestion and helps the youngster relax into restful sleep.
FOR COUGHING and irritated throat due to colds, put VapoRub on the child's tongue. It melts, bathes the throat with comforting medication. Also massage on throat and chest.
FOR HEAD-COLD "sniffles" and misery, melt a spoonful of VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water. Have the child breathe in the steaming vapors. This loosens phlegm, clears air-passages.
