Today . . .

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARIES
1820—Theodore O'Hara, Kentucky editor, poet and soldier, author of "The Bivouac of the Dead," born at Danville, Ky. Died June 6, 1867.
1833—Meville W. Fuller, Chicago lawyer and Democratic leader, chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court from 1888 to 1910, born at Augusta, Me. Died July 4, 1910.
1836—Washington Gadden, nationally-known Columbus, Ohio Congregational clergyman, born at Pottsgrove, Pa. Died July 2, 1918.
1847—Thomas A. Edison, the greatest inventor in world history, born at Milan, Ohio. Died at West Orange, N. J., Oct. 18, 1931.
1839—(100 years ago) Josiah W. Gibbs, Yale's famed professor of mathematics and physics, broad-minded, tolerant genius, son of the noted Orientalist of the same name, born in New Haven, Conn. Died April 23, 1903.
1878—Meyer Bloomfield, Boston and New York lawyer, civic and social worker, pioneer in vocational work, born in Rumania. Died March 14, 1938.

TODAY IN HISTORY
1801—Because Electoral vote showed Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr tied for the Presidency, The House of Representatives, according to law, each State entitled to one vote, made Jefferson President and Burr Vice President.
1839—Dr. Emanuel A. Mudd, imprisoned as one of the Lincoln assassination conspirators, pardoned by the President—lived 13 years thereafter.
1839—U. S. Department of Agriculture elevated to cabinet ranking.
1823—Last of the American soldiers stationed on the Rhine returns home.
1925—Mexico nationalizes church property.
1829—State of the Vatican City created.
1836—Almost entire day in House of Representatives taken up with discussion of definition of "assinine," and if one member could properly call another such.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAYS
Dr. Valeria H. Parker of New York social hygienist, born in Chicago, 69 years ago.
Prof. Elizabeth H. Haight, Vassar professor of Latin, born at Auburn, N. Y., 67 years ago.
Rev. Dr. Hugh T. Kerr of Pittsburgh, noted Presbyterian clergyman born in Canada, 68 years ago.
King Faruk of Egypt born 19 years ago.

TODAY'S HOROSCOPE
Today's degre indicates a strong and forceful nature, a politician of a natural leader of men, capable of forcing his way in the world by push and energy. Avoid, however, the tendency to excess of violence in word and act, and keep the passions under control. Today's native is endowed with a fortune that should not be allowed to ruin itself by indiscretion.

A German editorial, commenting on the replacement of Funk for Schacht as director of the Reichsbank, asks what next. We are just guessing, of course, when we reply Blackstone, the magician.

What Do You Know About North Carolina?

By FRED H. MAY

1. How many women are operating farms in North Carolina?
2. What military equipments was every inhabitant urged to secure in 1775?
3. What is said to have been the most depressing period in North Carolina history?
4. When was it customary for legislators to keep their hats on while in session?
5. What two distinct, early governments were established in North Carolina at the same time?
6. What North Carolinian represented New Jersey in Congress?

ANSWERS.

1. There are 13,822 women operating farms as owners or tenants. In addition to those there are 13,032 women wage earners, and 34,990 on North Carolina farms.
2. The Provincial Congress at Hillsboro in 1775 advised each inhabitant of the province to get a "bayonet for his gun and be ready to turn out at a moment's notice."
3. The decade between 1830 and 1840 just before the State began to develop railroads. During this census period of ten years the State population increased only 2.54 per cent. Movements to establish public schools and public improvements met with little favor.
4. The November 1778 session at Fayetteville was the last one in which hats were worn. Until the end of that session it had been customary for only the speaker to take off his hat. Other members when they addressed the chair also uncovered.
5. In 1684 William Drummond was commissioned as governor of Albemarle, a territory 40 miles square in the northeastern section of the State. At about the same time Clarendon was established on the Cape Fear with Sir John Yeamans as governor. After a few years, however, the Clarendon settlement was abandoned.
6. William C. Houston, born in Cabarrus county in 1740, graduated at Princeton in 1769 and later became Professor of Mathematics in that institution. He was sent to Continental Congress from New Jersey from 1779 to 1782 and again in 1784. Died in 1788.

Fights War Budget

Jeannette Rankin

Jeannette Rankin, who was the first woman member of Congress and one of the few women who voted against United States entrance into the World War, appears before the House naval affairs committee to protest proposed increases in America's armed forces. She is legislative secretary of National Council for Prevention of War.

SALLY'S SALLIES

A woman may be outspoken, but very rarely out-talked.

Cotton Prices Change Little

New York, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened two points higher to three lower on trade and Liverpool buying, against offerings from southern spot houses and some hedge sales. Near the end of the first hour, the market was unchanged to three lower. October slipped from 7.45 to 7.43, or net unchanged. Futures closed one to eight points lower; spot nominal; middling, 8.95.

	Open	Close
March	8.40	8.35
July	8.02	7.98
October	7.45	7.37
December	7.45	7.38
January	7.45	7.40

Stocks Show Slight Gains

New York, Feb. 11.—(AP)—The stock market got off dead-center, and, with a little more activity than in the preceding sluggish session, posted gains of fractions to a point or so for favorites. Short covering by traders who wished to be out of the market over the lengthy week-end—the exchange will be closed Monday for Lincoln's birthday commemoration—was given part of the credit for the better performances of the list. Transfers approximated 300,000 shares. Bonds were selectively improved.

The last of the series of bridge parties given at the West End Country club this winter was held on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. S. H. Watkins was the honor guest, having won the highest score during the series, and was given the privilege of inviting four guests of her own.

February 11, 1919
Robert Taylor, of Townsville, who has been with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, has arrived in New York, according to a message received by his relatives Wednesday morning.

pretty indeed on paper.
Whether or not the budget key-stone of $7,000,000 diversion is sound and whether or not the budget is to be balanced at the expense of an unbalanced program for the State are things which remain to be seen and which only the future can clear up completely.

Pacific far beyond Hawaii. The evidence of such flights proved, representative said, that the two countries had bases in the same area, in Japan's mandated islands.
Other developments:
Any proposal to place a federal income tax on state securities, Attorney General Harry McMillan, of North Carolina, said here, should be submitted to the people in the form of a constitutional amendment. In a statement prepared for a special Senate committee, he asserted that adoption of a bill to tax state securities would cost North Carolina $3,000,000.
