Gevernor Hoey to Speak Odd Facts In Carolina At Kiwanis Ladies Night

Elaborate Arrangements Being Made for Event Here on Next Friday Night

Governor Clyde R. Hoey will be the chief speaker on the occasion of the Ladies Night program of the Henderson Kiwanis club to be held next Friday evening at West End Country Club, members were told last night at their weekly luncheon meeting. Announcement of the governor's acceptance and of other plans was made by R. W. Bruin, chairman of the committee in charge.

The dinner is to be held at 7 o'clock Friday evening. A gesture in appreciation of the presence of the governor will be a red carnation to be at each plate, to be attached to the lapel by the men at a given signal in the program. The governor always wears a carnation on his lapel.

Several guests will be present for the meeting in addition to the governor and probably Mrs. Hoey, and many surprises will be provided by the program committee which were not revealed to the club Friday night. Governor Hoey has visited Henderson on several occasions since he has been the State's chief executive and he is quite popular with the poople of the community. Always he is heard by large audiences when he comes here, and Kiwanians were delighted that he was able to accept the invitation to attend their Ladies Night

OUTLOOK FOR 1939. By Mrs. W. H. Best.

The farm outlook for 1939 is some what encouraging as there will be more people at work, which means more money in circulation, and a larger consumption of farm products and that in turn means more money to farm families which they can invest in manufactured articles for the comfort and convenience of the farm. family.

Roberts Vote Was an Issue of Patronage

bench in Virginia was not so very important nationally. It is agreed that was a pretty good appointment also -nothing the matter with Judge Roberts

But Senators Glass and Byrd of Vir ginia had made a different selection, and it is recognized that a Senator is entitled to dictate federal appointments within his own bailiwick. And here were two Senators, in partnership, who concurred. It made a strong team.

Other Senators are like this: They want political "pap" as much as Senators Glass and Byrd do. If they do not support Glass and Byrd AT M. E. ON SUNDAY will not support them, in turn. Yet the administration does not regard Glass, Byrd and their ilk as genuine New Dealers; consequenty it does as some other alien political breed; so, when they tell what they want, Democrats) who still fee, that Glass and Byrd are Democrats under the skin.

Parenthetically: Glass and Byrd are no more the same with Neely or Pepper than Capper and Frazier, and Austin and Halo are the same. The parties are completely split up.

And President Roosevelt has not got either party that he can depend on-not if that Roberts vote means anything. it is a good thing. Moreover.

Checks and balances! That was the original idea. It has en lost sight of lately.

Who Is a Communist? In connection with the Roberts appointment, nobody has asked, "Is he a Communist?"

That is rational, anyhow. Nobody so considered him. But the query was put concerning Tom Amlie, for the Interstate Commerce Commission. And concerning Harry Bridges, labor leader. And they both have answered, "No." Who knows better than each of them what he is. If anybody asks me, "Am I a Democrat or a Republican?" and I reply "Yes" or "No" I assume that my word will be taken for it. It generally is, at the primary polls. There is not much discredit, one way or the other. If I say I am not a Communist, why shouldn't that "go" too? I ought to know.

We read a newspaper yesterady in which there wasn't a line about Jackie Coogan and Betty Grable. There isn't a thing in the papers these days.

KIWANIS ON HYMNS

Derides Secular Tunes and Words In Churches: Two New Members

Dr. Hubert M. Poteat, of the faculty of Wake Forest College, was the principal speaker at the weekly lunchcon meeting of the Henderson Kiwanis club Friday evening, and discussed church music. He derided the introduction of secular tunes and words into the sacred programs of worship in the churches, and presented the thought before a civic body in a manner that held the attention of the members throughout.

Clarence E. Greene, president of the club, presided at the meeting. Dr. Poteat was presented by A. P. Barnes, chairman of the program.

Roy Tolbert was presented as a new member of the club by Dr. H. L. Allen, and was welcomed by Jasper B. Hicks. Allen Tucker was presented as the junior Kiwanian for the month from the Henderson high school. He was introduced by Prof. S. M. Crowder, of the high school faculty, and was welcomed by D. T. Dickie.

The Wake Forest professor, a talentcd musician himself, both vocal and instrumental, said the old hymns of the ages had never been improved upon for true worship services and bemoaned the fact that the people have taken all too much waltz, ragtime and other tunes for their church music with words close akin to the tunes. He said there was no worship in such services. He quoted from many stanzas and resorted to the piano frequently to illustrate his points and to show how near the ragtime jingles may so-called hymns of the church and the Sunday school

Dr. Poteat blamed church boards and publishing houses for much of the abuse he complained of, and said too much commercialism had crept into the sale of hymn books. If the writers of the words and music of new songs used in the churches were primarily interested in the good they could do, these new numbers wolud not carry copright protection as most

Mrs. A. S. Watkins was present at the meeting as a guest of her hus-band, and W. B. Harrison was a guest of A. P. Barnes. F. J. Beasley, of Baltimore, and until recently a resident of Henderson, as also at the meeting, the guest of G. O. McPhail. Dr. Poteat was a guest of the club. R. W. Bruin, chairman of the pro gram committee for Ladies Night on next Friday evening, made extensive announcements about that event.
