ANNOUNCEMENT

MY HOUSE.

I plan to build a house That will look on something free:
There must be one free thing inside To keep me company.

My house shall face the open sea:
inside, a cat shall dwell with me.
Helen Griffith Pansyck.

POEM FOR A POTTED HYACINTH

I think I could dispense with bread Whereon my body-self is fed For long, if need be, that my fill Hold once manure hyacinth to fill The hungering of the other me That would be fed incessantly!
Elaine V. Emans.

Miss Stainback In Play at Meredith

Meredith College, Raleigh, March 20.—Rehearsals have begun on the major spring production of the Meredith Little Theatre, which is to be dramatization of Louisa M.
Alcott's novel, "Little Women." The play will be given at Meredith in April and again at Wake Forest, sponsored by the Phi Society of Wake Forest College. Miss Frances M. Bailey, head of the speech department, who is directing the play, has announced a double cast for the play, chosen after try-outs from a large group. Two students have been selected to play each role, and similar to the management of a football squad, the best prepared actress will be taken for the part.
With two performances planned, opportunity will be given for the majority of actresses to perform.

Mrs. Glover Gives Miss Wells Party

Mrs. J. B. Glover entertained on a recent evening at a party honoring Miss Mildred Wells, on her sixteenth birthday.

The lower floor was beautiful with its decorations of yellow and green.
The St. Patrick's motif was used in the decoration of the table, which had a centerpiece of yellow jonquils in a huge silver bowl, and green tapers.

Guests were met by Miss Wells and Miss Adelle Glover, and invited into the double living room, where many games and contests were enjoyed during the evening. Prize winners were Miss Connie Matthews and Nelson Longmire.

Later in the evening, an ice course was served to the guests in the dining room.

Miss Wells received many beautiful gifts.

Guests at the party were: Misses Pearl Moody, Helen Wright, Mary Frances Glover, Janie Harper, Gertrude O'Brien, Emma Louise Greenway, Susie Lee Greenway, Ailene Greenway, and Robert Spain, Huston Averette, Allen Abbott, O. C. Boyd,

Parrott, Corrie Mathews, Misses Mildred Wells, Adelle Glover, Hilda Glover, Margaret Glover, and Mesdames Ray Wyche, B. A. Scott, and Dave Glover.

Table Arrangements Feature West End Garden Club Meet

The West End Garden club held an interesting meeting at the West End Country club Saturday afternoon. Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames A. A. Zollicoffer, J. P.
Zollicoffer, E. F. Parham, and W. S.
Corbitt.

The afternoon's program was in charge of Mrs. Morgan Cooper and Mrs. A. W. Gholson, Jr., who gave a discussion of methods for arranging tables. The presentation was featured by an exhibit of colored slides illustrating various types of arrangements. With Mrs. Cooper explaining the different pictures shown and Mrs. Gholson taking charge of the slide exhibit, the club saw views of breakfast, luncheon, dinner, and tea tables where silver, flowers, and other table accessories were selected to complement each other in artistic arrangements.

A short business session was held immediately after the program with the club president, Mrs. H. H. Bass, Jr., presiding.

The hostesses concluded the meeting by serving delectable refreshments before the open fire of the club house.

Marian Martin Pattern

PATTERN 9009

This is for young Miss "Sews-Her-Owen," whose exquisite frocks never fail to delight her beaux! Pattern 9009 brings Marian Martin's latest ideas for two charming yet easily-made dresses . . . a street-length afternoon number, and a party-length gown to wear to dress-up dances, graduation and like events.
First, note the up-n-down the sweetheart neck. What could be more feminine than this "dressmaker" touch, which is featured, too, at the scalloped sleeves?—and it's so easy to do! (A special thread that shirrs as it stitches is ideal for this detail) The pointed corset-band makes a slim waist look like slimmer—while the skirt has a vivacious flare!

Pattern 9009 may be ordered only in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 requires 3 1/4 yards 39 inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards ruch-ing.

Send Fifteen Cents in coins for this Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address, and style number.

Robeson Asks King and Queen

Graham and McNeill will speed the measure to final passage after it has gone through the senatorial mill.

The McIntyre resolution recites as a preamble:

"Whereas, His Majesty, George VI, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, and her Royal Highness, Queen Elizabeth, have expressed their intention to visit the United States sometime during the year 1939; and

"Whereas, Her Royal Highness, Queen Elizabeth, is Scotch and Robeson county has a larger percentage of Scotch descendants than any like area in the world outside of Scotland and was once the home of Flora Mc-Donald, the famous Scotch heroine who saved the life of Bonnie Prince Charlie when he was pursued by Oliver Cromwell; and

"Whereas, the people of Robeson county have always entertained a sincere sympathy and friendship for the English people, particularly the Scotch;"

Therefore, etc., their majesties are invited to visit the county.

gress an Indiana representative made his first speech the other day. That boy bears watching—he'd make a

Miss Sally Garlick Feted At Lovely Tea

Saturday afternoon from five to six o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Perry Gholson, the Old Butte chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, entertained at a charming tea in honor of Miss Sally B.
Garlick, newly elected regent, and the C. A. R.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. A. T.
McNeny. The sweet odor of spring blossoms contributed to the hearty welcome.

The regent wore an afternoon gown of hyacinth blue chiffon, with shirred bodice and circular skirt, and a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs.
Gholson's gown was rainbow chiffon.

The spacious living room where the guests found seats was lovely with spring flowers. The fireplace was filled with southern pine cones, on the mantel were girandoles of pink lustre and crystal, also vases of pink and blue flowers. Elsewhere in the room were branches of forsythia spreading yellow bells from attraction containers. In the windows flanking the doorway were crystal holders of daffodils and narcissi.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with pink and blue cut flowers carrying out the motif. The table was spread with a cloth of lace and cutwork, centered by an enormous bowl of pink hyacinths. About the flowers blue tapers burned in crystal candleabra. A similar arrangement in blue graced the buffet.

The tea table was presided over by Mrs. James K. Plummer. Assisting the hostesses was Miss Edna Garlick. Sandwiches, cookies, fruit cake, luscious poundcake, mints, and nuts were served by Misses Annie Ruth Attention was centered on Chamberlain's message to the House and to a similar statement which his foreign secretary, Viscount Halifax, was to make to the House of Lords.

The prime minister has declared that the German conquest was illegal and Britain has informed Berlin that she regards Germany's new strides in eastern Europe as a violation of the Munich accord of last September 29.

Carolina Women Eager To Tell Experiences!

If 94 out of 100 users picked at random declare they were helped by a medicine, would you believe in its merits? That happened in a late query among Charlotte women! In Jacksonville, 99 of 100 users asked said CARDUI benefited them. High average for ten other cities visited: 93 per cent helped. Carolina women are eager to tell their experiences with CARDUI. They were weak, rundown, nervous, or depressed. These are symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, which CARDUI helps to relieve by stimulating appetite and digestion, and thus building up physical resistance.—(Adv.)
