CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
"By the word a lamp unto my feet, a light unto my path."
Leave, there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.—Matt. 5:24.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted.—Matt. 5:4.

Dr. Augusta F. Bronner, director of the Judge Baker Foundation, Boston, born at Louisville, Ky., 58 years ago.

TODAY'S HOROSCOPE

Today indicates a tractable, even docile person, perhaps a little too much so. There is an indication of being held in restraint, or that some force of circumstance may interfere with freedom of action. Both of these dangers should be avoided if possible; the first would cause a failure in life, and considerable trouble of an unexpected character might come from the latter.

TODAY'S HOROSCOPE

Today's native may be impulsive, willful and daring. The intelligence bestowed and the intuitive judgment which goes with this degree makes for a very strong position and leads to success. Take care to curb the impetuosity so that the emotions may not run away with the reason.

Some motorists take excellent care of their cars, others go for long drives in the country on Sunday afternoon.

What Do You Know About North Carolina?

By FRED H. MAY

1. Who was the North Carolina attorney general appointed to the United States Supreme Court?
2. How many manufacturing plants does the State have with volume outputs ranging from $5,000 to $20,000?
3. Who was the North Carolinian to decline a congressmanship from Alabama?
4. How many counties gave majorities against prohibition in 1908?
5. How many children under one-year old were listed in the last census?
6. How is a vacancy in Congress filled?

ANSWERS.

1. Alfred Moore, of Brunswick, appointed by President Adams in 1799. He served in the State nine years as attorney general at the time of his election to the State post he had never read any law. He immediately applied himself and became a thorough law student. He served four years on the United States Supreme Court and resigned.
2. Late census reports list 1678 plants within this range, whose small plants employ about 7,000 persons, and have a total output valued around $16,000,000.
3. Thomas Kenan of Duplin county. He served in both the house and senate of this state and was sent to congress in 1805. After serving three terms he declined to run again and moved to Alabama. He served many terms in the Alabama legislature and was offered the candidacy to congress which he declined. He died in Selma, Alabama in 1845.
4. Twenty-one; Alexander, Alleghany, Camden, Caswell, Duplin, Durham, Edgecombe, Franklin, Johnston, Martin, New Hanover, Onslow, Orange, Person, Stanly, Surry, Stokes, Tyrrell, Wilkes, Wake and Yadkin.
5. For North Carolina there were 74,777. Of this number 38,046 were boys and 36,731 were girls.
6. When a vacancy occurs within a term the governor issues a writ of election for a special election and a proclamation calling on the voters of the district to vote for a congressional candidate to fill the vacancy. The governor may fill a vacancy in the Senate by appointment for the unexpired term.

CHAMPION STEER TO BE SHOWN AT FARM MEETING
College Station, Raleigh, July 22.—A special showing of Mercer, international grand champion Aberdeen Angus steer, has been arranged for farmers and farm women who attend the opening day's program of the 36th annual Farm and Home Week at State College, July 31-August 4, it was announced today by John W. Goodman, assistant director of the Extension Service. The animal will be on exhibit on the college campus at 4 p. m. on Monday, July 31.

Goodman said that arrangements for the steer to be shown to Farm and Home Week visitors was made with the Firestone farm service bureau, which is staging a 5,000-mile tour of the champion. Mercer also will be exhibited in Raleigh on Saturday night, July 29, at 8 p. m., at the Firestone Store, Martin and McDowell streets.

4-H Group To Open Meeting Monday Night

College Station, Raleigh, July 22.—Farm boys and girls from every county in North Carolina will gather here Monday for the 25th annual 4-H Short Course at State College, which will formally open Monday night with a "get-acquainted party" in Pullen Hall. The Short Course will continue through Friday.

Col. John W. Harrelson, administrative dean of State College, will welcome the rural youths at the Monday evening session. L. R. Harrill, state 4-H Club leader, will introduce the county groups and the short course staff. Miss Frances McGregor, assistant state club leader, will speak on "Making the Most of Our Opportunities at Short Course." Archie Prevatte, a farm boy of Robeson county, will preside as president of the State 4-H Club organization.

Governor Clyde R. Hoey will be the principal speaker at the Tuesday morning meeting. He will talk following music, led by Dr. Stanly Smith of Raleigh, and a team demonstration by a Stokes county delegation. The demonstration is called "Being Your Best Exhibit."

Other highlights of the short course program are: A talk by Dr. Jane S. McKimmon, assistant director of the State College Extension Service, Wednesday morning on "Our Country Home;" an address by Dr. Carl Taylor of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, Thursday morning on "Our Community;" a pageant of progress in Hiddick Stadium Thursday evening, at which time the 4-H king and queen of health will be crowned; and a candle-lighting ceremony in the stadium Friday evening, when new officers will be installed.

Capital Gossip
By HENRY AVERILL

Raleigh, July 22.—From several eastern counties come complaints of labor shortage and inadequate barn capacity for curing the tobacco crop. Conditions seem most serious in Pitt and Columbus counties, where large parts of the crop will ruin unless housed within the next few days. Even in Wake several fields have been abandoned because it was just impossible to take care of the tobacco in the curing barns available.

Some farmers see in this condition a hopeful sign. They are those who favored crop control. They say there is too much tobacco and that what is cured will bring more actual money than if the whole crop were sold. Even they deplore the waste of effort and fertilizer in bringing the crop to maturity only to have it forfeited just before marketing time.

Stacy Brewer, former newspaper man, now with the safety division of the motor vehicle bureau, who lives at Hemp, says that the fine horse show at Wilson the other night, and the elite shows staged at Pinehurst are for fancy stock. The Hemp horse show, scheduled for August 12, is for ordinary every-day farmers. It will feature work stock, particularly horse and mule colts.

Exception still proves the rule. Disruption of electric power and telephone facilities for nearly an hour in Raleigh during the storm Thursday night served to emphasize the thorough dependability of these modern conveniences.

RICHMOND COUNTY FARMER LIKES NEW WATER SUPPLY
Rockingham, July 22.—Gus Covington, a Richmond county farmer, figures that he spent $1,500 and many hours of labor in the past few years maintaining a water supply into his home. That was when he used a well and a pump.

Now he gets 1,080 gallons of water per day delivered into his house with out any cost of operation. He has installed a hydraulic ram. He is now going around advising his neighbors to consult J. P. Choplin, assistant return for general disarmament and supervision of Germany's arms industry was said here to have been started by R. S. Hudson, secretary of overseas trade. Hudson was believed to have mentioned the scheme to a number of members of the government. This but a foreign office spokesman said this morning:

Berlin Much Pleased At Latest Turn

"The scheme is unknown to Lord Halifax, it is unknown to Wilson; it is unknown to the prime minister; it is fantastic."

GERMAN OFFICIALS THINK THEY HAVE WON VICTORY
Berlin, July 22.—(AP)—Official Germany congratulated itself today on what it regarded as victory in the latest round of the "battle of nerves."

This was the reaction as reports poured in, especially from Britain, of the "sensational" effect created by yesterday's statement by an authorized Berlin spokesman that Germany is confident Danzig will be returned to the Reich within a few months without bloodshed and on Germany's terms.

Foreign office sources and other commentators insisted that the government spokesman yesterday disclosed nothing new. Hence, they said, if it was treated as news by the press and public in other countries, this is merely another indication of "ragged nerves" elsewhere.

That Germany demands unconditional return of Danzig, it is pointed out here, has always been known. Fuehrer Hitler's newspaper accused Britain of trying to awaken in the minds of English readers that Germany is changing her mind every few days.

"Having previously published half a dozen dates for a German coup d'etat against Danzig, in order thereby to keep the pot boiling," the newspaper said, "the evening press of London yesterday gave a big play to the version that Germany has now decided to give preference to a peaceful solution."

PEANUT CROP WILL BE READY EARLIER

College Station, Raleigh, July 22.—An earlier-than-normal peanut crop in North Carolina is in prospect if weather conditions continue favorable, it was announced today by Dr. I. O. Schaub, director of the State College Extension Service. He said that many growers feared that the crop might be late when planting was delayed in the spring, but that weather conditions in the past two weeks have been excellent for peanuts throughout the Southeast.

Basing his statements on surveys made by county farm agents, and on reports of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Dr. Schaub said that already new peanuts are being dug in South Texas and an occasional car of new Spanish will be available this week.
