

Rockies And Pilot Split Series Games

Pilots Stop Greystone Streak at 26 Games; Byrd Pitches And Bats Sunday At Greystone.

Pilot, a team that resembled an all-star outfit, with players picked from various aggregations in leagues in this section, handed Greystone its first defeat in 27 games Saturday at Pilot, winning 5 to 1; but the Rockies came back Sunday afternoon, behind five hit pitching of Byrd, to win 4 to 2 at Greystone because one of the season's largest crowds. Both tilts were in Tri-county play-off series.

Leonard was the losing Rocky pitcher Saturday.

Byrd played a big part in the Sunday victory, garnering two hits, one of them a home run.

F. Hoyle topped the work of the visiting nine, with three for three, the other two hits going to Eason and Olmo.

Byrd fanned ten men, striking one in his fine performance yesterday. He was master of the situation at all times.

Treefall, a 14-game winning pitcher of Wilson in the Coastal Plains league, was rapped hard by the Rockies.

Singles by Morris, Byrd and Powell scored two runs for the Rockies in second.

Reynolds single, which Olmo earned, the ball going for three bases,

Carolina Has Its Share Home Town Boys, Backers

Over Half of Squad Are North Carolina Boys, May Have Seven in Starting Line-Up; Winston and Greensboro Lead.

By M. R. ALEXANDER.

Chapel Hill, Sept. 4.—The University of North Carolina football squad, which resumed preparations today for its early opener with Citadel here September 23, is going to have its share of home town boys and supporters.

More than half of the squad members are North Carolina boys. The others come from nine states, with no other state contributing more than six.

A total of 46 candidates have already reported, including 10 lettermen, Severin and Mallory at end, Kimball at tackle, Woodson, Sledge, and Abernethy at guard, Strinweiss and Lalance at quarter, Radman at half, and Sadoff at full. Two other lettermen, Chuck Kline at end and Bob Smith at center, and Jack Jones, sophomore center, were expected today.

Five of the veterans and probable starters—Kline, Kimball, Woodson, Abernethy, and Smith—are North Carolina boys. And of the two positions where no letterman is available, Mike Bobbitt from Greensboro is getting first call at right half and Christian Siewers from Winston is scrapping it out with Dick White at left tackle.

The starting eleven, therefore, will have a decided Tar Heel cast and may have as many as seven home-state boys.

Winston-Salem is one of the largest contributors of any Tar Heel city to the 1939 edition with three leading prospects. Oddly, all three are graduates of the same high school and are concentrated at tackle and guard. Gates Kimball, who leads the trio, looks like a veteran fixture at one tackle. Siewers is one of two leading contenders at the other. And Frank Saylor at guard looks like a coming youngster.

Greensboro also has three outstanding representatives in Bobbitt, who has taken over Captain Watson's old post at right half, Charlie Baker, his understudy, and Julian Brantley, first reserve at right guard. High Point next-door adds Charlie Idol, a reserve fullback of promise.

From Charlotte come Bill Blalock, reserve end; Pinky Elliott, sophomore end; and Allen Patterson, sophomore halfback. Leroy Abernethy, Jr., guard and son of the Carolina fullback of another generation, heads the Asheville boys, while Bill Little is a brother to Crowell, Carolina's heady quarterback of a couple of seasons back.

AUTO HITS WAGON, AGED NEGRO HURT

David Eaton, 78-year-old Negro, was sent to Jubilee hospital Saturday afternoon about 1 o'clock when Miss Joyce Powers of Miami, Fla., crashed an automobile into the rear of a wagon upon which he was riding, causing the mule to run away, throwing Eaton from the vehicle.

Miss Powers was placed under $100 bond by State Highway Patrolman T. E. Cooke, Jr., charging her with reckless driving.

The accident occurred on Eaton's 78th birthday.

WESTERN FARMERS TO MEET TOMORROW

Cullowhee, Sept. 4.—The third annual Western North Carolina Farmers' Convention will be held at Western Carolina Teachers college here Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. W. M. Landess, assistant chief of the agricultural division of the Tennessee Valley Authority, of Knoxville, Tenn., will make the principal address. Harcourt A. Morgan, chairman of the TVA, had been invited to attend and speak, but had to decline at the last minute because of an unexpected trip to another part of the country.

Wake Forest Pointing To First Game

Wake Forest, Sept. 4.—With three games on the schedule for the month of September, the first of which is only two weeks away, the Deacons of Wake Forest are finding plenty to do in their daily grid workouts. Coach Peahead Walker issued shorts and light top shirts to his boys for Friday and Saturday's drills, but ordered heavy equipment to be jettisoned today.

While the Deacons have a tough schedule facing them this year, the coaches and players seem to have put aside all thoughts of the impending campaign other than the initial contest of the season with Elon in Greensboro, on the night of September 16. All activities are centering around this game with the Christians, and others will be prepared for as they come up.

Captain Rupert Pate, 200 pound left tackle who hails from Goldsboro, headed the contingent of Deacon grid performers returning for duty this fall. The big captain is a senior and should have a fine year for Wake Forest.

Favored by slightly cooler weather than usual, Coach Walker and his assistants, Murray Greason and Tom Rogers, were able to put their boys through two fast workouts Friday and Saturday. Most of the time was occupied with wind-building and leg-strengthening exercises. Included in these sessions were a series of signal drills, calisthenics and a considerable amount of pass and punting work.

Coach Walker has made it clear to his boys this year that none of them have cinched starting berths as yet, and that the starting eleven will be chosen only after he has seen them work during the next two weeks.

Topping the passers on the squad are John Polanski and Joe Duncavage, sophomores. Red Mayberry is again the leading kicker, although J. V. Pruitt and Polanski, sophs., are showing possibilities as punters.

Enthusiasm is high among the line candidates. Louis Trunzo, Wake's all-southern guard, John Jett, the big 6 ft. 5 inch end, John Pendergast and Butch Clark, centers, Clem Crabtree and Ted Kunkel, tackles, Tom Tingle, guard, and Eddie Woolbert, end, as will the entire squad, seem to be in fine fettle and ready to go.

A second-guesser's guess at a No. 1 line would put Jett and Woolbert, ends; Pate and Crabtree, tackles; Trunzo and Tingle, guards; Pendergast, center.

While two day's of practice couldn't possibly do a great deal towards settling very much about the backfield, it is nevertheless apparent that five corner fight for the four starting positions will be waged.

The five boys who are doing this scrapping for No. 1 berths are Red Mayberry, Jim Ringgold, Marshall Edwards, and Tony Galovich, lettermen, and John Polanski, sophomore.

Besides those already mentioned, here is a complete list of the squad—guards, Tony Balonis, Carl Givler, Frank Kapriva, and Beverly Moser; tackle, Larry Pivec; ends, Paul Wavers, Bill Vanden Dries, Pat Geer, and Herb Cline; Backs, Bill Eutsler, Molly Layton, Dave Fuller, Jim Welch, Pate Horchak, and Joe Kuchinski.

Livestock Men In Fight for Reduced Costs of Freight

St. Pauls, Sept. 4.—Livestock producers of North Carolina have entered the fight to obtain equitable freight rates for the South. C. L. Balance, Robeson county farmer and chairman of the executive committee of the North Carolina Livestock Marketing Associations, has written a letter to Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace enlisting his support in an appeal for lower freight rates from North Carolina to Richmond, Baltimore, and other eastern points.

The mutual livestock marketing associations which Balance heads are promoted by the State College Extension Service. J. V. Taylor, of the Pitt County Mutual Exchange, and H. G. Shelton, of the Edgecombe Mutual Livestock Association, also have appealed to Secretary Wallace for aid.

A hearing is scheduled before the Interstate Commerce Commission in October relative to an adjustment of freight rates and other transportation regulations. In response to Balance's letter, Secretary Wallace said that the matter had been referred to the Transportation Section of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, where it would "receive careful consideration."

$2,000 in Prizes For Exhibits for County Progress

Raleigh, Sept. 4.—Anxious to increase interest of counties, as units, in the North Carolina State Fair, officials of the big exposition to be held here October 10 to 14, have increased the total premiums in the "county progress exhibits" class to a grand total of $2,000.

This year, too, there will be ten awards instead of the four of last year, which totalled $1,750. Frank H. Jeter, exhibit director and State College expert, said today.

First prize will be the substantial sum of $650; second place will bring $500; with prizes of $300, $200 and $100 for the next three ranking exhibits and five prizes of $50 each to the sixth to tenth place counties.

Mr. Jeter and other fair officials are hopeful that an increased number of county exhibits will be attracted by reason of the fact that there will be much brighter chances to win a premium and thereby help defray expenses of making the entry.

Exhibits in the county progress class will be scored on a basis of 100 divided as follows: Attractiveness of exhibit 35, balanced display 30, representativeness of county 20, and quality of material 15.

According to Mr. Jeter, this score card means that the exhibit should be attractively arranged, well put up and so planned that it is pleasing to the eye. Second, the display must be well balanced between agriculture, industry and education, as these three major factors occur within a county.

"These three-purpose exhibits are being encouraged so that the county home and farm agents, vocational teachers, school officials, boards of trade and chambers of commerce, manufacturers, civic clubs, and women's organizations will all take a part in planning and preparing the exhibits," Jeter said.
