Roosevelt Will Make Appeal In Person Before Congress Thursday For Embargo Repeal

Tobacco Buyers Confer On Reopening Markets Now Idle In The South

Called in by AAA in Washington, as Warehousemen, Growers and Bankers Arrive; All Government Offered in Trade for Control.

Ask Aid for U. S. Girls In Glasgow

Boston, Mass., Sept. 19.—(AP)—The international Friendship League appealed to the State Department and the United States Embassy today to help eight American girls stranded in Glasgow find means of returning to the United States.

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The Agriculture Department today called a representative of domestic buyers of flue-cured tobacco to discuss steps for reopening of flue-cured tobacco markets in the South, closed as a result of withdrawal of British buyers.

Meanwhile, a group of tobacco growers, warehousemen and bankers came here to confer with agricultural officials on the tobacco situation. Carolinas tobacco markets were shut down recently after the Imperial Tobacco Company of Great Britain withdrew its buyers from the markets. It was disclosed that several plans to relieve the problem created by low prices had been under consideration.

One of these would be the creation of a corporation to buy and store tobacco until a profitable market can be found. Officials pointed out, however, that none of the proposals could be adopted unless the farmers approve a forthcoming crop control referendum for tobacco.

Sen. Reynolds Assails U. S. Rescue Plans

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Senator Reynolds, Democrat, North Carolina, asserted today that this government "had fallen down miserably in providing transportation for Americans seeking to return from Europe."

Reynolds, who returned from France on the United States liner Manhattan yesterday, said he planned to address a letter to Secretary Hull, inquiring as to the number of aliens on the boat during its passage.

Leaf Prices Depend Upon Arms Repeal

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Str Walter Hotel. Raleigh, Sept. 19.—There is clear evidence in official circles here of a general impression that fate, and ultimate price, of this year's tobacco crop depends more upon quick revision of the United States neutrality law than upon the control election which has been tentatively set for early in October.

New Regime Is Forming For Poland

Government for Much Smaller Nation Expected to Sign Russo-German Peace Immediately, Rumanian Sources Report.

Cernauti, Roumania, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Reports from across the Polish border today said a new pro-German, pro-Russian regime was about to be established in Poland, replacing the government of President Moscicki, Foreign Minister Beck and Marshal Smigly-Rydz and other Polish leaders, who now are refugees in Roumania.

A. & N. C. COMMITTEE TO MEET THURSDAY

Raleigh, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The executive committee of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, which is the State-owned line between Goldsboro and Morehead City, now leased by H. P. Edwards, of Sanford, will meet in Goldsboro Thursday to try to speed up the liquidation of matters hanging over the period of the State's operation.

Rocky Mount, Sept. 19.—(AP)—More than 900 Rocky Mount residents today affixed their signatures to a statement endorsing the stand of President Roosevelt for an amendment to the present neutrality act.

Germans Announce Polish Army Fast Is Disintegrating

Berlin, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The German army high command issued the following communique on operations in Poland: "Dissolution and capitulation of various enemy groups encircled by German forces continues rapidly. The enemy, encircled south of the Vistula between Warsaw and Kutno, southwest of Wyszogrod, was defeated and in a stage of complete dissolution. The number of prisoners taken and the amount of war material captured cannot be estimated at the present time."

tutionality of the law regulating the dry cleaning industry, is challenged. T. P. Ghoslon, of Henderson, and Ira Julian, of Winston-Salem, lawyers for Harris, contended the act violated the Constitution by applying undue restrictions to private business, and that a 1939 amendment exempting 14 counties made the act one of local nature. The Constitution, they contended, forbids regulation of trade by local acts. John Caffey, of Greensboro, and Attorney General Harry McMullan, argued for the State that the law was a valid exercise of police power, and that if the 1939 act was a local law it was invalid, but

Poland Crushed Between Nazis and Reds

Crushed in the jaws of military pliers wielded by Adolf Hitler and Josef Stalin, the 20-year-old Republic of Poland was on the verge of death as Germans pushed in from west and Russians from the east. Her scattered armies were pouring into Rumania. Her highest officials were already there. Only at Warsaw and Lwow did organized resistance continue. Rumania, fearing it would be the next victim, considered severing all ties with Poland.

579 Missing From Sunken Plane Ship

681 Survivors of 1,260 Aboard Torpedoed Aircraft Carrier Accounted For; Two Trawlers Sunk; Russian Move Being Appraised.

London, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The Admiralty announced today that approximately 681 survivors were accounted for of 1,260 aboard the British aircraft carrier Courageous, sunk by an enemy submarine. (That would leave 579 missing).

Meantime, an official announcement said two British trawlers had been sunk, but that three other British merchant vessels had successfully eluded submarine attacks. The ministry of information said the trawlers, Lord Minto and Artista, had been sunk and their crews rescued by a third trawler.

EX-CHANCELLOR OF GEORGIA U. PASSES

Athens, Ga., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Charles Mercer Snelling, 77-year-old chancellor emeritus and for 51 years associated with the University of Georgia, died today at his home here.

the 1937 law applying to the entire State was constitutional. Around 400 residents of the Dabney high school section of Vance county were here to hear arguments in the case involving the refusal of the Vance County Education Board to accept B. A. Scott as principal of the high school. Residents of the area sought a mandamus to compel election of Scott after he was selected by the local school committee. The county board appealed from an order overruling its demurrer which contended that citizens could not sue it. The court will hand down opinions tomorrow.

Britain And France Strengthen Lines For German Attack

Major Battle Anticipated Soon As Nazi Troops Are Transferred From Poland; French Colonial Troops Exceed World War Totals.

Paris, Sept. 1.—(AP)—France and Britain strengthened their war line on the western front today in anticipation of a major battle as soon as German reinforcements are rushed back from Poland.

Entry of red armies from Russia into war-battered Poland was viewed here as speeding the task of German divisions in the east and making more men and equipment available for defense of the westwall. French reports said the nation's colonial troops were mobilized fully and ready to bolster the French attack. The number of colonial troops was described as considerably in excess of the total of effective fighting men called to the tri-color from the empire during the World War.

Schwab, Once Steel Titan, Dies In N. Y.

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Death at 77 has ended the fabulous career of Charles M. Schwab, the $1 a day stake driver who became one of America's steel titans.

The white-haired one-time "strong man of steel" first president of the billion dollar United States Steel Corporation, and founder of the Bethlehem Steel Company, died peacefully in his Park Avenue apartment last night of coronary thrombosis.

Fuehrer Says He Can Fight Seven Years

Declares Germany Never Will Capitate and Poland Never Will Rise Again as Set Up in Last War; Welcomes Danzig into Reich.

Danzig, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler assured France and England today that he had "no war aims" against them, but declared that Poland, as created by the treaty of Versailles "never again will rise".

In a speech of an hour and 14 minutes, one of his best oratorical efforts, the German Fuehrer dwelt at length on what he called his efforts to "bring about friendly relations" with France and England.

SAYS RUSSIA AND GERMANY WILL SETTLE FOR POLAND

Danzig, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler emphasized today "we have no war intention against either England or France."

However, he expressed a determination to continue the war as long as he was forced, saying the word "surrender" would not be uttered. "Nor at the end of the sixth or the seventh year," he shouted. "The generation of today is not the generation of Bethmann-Hollweg (the 1914 German chancellor)."

Dutch Queen Confident Of Neutrality

The Hague, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands today declared in her throne address that she had great confidence in the ability of her armed forces to assure her country's neutrality. Her Majesty, speaking at the Hall of Knights under what she described as "sombre circumstances", expressed hope that her country might be saved from "the horrors of war."

Russians Are Gloating On Their Gains

Moscow, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The general staff of the Soviet army reported today that Soviet forces continued to "eject troops of the Polish army, and that the westward bound Russians were approaching the Polish cities of Lwow and Vilna. (Vilna, in northeast Poland, is about 85 miles from the Russian frontier. Lwow, in southeast Poland, is about 90 miles from the Russian border.)

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist

Washington, Sept. 19.—It's too soon to guess how successful President Roosevelt will be in his move to wipe out party lines in the face of the present "national emergency" — or "limited emergency." Public opinion hasn't had time to react convincingly. The press has barely begun to express itself. Professorial radio broadcasters editorialize very little; they try to state facts but not to draw conclusions.
