CHURCH SOCIETIES
ANNOUNCEMENT

LETTER TO A FRIEND.

Joseph Atsander.
You are not as others do,
But from the crowded gaze exempt;
No hawk disputes the eagle's view,
No wraiths in that bright contempt,
For your heart is a jeweled sword
That flashes proudly to defend
The color of a candid word,
The silence of a lonely friend.
Behind your eyes I know how much
Of quiet faith and courage stand;
Behind your laughter I can touch
The truth as one might touch a hand.

Marian Martin
Pattern

Play starry-eyed-ingenue in this charming little princess frock designed by Marian Martin. The slim paneled lines of Pattern 9264 will make your figure lithe and willowy, with your tiny waist emphasized by the "double-swing" skirt. Use a wide sash, tied in a quaint bustle bow, or let a narrow belt come from the sides, with buttons at the front waist. Be fancy-free as to trimming. You might like cuffs and a voluminous double-bow of eyelet embroidery or lace. Or use lace edging at the pretty neck, the sleeves and down the panels.

Pattern 9264 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30.
Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric, 1-2 yard contrast.
Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or this MARIAN MARTIN pattern to sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to Henderson
Daily Dispatch, Pattern Department, 37 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.

Returns to Burlington.

Mrs. Walter E. Warren has returned to her home in Burlington after spending the holidays in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
M. T. Jessup.

To All My Friends And Customers:

I have sold my stock of goods to W. R.
Fleming and W. E. Hilliard. I wish to extend to my friends and customers my appreciation for their trade and cooperation during the past ten years. It has been a real pleasure to serve you, but owing to health we think it best to sell.
Mr. Fleming and Mr. Hilliard will appreciate your patronage and will continue with the same business.

Melville Hicks will continue with them.

Thanks To Everyone
