Easter Dance For West End Will Be Held Next Monday

Bobby Davis, chairman of the dance committee at West End Country Club, today announced that he and his committee had abandoned the idea of a cabaret style dance for next Easter Monday when the annual Easter dance of that organization will be presented from 10 until 2 o'clock.

While the cabaret plans met with widespread approval, it was deemed unwise to attempt it now, due to the lack of space. Plans call for the annual June dance to be a cabaret when the club's front porch can be used without fear of cold weather.

The ballroom will feature Easter decorations, and the chairman has promised a novelty act during the evening.

Refreshments will be available at the intermission hour.

Townsville P. T. A. Meeting Monday

Townsville Parent-Teacher Association met at Townsville high school last Monday. Mrs. David Gay led the devotional, and Dr. A. D. Gregg, county health officer, made an interesting talk on vaccination of pre-school children, and urged the association to do its best to see that all pre-school age children receive both vaccinations.

New officers were elected for the coming year, with Mrs. Rose Hicks being named president, Mrs. David Gay, vice-president, Mrs. Mary Southernland, secretary, and Mrs. James Twisdale, treasurer.

Middleburg Seniors To Give Class Play

The senior class of the Middleburg high school will present its class play on the evening of March 21, at 8 o'clock. They will give the play "Betty, the Girl o' My Heart".

This play, a three-act melodrama, portrays in a tender and touching way the deep love of Betty for her kind old father. Appealing, too, is the courtship of Betty and the gay, handsome millionaire, Jerry Carmichael.

The cast of characters includes the following: Betty, a girl of 17, Virginia Bennett; Mrs. Graves, a woman of 45, Ruth Hoyle; Peter Graves, a man of 45, Arthur Seaman; Jerry Carmichael, an up-to-date man of about 25, Warren Short; Marie, the maid, Louise Williams; Martin, the butler, Marion Poythress; Elizabeth, the young daughter of Mrs. Graves, Rosaleigh Floyd; Mrs. Jenkins, the housekeeper, Dorothy Mae Hendrick.

Other members of the class will have charge of the following: light and property, Charles Hobgood, Walter Bender, and Linwood Harton; Prompter, Connie Hilliard; publicity, Helen Benton, Rowena Kimball, and Mildred Bender; tickets, Ann Watkins and Dorothy Lee Kearnson; make-up, Mary Franklin; programs, Helen Knuckles.

Choir Rehearsal.
The junior choir of the First Presbyterian church will hold a rehearsal Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the church.

Marian Martin Pattern

PATTERN 9340

If you're mature in years and figure, but young at heart, here's your dream-come-true dress, Marian Martin's Pattern 9340. Right in fashion's limelight are those embroidered flowers, applied on the bodice panels in garden-fresh colors. Clear directions for their simple motifs are included along with the Sew Chart. Two bodice panels extend down into a shapely waist-girdle, eliminating any revealing waistline break and giving a smooth, slender silhouette. Have long sleeves or short ones with decorative tucks and a slight scallop. If you omit the embroidery, consider making bodice panels, girdle and sash all in harmonizing contrast.

Pattern 9340 may be ordered only in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 2 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for this MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to Henderson Daily Dispatch, Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.
