Carolina And Virginia Play On Thursday

Chapel Hill, April 24—The Universities of North Carolina and Virginia, traditional rivals, will send their strong baseball teams against each other at Charlottesville Thursday in the first contest for the Tar Heels on a three-game invasion of Virginia and Maryland.

Feature individual duel will center around two outstanding pitchers—Walter Smith of the Cavaliers and Horace (Red) Benton of the Tar Heels. Smith, who has starred at quarterback and fullback in football for the past three seasons, already has turned in two fine performances this season. He beat Virginia Tech 2-1 and V. M. I. 5-2. He allowed the Gobblers only three hits and the Cadets only seven.

Benton has looked good both in starting and relief roles. In a three-inning turn he was credited with an 8-7 victory over Maryland. Last week he struck out eight V. M. I. batters to feature a 14-2 victory over the Cadets.

Three other sports stars are among Virginia's standouts on the diamond. Peter Gillette, hard-hitting first baseman, was one of the South's best ballplayers last fall. Bobby Harman, whose 22 points led the Cavaliers to a surprise 44-25 victory over Carolina in basketball, is a catcher of renown. Short stop Woody Gosney was the capable heavyweight of Virginia's great boxing team last winter.

Jimmy Howard and Al Mathes, star guards in basketball, and George Stinewiss, Jim Mellory, and George Radman, three of Dixie's finest football athletes, are among Carolina's top-flight baseball players.

Following the Virginia game Carolina will play Maryland in a return game at College Park Friday and

Rosebuds Top Stooges Easily

The Rosebuds soundly thrashed the Standard Stooges last night on the Standard Alleys, winning 1517 to 1397.

Pete Hannan led the Rosebuds and the field, with 321, closely followed by Dr. Parham with 323.

Buddy Petty's 305 was tops for the losers.

Soybean Exports Depend On Wars

College Station, Raleigh, April 24. Soybean exportation from the United States this year will depend largely on the progress of the European war, as well as the situation in the Orient, C. B. Williams, head of the State college agronomy department, pointed out today.

In the six-month period between September, 1932, and February, 1939, the United States exported 2,637,000 bushels of soybeans, 86.1 per cent going to Canada and 7.5 per cent to the Netherlands.

In the corresponding period one year later, 10,913,000 bushels were exported, 31.2 per cent entering Canada and 60.7 per cent going to the Netherlands. This represented an increase in exports of more than 400 per cent.

Contrasting the 1932-39 period and the 1939-40 period, Williams pointed out that Canada increased her imports of the beans by 50 per cent, while the Netherlands showed an increase of 3,225 per cent.

Capital Gossip

Raleigh, April 24.—Marvin Ritch, firebrand from Mecklenburg who did not create quite as much excitement in 1939's General Assembly as was predicted, flew to Raleigh Tuesday.

It was his first plane flight, he confided, and he liked it very much. Asked about Mecklenburg's political complexion with reference to the governor's race, he summed it up in one word (or maybe it's two): "Crazy quit."

He predicted that the bulk of the vote would be split four ways, comparatively evenly, among J. M. Broughton, A. J. Maxwell, W. P. Horton and Lee Grady. Tom Cooper and Paul Grady will get "about 2,000 votes apiece," he said.

Congressman Harold D. Cooley, it is reliably reported, wanted to bring Martin Dies, noted investigator, labor-hater and Red-baiter, to Raleigh for the Wake county Young Democratic rally; but was dissuaded by friends who feared a repetition of the "bad Tydings" episode of sad memory recollection. Dies is no Roosevelt man.

British Rescue of Nazi Airmen

German aviators, shot down in an air-naval battle in the North Sea, are hauled aboard the British ship that went to their rescue as they bobbed about the ocean in a pneumatic raft. The plane, according to the British, was shot down by the guns of the British warship. Photo flashed by radio from London.

Floyd Warns That Tenants Or Landlords May Cause Loss Of Benefit Payments

College Station, Raleigh, April 24.—E. Y. Floyd, AAA executive officer at State College, warned today that landlords or tenants who use practices which tend to defeat the purpose of the AAA program will not receive payments for which they might otherwise be eligible.

In some cases, Floyd pointed out, both landlords and tenants have used practices contrary to regulations of the Triple-A program necessary to obtain payments. In general, these practices have related to payments between landlords and tenants.

According to a recent ruling, a person's entire payment for the farm will be withheld or required to be refunded when already made if he violates stipulated provisions.

For instance, a landlord causes his payment to be withheld if he forces his tenant or sharecropper to pay him all or part of any 1940 parity or conservation check due to the tenant or sharecropper as a result of participation in this year's conservation program.

Also if the landlord requires his tenant or sharecropper to pay, in addition to the customary amount a sum of money equal to the amount of the government payment to the tenant or sharecropper.

A person also waives his payment if he intentionally or attempts to deprive his tenants, or sharecroppers, of payment to which they are entitled by falsifying the record for the farm.

Floyd pointed out that payment will be stopped if a person assigns his tenant or sharecropper to make an assignment of AAA payment for a purpose not permitted by AAA regulations.

Attempts to evade provisions of the Federal program have always been prohibited, but the new regulations outline specific practices which will cause payments to be withheld from cooperators.

GIANTS WIN ANOTHER FROM THE WILDCATS

The Giants turned the Wildcats 6 to 1 yesterday in a baseball contest on the Junior high school lot.

Hicks pitched and Graham caught for the winners, with Reed pitching and Ross catching for the losers.

Their hero arrives on the next bus

Thinks of himself as Daddy—just a fellow like millions of others making the most of every day...working with a purpose and then relaxing to live with his family and friends. His age? He feels so young that the years don't matter. He's the best playmate his wife and youngsters ever had. And why not? No setting sun sees him bringing home the cares of the day. No rising sun fails to find him refreshed and eager to greet the new day.

Advice to Wives: One of Home's greatest charms for Daddy is the icebox—especially when well stocked with Budweiser and other good things. It gives the busy man-about-town the urge to be a gracious man-about-home.
