Wednesday Is Big Day At West End Country Club

Wednesday promises to be a gala day at West End Country Club, with the afternoon being devoted to a conceded handicap tournament, and the evening set aside for the devouring of barbecue at a Dutch supper, followed by the awarding of prizes to winners in the recent club championship tournament.

Wilson T. Smith, chairman of the tournament committee, announced the handicap tournament today, stating that a small entrance fee will be required of each participant. The event will get underway at 2 o'clock, with players drawing an envelope, which carries their handicap. This must be returned to the club pro, Mr. Mann, or a member of the tournament committee, together with a certified score card, when the handicaps will be subtracted from the "bogey", and the one closest to the "bogey" will receive first prize, the second nearest receiving second prize, and a prize will go to the one that misses "bogey" the furthest.

Chairman Smith also reminded members of the club to notify the club's pro shop if they expect to attend the supper Wednesday evening, giving the number plates desired. This is important in order that those in charge of the supper will know how many to prepare for.

During the ceremony that will follow the supper, J. C. Cooper, Jr., will be crowned men's champion, and Mrs. Helen C. Goodwyn will share like honors for the ladies.
