Miss Lucile Rux And Graham V. Boyd Wed

The marriage of Miss Lucile Currin Rux, to Graham Venable Boyd, of Warrenton, took place in an afternoon ceremony today at 4 o'clock, at Holy Innocents Episcopal church. The officiating minister was the Rev. B. N. deFoe Wagner, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church, in Warrenton.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Edwin Ferebee Shaw, organist, played Schubert's Serenade, Ave Maria, by Gounod, and Nocturne in E Flat, by Chopin. The Wedding March from Lohengrin was used as the processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional. During the ceremony Mrs. Shaw played Liebestraum, by Liszt.

Ushers were Richard Blair Boyd, of Durham, brother of the groom; Walker Burwell, of Winston-Salem; Whit S. Peoples, of Palmer Springs, Va.; and Howard Field Jones, of Warrenton.

The bride entered with her brother, Lawrence Jackson Rux, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a blue street dress with matching quilted jacket. Her white gloves were elbow length, and her other accessories were black. She had a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Boyd had as his best man his brother, Pettway Burwell Boyd, of Warrenton.

Mrs. Rux, the bride's mother, wore a dress of black sheer, with black accessories. Her flowers were gardenias.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Boyd, was dressed in black, and wore an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. Upon their return they will be at home in Warrenton.

Mrs. Boyd is the daughter of Mrs. Lawrence Jackson Rux, and the late Mr. Rux. She is a graduate of St. Mary's School, in Raleigh.

Mr. Boyd, son of Mrs. Richard Blair Boyd and the late Mr. Boyd, of Warrenton, attended the University of North Carolina. He is now a buyer for the Export Tobacco Company.

Following the wedding rehearsal Wednesday evening, the bride's family entertained informally at the home on South Garnett street. Guests included members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests, and a few close friends of the couple. A salad plate was served to the guests.

white mints. Dainty sandwiches, cakes, nuts and mints were served by Miss Mary Allen, Mrs. Isham Bagley, Miss Helen Teiser, Miss Kappa Macon, Miss Louise Teiser, Mrs. Richard Burwell, Mrs. Louis Horner, Miss Hazel Brame, Miss Mary Guy Boyd, Mrs. L. H. Harvin, Miss Martha Baily, Miss Caroline Bowers, Miss Mary Sue Newell, and Miss Jane Newell.

Miss Virginia Allen bade the guests goodbye. About 125 friends called during the afternoon.

At about 6:30 o'clock, those who assisted in receiving were served a delicious supper plate, followed by an ice course. Individual cakes served with the dessert resembled miniature nosegays.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. A. Harper with Mrs. Helen Mann and Mrs. Jesse Ellis as hostesses. —Reported.

Mrs. Carter Has Y. M. W. Club Meet

The Y. M. W. club held its meeting in the home of Mrs. Kerman Carter Friday evening with a good attendance. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. A. D. Clayton.

During the business session the club elected Mrs. Jesse Ellis as one on the program committee. Games and contests were enjoyed by everyone, the prizes going to Mrs. Helen Mann and Mrs. A. D. Clayton.

An interesting poem was read by Mrs. Arnold Carter after which delicious refreshments were served which consisted of iced drinks, cakes and nuts.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. A. Harper with Mrs. Helen Mann and Mrs. Jesse Ellis as hostesses. —Reported.
