urns Him Into Seahorse

found New York's hot weather so un kieled over the traces and went for a dip in the East piring police and firemen almost two hours to get the duppound horse out again, as shown.

Silver Trail for Allied Planes

alculated to enable officials to purchase training planes for annalian Air Force. $50,000 was set as the sum needed to purchase the ships. (Central Press) purchase the ships.

A giant Stranraer flying boat takes off for its daily patrol of Canada's eastern coast. Lower, a navigator plots the course, a difficult job in an area where dense fogs are common. These planes, flying hundreds of miles out over the North Atlantic, are the eyes of the dominion's coastal defenses. (Central Press)

Jehovah's Witnesses Arrested

A member of the Jchovah's Witnesses sect, carrying a placard, leaves the patrol wagon to enter poince station in Boston, where twenty-one of the members were arrested and charged with carrying placards without a permit. The nine women and twelve men were held for advertising their "theocratic convention" in the city. (Central Press)

Racing for College Education

Five-Hour Pillbox Demonstrated for Congress

Cc-inventor George R. Jackson stands atop the concrete pillbox he built in a demonstration of his quick-drying concrete for army and congressional leaders at Aberdeen, Md. The concrete sets in five hours #:6 the pillbox may be garrisoned any time after that. The invention would be of great value in event the United States ever is obliged to construct a string of fortnesses along its borders.

The "Flat Foot Four" Give Their All

This is the best barber shop quartet in America. The "Flat Foot Four," of the Oklahoma City, Okla., police force won the title at the New York World's Fair national contest, sponsored by the Society for the Pres-ervation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. Left to right, Lieut. Johnny Whalen, Patrolmen Britt Stegall, Red Elliott and Sam Barnez. Pro and Con on Conscription Bill

Solace at Cowboy's Trial

ack Jack) Ward, cowboy movie actor, is comforted by his mess on trial in Gower Gulch, Cal. He is charged with the good Johnny Tyke, another western movie player. Members eliywood film colony have contributed to Ward's defense. (Central Press)

NOAH NUMSKULL

PROTEINS VISIT THE

THEY VITAMIN ?

CARBOHYDRATES, WOULD

MRS B WELCHLY SAN JOSE, CALIF

DEAR NOAH - IF A WATCH-

MAKER WERE KEPT BUSY, WOULD HE STILL

HINK UP SOME NEW IDEAS-NOW

HAVE TIME ON HIS ANDS ? POSE WITCHIE

George Bach, Jr., of Landsdowne, Pa., winner of the annual soap box derby in Fairmont Park, Fhiladelphia, is pictured with his trophies. He will compete in the national tournament in Akron, Ohio. The national champion receives a college scholarship. (Central Press)

Traded for Enemy Prisoners

These nuns and children, shown in a train at Geneva, Switzerland, are some of the civilian prisoners exchanged through the Central Informa-tion Eureau for Prisoners of War, which has headquarters in Geneva. Europe's warring powers trade noncombatant captives and return them to their home countries with the aid of this neutral ageney. to their home countries with the aid of this neutral agency. (Central Press)

Debating the Burke-Wadsworth military conscription bill before the House Military Aflairs Committee in Washington, Norman Thomas (left), Socialist leader, attacked the plan as "totalitarianism" while New York's Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia (right) called it "the only means of keeping us out of war." Center is Representative Andrew May, committee chairman.

In Death Probe

Jewish Fliers to Aid England

C. P. Phonephoto

An investigation was ordered into the death of Mrs. William Daglish, 58, when the 44-year-old health food store owner of Santa Cruz, Cal., remarried a younger woman twenty-four hours after he buried his first wife. The second Mrs. Dag-lish is 22.

A group of Jewish fighting pilots are shown during a recent review in Palestine. Trained from funds contributed by American organizations, they will take the air to protect the Holy Land against raids by Italiana. (Central Press)