World Series Will Begin On Wednesday

Cincinnati, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The tidal wave of another World Series washed over the Queen City today, beaming baseball's notable personalities and lifting the populace into a high state of excitement in advance of Wednesday's first game between Detroit's Tigers and Cincinnati's Reds.

The community changed overnight from a quiet, hospitable Ohio river town to the baseball capital of the world, as every incoming train and plane disgorged a new batch of diamond addicts.

Hotel lobbies were jammed. Little knots of fans clustered along curbs of the streets to discuss all the fascinating uncertainties that surrounded the struggle for the world championship.

The big question of today, as it was yesterday and will be tomorrow, was whether two of the Reds' injured regulars, Catcher Ernie Lombardi and Second Baseman Lonnie Frey, would be able to play. Not even Manager Bill McKechnie knew the answer.

The Tigers already were established betting favorites at 7 to 10 and the crippled condition of the Cincinnati team made it likely that the odds against the Reds, originally even money, would lengthen probably to 7 or 8 to 5.

Cincinnati, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Some world series facts: Where—Crosley Field, Cincinnati, first two games; Biggs Stadium, Detroit, next three; Crosley Field, games six and seven if they're needed for a decision.

When—Series starts here Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. (EST); same game time in Detroit; postponement for rain would set the whole schedule back a day.

Radio—Over the Mutual Network exclusively.

And Who—The Cincinnati Reds of the National League and the Detroit Tigers of the American.

BIG LEAGUERS TO PLAY THREE GAMES

The post-season baseball series in Eastern North Carolina and Virginia which pits two of the outstanding pitchers, Sid Hudson of Washington against Kirby Higbee of the Phillies, against each other, will also give the fans of this section a chance to get another glimpse of former players or natives who have made good in the big time.

Games which feature many major league stars will be played at Raleigh, Friday night, October 4; Newport News, Saturday night, October 5; and Wilson, Sunday afternoon, October 6. They will be promoted by Leon Fields of Durham who has staged similar contests during past years.

Carolina Is Stressing Air Attack Now

Chapel Hill, N. C. 1.—Davidson was one of the few teams to outpace Carolina last year, and the Tar Heel air corps was planning to curl early and late today in an effort to get ready for air battles with the Cats at Winston-Salem Saturday and with the Frogs at Texas Christian on the following week.

Carolina was in its own territory so much of the Wake Forest game, it had little chance to flash the ordinarily potent aerial attack it also uses to set up its running plays. But from all the signs today Jim LaRue, Frank O'Hare and Johnny Peora will be pitching again Saturday.

Coan Ray Wolf called the sound out 30 minutes early, and all hands worked like beavers until dark to improve their attack and strengthen their defenses in an effort to bounce back from last week's loss to the Wake Forest powerhouse.

Although several players were held out of rough work with injuries, the first team, which made the two beautiful goal line stands against the Deacons, ran intact, but Coan Wolf worked several rookies in with the veterans in an effort to season muen-needed reserve strength.

O'Hare, Peora, and Dave Barksdale, who also calls the plays for the reinforcements, received particular attention. All three have done some good work and shown promise, but they are still young and green as field generals. And one of Carolina's big needs is a seasoned relief man for LaRue if and when he is hurt, as in the Wake Forest game.

Davidson has not one but three fine passers and triple-threats in Grady Sharpe, Dave Spencer and Johnny Frederick. The Wildcats outpassed Carolina last year, completing 12 out of 25 to 8 out of 21 for the Tar Heels, and another aerial exhibition is expected Saturday.

Carolina's weight and ground power were too much for the scrappy Cats last season, but this year may be another story. The Wildcat backs now have a 190-pound line to operate behind—only one pound less than Carolina—and they're known as one of the fastest and most elusive quartets in the State.

Spencer is one of the lightest and fastest backs in the Big Five, while the new sophomore "find", Frederick, is one of the heaviest lads in the Conference. Frederick has also given the Wildcats the added kicking they needed. His booming punts this year have traveled up to 75 yards.

The leader of the Wildcats' speedy ground and air show, Grady Sharpe from Burlington, was out with injuries for the State game last week, but if he is back Saturday as expected the Tar Heels will have to watch him every minute.

Vols Stress Pass Defense

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Tennessee scouts who saw Duke win handily over V. M. I. on Saturday must have been impressed by the Blue Devils' attack since the Volunteers underwent a two-hour aerial-defense drill Monday in preparation for the Duke-Tennessee meeting this week-end.

Major Bob Neyland had a freshman team, garbed in blue shirts, take the field against the varsity for a session of "touch" football in which the airways were busy.

Blond Bob Fox, Johnny Butler, Bust Warren and Van Thompson—Tennessee's tailback wealth—did plenty of flinging on their own, however, with all of the ends working on the receiving.

T.C.U.-Tulane Ticket Sale Still Strong

Chapel Hill, Oct. 1.—Carolina's loss to Wake Forest apparently has not slowed up the advance ticket sales for the Texas Christian and Tulane games.

At the offices of the University athletic association today it was said reservations for the two games showed Monday a decided spurt which continued today.

Obviously taking a lesson from the way the Carolina-Duke game tickets went, fans are not talking chances and are picking their orders early.

Seats for the Texas Christian game, which is to be played here October 12, the University's birthday, have been sold down to the 15-yard line on the south side, and to the 25-yard line on the north side, although there are a few left in scattered locations near the center.

For the Tulane game, the homecoming day event on October 26, seats have been sold down to the 15-yard line on the south side and to the 30-yard line on the north side.

This means that approximately 10,000 seats have already been reserved on the concrete stands for each of these two games. The concrete stands hold 24,000.

"I know that Carolina team is going to bounce back and win some games, and I want to be on hand" seemed to be typical of the attitude of many fans making reservations.

Kluttz Sees Bright Spots In Conference

Chapel Hill, Oct. 1.—Special—Billy Seel, Furman's 185-pound junior end from Anderson, S. C., kept in condition this past summer by working in a shipyard. . . . George Lovell, sophomore tackle for the Purple Hurricane, has always had a desire to become a minister. . . . so he was ordained two weeks before practice began this fall. . . . Herbert Brunson, sophomore end at The Citadel, won eight letters while attending Navasota high school in Anderson, Texas. . . . He added two more while at Lamar Junior College, and should gain Monograms in basketball and track, as well as football while at The Citadel.

Jimmy Howard, William and Mary's hard running back from Richmond, Va., has been moved from fullback to tailback. . . . With Johnny Korzevski, the sensational sophomore from New Jersey, taking over the fullback chores. . . . Johnny Torma, the Indian's promising sophomore back, is still out with an injury suffered in practice more than two week ago. . . . Coach "Pooley" Hubert, of V. M. I., has a first team made up entirely of lettermen. . . . But most of the reserve posts are manned by sophomores and veteran reserves who lack experience under fire.

Dick White, left guard on the University of North Carolina grid eleven, was given a beautiful watch the other day by a girl friend in Cleveland, Ohio. . . . And George Glumack, All-American basketball and reserve end for the Tar Heel gridders, received a goodluck ring from a feminine admirer way out in the State of Washington.

JACK RABBIT By Jack Sords

BOBBY PEOPLES
WILD-RUNNING BACK OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TROJANS

BOB IS EXPECTED TO DEVELOP INTO A DANGEROUS PASSER THIS FALL — HE FLIPPED THE JAVELIN 230 FEET

Frank Kring, first-string fullback for T. C. U., really goes to town on the French harp, and doesn't do so badly at twanking a mean guitar.

The primitive bridge constructed of creepers, bamboo or rope has exactly the same idea as the greatest suspension bridge of today. In each case a cable of some kind is hung across a gap, fastened down securely at each end, and made to support a flooring on which the weight can be carried.

Jean Rogers in "Yesterday's Heroes," playing at the Stevenson Wednesday and Thursday.
