Highs Start Monday For Enfield Game

Without a contest yesterday, the Henderson high Bulldogs were idle, and took a day of rest, but Monday will bring another story.

Enfield comes aere reiday for a contest scheduled to be played under the ares, the first noctarnal game of the season here Lighting will be by special equipment such as that used here last year when Oxford played before one of the best crowds in many years

The long rest for the Buildogs gave some of the brused players a chance to round in top form before next week's game.

Furman Plays State Tonight

Raleigh, Nov. 2—This Saturday, the last of North Carolina State's part of three football disobleheaders, promises to be another tough day for the Country Boy tootball forces of Williams (Doc) Newton.

After Duke and Georgia Tech play in the afternoon at nearby Ducham the State entertains the Purple House of Football Magis from Furman university, Greenville, S. C., in a Southern conference toetball clash starting at 8 o'clock in Riddick studium

623 Drunken Drivers Lose Licenses

Daily Dispatch Burcau, In the Sir Walter Hotel. By HENRY AVERILL. Raleigh, Nov. 2.-Revocations driver's licenses dropped sharply in October as compared with the same month last year, but as usual drunken driving, alone or in conjunction with some other offense, accounted for partically 95 per cent of the total. Figures released by the Highway Safety Division set October revocations at 543, compared with 659 for October, 1939.

Drunken driving, uncomplicated by other offenses, caused 585 revoca-tions; and in conjunction with others was responsible for 623, or 94.5 per cent of the total. Other causes were: Aid and abet- ingham 10.
