SPRING GARDEN.

So many springs he turned the warm- ing land. And seeded long rows to the edge of sky. He cannot let an early spring go by Without a few rows diligently plan- ned. The city neighbors cannot under- stand. When, at market before his very eye. For little more than seed he could supply Green vegetables and never turn a hand. He knows all this, but when that April sun Lies warm across his shoulders like the arm Of some old friend, he cannot rest until That bit of early planting is begun. Till down the furrows of a shrunken farm. He feels again the old, expectant thrill! Isabelle Bryans Longfellow.

Miss Carey Bride Of Herbert Pack

In a simple but effective cere- mony, Miss Eloise Sorrell Carey be- came the bride of Herbert Raymond Pack on Monday, March 31, 1941, at 4 o'clock. The vows were spoken on Monday before Mr. Hunt, of Oxford, with only a few intimate friends and relatives present.

The bride was becomingly attired in a Princeton blue costume with matching accessories.

Mrs. Pack is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Carey, of route 1, Henderson. She is a graduate of the Townsville high school, class of 1939. Mr. Pack is the son of Jett Pack and the late Mrs. Pack, of Stuart, Virginia. For the past few years he has held an important position with Williams Lumber Com- pany, of Stovall.

After the ceremony the couple left for Stovall, where they will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Beane. Later they will visit Mr. Pack's father at Stuart, and other points of interest in Virginia and West Virginia.

The following announcement is being issued:

"Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wesley Carey announce the marriage of their daughter, Eloise Sorrell, to Mr. Herbert Raymond Pack, on Monday, the thirty-first of March nineteen hun- dred and forty-one, in Oxford, North Carolina."

Marian Martin Pattern

PATTERN 9690

The really smart look flatters the larger figure without sacrificing style or youthfulness. Pattern 9690 by Marian Martin is just such a dress. The beautiful symmetry of line, the kn wingly placed soft- ness, the tasteful details, are all part of its expert, slenderness effect on your silhouette. There's easy grace in the curved V-neck, flanked by nicely shaped yokes. Gathers below the yokes, together with deco- rative shirring on either side, just above the waistline, hold the bodice firmness where it's most effective. Even your below-the-waist appear- ance is taken care of, with wide panels to the front and back skirt. Close the short sleeves, sketched or use the gathered three-quarter ver- sion for this wonderful women's dress.

Pattern 9690 may be ordered only in women's sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 requires 3 yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for this MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and STREET NUMBER.

Send your order to Daily Dispatch Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.

Garden Pilgrimage In Full Swing Over State

(By the North Carolina Garden Club.)

The parade of gardens across the Old North State is in full swing. Hundreds of visitors have already seen the beauty of the Wilmington gardens and every report from New Bern glows with the enchantment of stories told of old homes of pre- revolution days. Within the next few weeks still more beauty and history will be on display for the benefit of the Pilgrimage visitors.

Nowhere in the United States is spring more lovely than in North Carolina, and certainly nothing in North Carolina is more interesting than her beautiful homes and gar- dens to be found all over the State. While some of them tell wonderful stories of history, some of the more recent ones reflect the inborn love of beauty and growing things that is characteristic of North Carolinians, and certainly every inhabitant of this fair State should give thanks that our beauty and liberty are not torn to bits by the cruelty of war.

The North Carolina Garden Club Pilgrimage affords the opportunity to see many homes and gardens that are open for this one occasion dur- ing the year. The Greenville Garden Club has, because of the late sea- son, changed its dates to April 16 and 17. Here nine lovely gardens will be on display and tea served on Thursday afternoon in the garden of Mrs. Graham Flanagan, and on Friday in the Garden of Mrs. E. B. Ficklen.

The Wadesboro Garden Club is opening on April 9 and 10, the gardens of Mrs. T. P. Canaway, Mrs. T. C. Cox, Mrs. F. M. Little, Mrs. H. W. Little, Mrs. Bryan Moore, Mrs. E. Y. Sorrell, Mrs. F. Rhunstein, Mrs. Geo. W. Little, Mrs. H. H. Hardison and Mrs. J. D. Horne. Head- quarters will be at the home of Mrs. W. L. Marshall, Jr., Chairman of the Wadesboro Pilgrimage.

Tarboro plans a fine tour both April 10 and 11. Many historic places as well as lovely gardens will be on display, and Tarboro will be served for a nominal fee at the com- munity house, headquarters for the tour.

On April 16 and 17 Beaufort will open the gardens of Mrs. H. A. Gomer, Mrs. Paul Dickson, Mrs. John McCoogen, Mrs. Paul Dezerue, Mrs. G. W. Brown, Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin. Headquarters for this tour will be at the home of Mrs. J. C. Thomas, Chairman.

Fayetteville, Wilson and Rocky Mount will observe the same Pil- grimage dates, April 17 and 18. These dates, as in the case of many other places, have been changed in order that the visitors may have the advantage of seeing the gardens at their best. The First Presby- terian church will be headquarters for Fayetteville and Mrs. John A. Oates is chairman. Visitors for the Wilson tour will register at the Woman's Club with Mrs. M. M. Dew, chair- man.

The home of Mrs. L. L. Mingo will be headquarters for the Rocky Mount tour and Mrs. Thos. J. Pear- sall is chairman. Halifax and Roanoke Rapids are keeping their tradi- tional dates of April 15 and 16. Hal- fax offers old historic places as well as many modern gardens, and visited their sister, Mrs. Herbert Pack, at Stovall Thursday night.

Misses Elizabeth and Margaret Proctor visited Miss Belle Thomas Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Norwood, Helen, Buck Ed. Ben, Jr., and Edna Merree Norwood and Bootsey and Dan Moss, and Henry and Frank Proctor were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carey and family.

Mrs. J. P. Kibball spent the night recently with her niece, Mrs. W. H. Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pinnell visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carey Saturday night.

William Carey has returned to Stovall after spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carey.

Roanoke Rapids gives a splendid sea- son of the charm that can be cre- ated in a small garden.

The Warrenton Garden Club will celebrate the Pilgrimage on April 16 and 17, with headquarters at the Warren Hotel. Mrs. Danore E. Blalock is chairman. Here again visitors have the opportunity of see- ing the charm and beauty of historic buildings and gardens as well as the more modern ones.

The Orland Gardens between Southern Pines and Pinebluff will also be opened on April 16 and 17. Aberdeen, Henderson and Rocky Mount will observe the Garden Pilgrimage on April 17 and 18. Henderson gardens and homes are again open in the afternoons only.

The First Lady of North Carolina will hold open house at the execu- tive Mansion both days of the Pil- grimage, April 16 and 17. Mrs. Broughton will serve coffee in the morning visitors from 10 to 12 o'clock and tea in the afternoon from 2 to 5. The garden room of Mrs. G. A. Wil- son, 1663 Hillsboro Street, will be headquarters for the Raleigh tour. North Carolinians are urged to visit the State Capitol building, for the grand old landmark is one of the most perfect pieces of architecture in all of America.

Ten gardens will be on display in Raleigh, including the garden of Isabelle Bowen. Henderson sends the visitors may see lovely displays of the varieties of plants in the garden and the new type of hot beds. Mrs. Henderson offers her- self on raising her own plants from seed.
